BUNTING HELD FOR MURDER

Today

Now Byrd Is Ready.
Coolidge and Ford Agree.
Mocking Misfortune.
Around and Around.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

[The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review-Tribune.]

COMMANDER BYRD, first to fly over the north pole, plans by Friday a return trip across the Atlantic. Weather and providence permitting, he will fly from New York to Paris, rest there a few hours, and fly back to New York.

Fortunately, while this country, officially, lags behind others, even small countries, in flying, private enterprise and courage show the world how flying should be done.

IT IS a pity that Commander Byrd, magnificent flyer and navigator, should risk his life. Many would urge him to remain here and work to develop the perfect fool-proof trans-Atlantic machine. But friends of the young Virginian are not surprised at his determination to push achievement to the limit.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE, predicts more "intensive farming," tells 200 scientists gathered in a "soil congress" that bigger crops per acre, rather than more acreage, will solve the agricultural problem.

ALREADY the President's prediction begins to come true. Fewer stay on the farms but farms produce more. One wheat harvesting machine has reduced by 25,000 the number of extra harvest hands needed in Kansas.

HENRY FORD, who proves his theory in a dozen places along the River Rouge, says improved machinery will let the farmer do his farming in eight weeks and give him a chance to rest and do other lucrative work during the 44 remaining weeks of the year.

WHILE Lindbergh drove past the sad and gloomy Tombs prison in New York, unhappy prisoners looking through the bars might have been inspired with a determination to do better.

But young men in the crowd outside, jeered and mocked the imprisoned men, casting the prison into an uproar of hate and resentment, frightening the neighborhood.

Those mockers were not such men as Lindbergh would care to have welcome him. Who mocks misfortune is usually a coward.

MR. ECKENER, director of Germany's Zeppelin Co., says the LZ-137, now building, will cross between Germany and the United States several times, then, in 1928, go around the world.

That will begin air travel. Those living will see gigantic airships going round and round the globe, many times, without descending, dropping passengers by small machines at London, Pekin, New York, etc., as trans-Atlantic ships used to drop passengers on tugs, off Liverpool, years ago.

Review-Tribune Offers Booklet On Garden Insects

What will your harvest be? An abundant one—if you watch your garden and protect it from the diseases and insects which are likely to appear. These must be fought with determination and the battle must begin as soon as they reveal their existence.

The government will aid you in the prevention and cure of your garden ills. Its experts have prepared an invaluable booklet on "Diseases and Insects of Garden Vegetables." Your garden may be only a backyard plot or it may cover acres—but in either event you need this booklet.

Our Washington Information Bureau will secure a copy of this booklet for you if you will send in your name and address together with four cents in stamps to cover return postage and handling.

DENIES CHARGE AFTER WAIVING EXAMINATION IN DEATH OF PAL

TAKEN TO JAIL

Funeral Services on Friday for William Phillips.

Edward (Skinny) Bunting, 45, Wellsville, one-time pugilist, was held without bond to await action of the September session of the Columbiana county grand jury on a charge of murder in the death of William (Smoke) Phillips, 31, of Salineville, coal miner, by Justice M. K. Zimerman at Lisbon today.

Pleads Not Guilty.

Bunting pleaded not guilty to the charge, which was preferred by Sheriff George Wright, and waived a preliminary examination. He was committed to the county jail.

The brief hearing was held shortly before 11 o'clock this morning. Bunting was brought to the court room from the Lisbon village jail, where he had been held since his arrest on suspicion Tuesday afternoon, when Phillips, said to be his pal, was found unconscious on the floor of a Beaver creek bridge near McCurdy's stop on the Youngstown and Ohio River railroad.

According to county authorities, Phillips, who died in the City hospital yesterday morning, sustained a fractured skull in a fist fight.

Phillips Funeral Friday.

Bunting, other than the declaration that Phillips struck his head in falling against a stone wall, has made no statement concerning the tragedy.

The accused man was not represented by counsel when he faced the court today.

After examining the body of Phillips, which was taken to the Hutson morgue in Salineville, yesterday, Coroner J. M. Van Fossan, of East Palestine, today, signed the death certificate, setting forth that Phillips had died after a "fist fight between two men in which one of them fell against a bridge, fracturing his skull."

Funeral services for Phillips will be held in the home of his father, Watt Phillips, Water street, Salineville, at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Services will be in charge of Rev. H. L. Peeples, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery.

National Open Golf "Dark Horse" Turns in 224, Leading Hagen

Cooper, With Two-Stroke Advantage Over Nominal Leader, Shows Brilliancy in Third.

JONES HAS 38 IN FIRST NINE

Sarazen Reports With 80 for 54-hole Score of 228, Four Strokes Behind Pace Setter.

OAKMONT COUNTRY CLUB, June 16.—Light Horse Harry Cooper ceased to be the dark horse of the national open golf championship today when he turned in a 224 and a two-stroke lead over Walter Hagen, the nominal leader at the moment. Cooper has been threatening to walk back to Los Angeles if he doesn't finish in the first five but at the end of the third round today it seemed that he might have an excellent chance of finishing in the first one.

Bobby Jones' Card.

While Harry was chasing his putts around the holes, Bobby Jones was off to the first nine with a 38 and the biggest gallery of the tournament in his wake. He was a stroke worse than par, having birdies at the fourth and seventh and buzzards at the third, sixth and eighth.

His card for nine holes:
Jones out 545 444 345—38.

Gene Sarazen, runner-up in the overnight totals, reported with an 80 for a 54-hole scole of 228, four strokes behind Cooper and two behind Hagen.

Harrison Johnston Blows.

Harrison Johnston, the amateur who had topped the field for two days with 147 strokes, blew like sperm whale with an 87.

Felix Serafin, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., disqualified.

Reports of Hoax In Nungesser-Coli Discovery Denied

QUEBEC, Que., June 16.—Reports that an accountant of a timber company has admitted that he perpetrated a hoax, leading to the reports of the discovery of Nungesser, were discredited here today.

The reports state that the accountant said he had used stolen flares to create an impression that Nungesser and Coli were sending out signals. Avilla Bedard, assistant chief of the provincial forestry service, stated that he has no reports of any flares being stolen.

SCOUR WOODS OF QUEBEC FOR FRENCH FLYERS

FLARES ARE SEEN

One Man Says he Heard Sounds of Motor.

QUEBEC, June 16. — Government and private search parties today are still scouring the woods of northern Quebec in search of the French flyers, Nungesser and Coli, although up to the present some of the reports indicating that the two flyers might be alive have been shown to be baseless.

Edward Blais, of River Bend, who sent out messages yesterday afternoon reporting the finding of Nungesser and Coli, now reports that he learns that this report was baseless. He states that the report was brought to River Bend by a worker and was found to be unreliable.

Nevertheless there are reports of flares being seen which are sufficiently reliable to encourage the government in proceeding with its search.

George Brousseau, who has been found to be reliable, has reported that on May 9 near the Marguerite river he heard the sound of a motor in the air and believed it was an airplane, but was unable to see it on account of the fog.

"Foxlaw" Wins Ascot Gold Cup and King And Queen Look on

ASCOT, England, June 16.—The Ascot gold cup was won today by "Foxlaw," with "Altay," second, and "Dark Japan," third.

The prices to win were 8-1; 25-1; 11-10.

Child Dies After Taking Pills From Sister's Pocketbook

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Mackall, near Negley, today denied that the neuralgia pills, causing the death of a three-year-old daughter, Louise Mackall, had been administered by an elder sister while playing "doctor."

The child found the pills in a pocketbook which she took from a sideboard after her sister had placed it there.

Ocean Flyer Returns to New York in His "Spirit of St. Louis"

DARING YOUTH MAKES SPECTACULAR FLIGHT IN FOUR HOURS 36 MINUTES

By James L. Kilgallen.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Dressed in evening clothes, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh arrived at Mitchel field at 7:47 o'clock this morning from Washington in his beloved "Spirit of St. Louis." He had unexpectedly departed for Washington at 2:59 this morning (daylight time) in a fast army pursuit plane to get his own trans-Atlantic monoplane.

Lindbergh circled Mitchel field several times before he descended. As he slipped out of the cockpit he wore a broad grin and seemed to have greatly enjoyed his spectacular flight to the capital.

He made the trip to Washington in one hour and fifty-nine minutes and came back in two hours and thirty-seven minutes, apparently having spent some time cruising about.

"Lindy" had had not sleep but he was as fresh as a daisy when he landed.

Uses Army Pursuit Plane.

Lindbergh's departure for Washington came suddenly. At 1:30 this morning he slipped away from Roxy's theatre, while 6,000 persons in the audience sat content in the belief that he was still sitting in the front row.

He and a personal friend and adviser, Richard R. Blythe, slipped out a side exit and soon were speeding by automobile to the flying fields of Long Island. A telephone call to the duty officer at Mitchel Field warned him "Lindy" was en route.

A swift army pursuit plane was waiting for him. Only a few reporters were at the field. "Lindy" smiled and remarked, "I almost gave you fellows the slip that time."

Hastily donning a leather jacket, he jumped into the plane.

"So long," he cried, "I will be back by 8 o'clock."

The motor whirred.

In less than a minute the famous New York-to-Paris flyer was off into the bright moonlight, picking up speed as he flew into the air. Soon only the faint drumming of the motor could be heard as "Lindy" winged his way to get the other half of "we."

Sinclair Street His Escort.

On the spectacular flight to Washington, Lindbergh had with him as escort Captain Sinclair Street. "Lindy" was flying a Curtiss army pursuit ship, the one he used Monday to fly from Bolling Field, Washington.

There were no lights on Lindbergh's plane as it soared into the night but Captain Street's airship carried navigation lights so he led the way. Lindbergh was guided by the lights.

"Lindy" took his time coming back. It had been thought at Mitchel Field he might land around 7:30 or before, and when he did not arrive at that time army officials began to think he had changed his plans and had landed elsewhere.

But at 7:45 the famous "Spirit of St. Louis" was sighted swooping

Commander Byrd Defers Hop Off Until Tomorrow

MINEOLA, N. Y., June 16.—Commander Richard E. Byrd, will not hop off for Europe before noon tomorrow, he said upon his return to Roosevelt Field today.

The tri-motored Fokker plane "America" is ready to go on short notice, however, Byrd admitted.

He said the weather is the principal factor holding up the flight. "Conditions are not favorable for a hop off today," he said, "I do not see any possibility of getting away before noon tomorrow."

Methodists Charter River Steamer for Outing Wednesday

Four Methodist Episcopal Sunday schools of East Liverpool have chartered the Ohio river excursion steamer, Washington, for their annual picnic next Wednesday.

The boat will leave the Broadway wharf at 9:30 a. m., touching the landing again at 3:30 p. m. It will dock at 7 p. m. A program of games and other entertainment will be arranged by a committee headed by George Kidder.

Tables will be provided aboard the boat for those who wish to take their dinners. Lunches will also be available at the boat cafeteria. Music throughout the day will be in charge of an orchestra.

While the boat has been chartered by the Sunday school of the First Orchard Grove, Pennsylvania Avenue and Boyce Methodist Episcopal Sunday school members of other churches are invited. A fare of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children, from 6 to 12 years of age, will be charged. Ouerators of the boat have promised special guards for the trip.

ASK RECEIVER FOR HARDWARE

Application for the appointment of a receiver pending an accounting of the business was made in a petition filed in common pleas court, Lisbon, today, by A. W. King, Salem, against the King-Eells Hardware company, Orin D. Schultz, Henry Richards, W. G. McConnell and B. E. Allen, stockholders.

The petition, filed by Brookes & Thompson, representing King, asks that "Schultz, Richards and McConnell be restrained from conducting the business of the company until [illegible] appointed by the court."

BRUSH-MOORE NEWSPAPERS ARE INCORPORATED AT COLUMBUS

East Liverpool, Salem, Steubenville and Canton Properties are Controlled by Company Headed by L. H. Brush.

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—A $3,420 fee was paid into the state treasury today when Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown authorized incorporation of the Brush-Moore newspapers, Inc., headquarters at Canton.

Incorporators are: Louis H. Brush, Salem; Roy D. Moore, Canton, and William H. Vodrey, East Liverpool. The corporation owns and operates the Canton, O., Repository; East Liverpool, O., Review-Tribune; Marion, O., Star; Salem, O., News; and the Steubenville, O., Herald-Star.

The company is authorized among other things to print, publish, circulate, distribute, buy, sell and deal in newspapers, magazines, periodicals, journals, books, and all other publications and literary works.

Authority is granted it to issue 14,000 shares of preferred stock, with a par value of $100 each, bearing 7 per cent annual interest, and 50,000 shares of no-par common stock.

Provision is made, also, in the articles of incorporation, for issuance of $1,650,000 in 10-year collateral 6½ per cent sinking fund gold notes, July 1, next, comprising interchangeable denominations of $1,000 and $500.

LESS THAN 50 PERSONS WITNESS REUNION OF EAGLE AND CRAFT

BY LAWRENCE SULLIVAN.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Racing over the eastern seaboard in a dramatic flight joining the night and the dawn, Colonel Charles Lindbergh dropped into the blinding floodlights of the naval air station at Anacostia at 3:43 o'clock this morning to re-establish the celebratwed "we" partnership for the first time on American shores.

Alone in a swift army pursuit plane, and still wearing the formal evening clothes of his last New York event, the sleepless eagle swooped down out of the red-tinted eastern skies one hour and fifty-nine minutes after his take-off from Mitchell Field.

Smiling and aglow with the spirit of his spectacular coup, he leaped from his plane, greeted officers of the naval flying field, quickly tuned up "The Spirit of St. Louis" and was off again for New York at 4:10 a. m.—twenty-seven minutes after his arrival.

De Pinedo Completes His Flight Across Four Continents

OSTIA, Italy, June 16.—Another epochal aerial journey came to an end today, when Commander Francesco De Pinedo landed at Ostia at 5 o'clock, thus completing a flight that has carried him over four continents.

Child Dies After Taking Pills From Sister's Pocketbook

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Mackall, near Negley, today denied that the neuralgia pills, causing the death of a three-year-old daughter, Louise Mackall, had been administered by an elder sister while playing "doctor."

The child found the pills in a pocketbook which she took from a sideboard after her sister had placed it there.

Ocean Flyer Returns to New York in His "Spirit of St. Louis"

DARING YOUTH MAKES SPECTACULAR FLIGHT IN FOUR HOURS 36 MINUTES

By James L. Kilgallen.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Dressed in evening clothes, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh arrived at Mitchel field at 7:47 o'clock this morning from Washington in his beloved "Spirit of St. Louis." He had unexpectedly departed for Washington at 2:59 this morning (daylight time) in a fast army pursuit plane to get his own trans-Atlantic monoplane.

Lindbergh circled Mitchel field several times before he descended. As he slipped out of the cockpit he wore a broad grin and seemed to have greatly enjoyed his [illegible] flight to the capital.

He made the trip to Washington in one hour and fifty-nine minutes and came back in two hours and thirty-seven minutes, apparently having spent some time cruising about.

"Lindy" had had not sleep but he was as fresh as a daisy when he landed.

Uses Army Pursuit Plane.

Lindbergh's departure for Washington came suddenly. At 1:30 this morning he slipped away from Roxy's theatre, while 6,000 persons in the audience sat content in the belief that he was still sitting in the front row.

He and a personal friend and adviser, Richard R. Blythe, slipped out a side exit and soon were speeding by automobile to the flying fields of Long Island. A telephone call to the duty officer at Mitchel Field warned him "Lindy" was en route.

A swift army pursuit plane was waiting for him. Only a few reporters were at the field. "Lindy" smiled and remarked, "I almost gave you fellows the slip that time."

Hastily donning a leather jacket, he jumped into the plane.

"So long," he cried, "I will be back by 8 o'clock."

The motor whirred.

In less than a minute the famous New York-to-Paris flyer was off into the bright moonlight, picking up speed as he flew into the air. Soon only the faint drumming of the motor could be heard as "Lindy" winged his way to get the other half of "wa."

Sinclair Street His Escort.

On the spectacular flight to Washington, Lindbergth had with him as escort Captain Sinclair Street. "Lindy" was flying a Curtiss army pursuit ship, the one he used Monday to fly from Bolling Field, Washington.

There were no lights on Lindbergh's plane as it soared into the night but Captain Street's airship carried navigation liguts so he led the way. Lindbergh was guided by the lights.

"Lindy" took his time coming back. It had been thought at Mitchel Field he might land around 7:30 or before, and when he did not arrive at that time army officials began to think he had changed his plans and had landed elsewhere.

But at 7:45 the famous "Spirit of St. Louis" was sighted swooping

Commander Byrd Defers Hop Off Until Tomorrow

MINEOLA, N. Y., June 16.—Commander Richard E. Byrd, will not hop off for Europe before noon tomorrow, he said upon his return to Roosevelt Field today.

The tri-motored Fokker plane "America" is ready to go on short notice, however, Byrd admitted.

He said the weather is the principal factor holding up the flight.

"Conditions are not favorable for a hop off today," he said, "I do not see any possibility of getting away before noon tomorrow."

Methodists Charter River Steamer for Outing Wednesday

Four Methodist Episcopal Sunday schools of East Liverpool have chartered the Ohio river excursion steamer, Washington, for their annual picnic next Wednesday.

The boat will leave the Broadway wharf at 9:30 a. m., touching the landing again at 3:30 p. m. It will dock at 7 p. m. A program of games and other entertainment will be arranged by a committee headed by George Kidder.

Tables will be provided aboard the boat for those who wish to take their dinners. Lunches will also be available at the boat cafeteria. Music throughout the day will be in charge of an orchestra.

While the boat has been chartered by the Sunday school of the First Orchard Grove, Pennsylvania Avenue and Boyce Methodist Episcopal Sunday school members of other churches are invited. A fare of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children, from 6 to 12 years of age, will be charged. Ouerators of the boat have promised special guards for the trip.

ASK RECEIVER FOR HARDWARE

Application for the appointment of a receiver pending an accounting of the business was made in a petition filed in common pleas court, Lisbon, today, by A. W. King, Salem, against the King-Eells Hardware company, Orin D. Schultz, Henry Richards, W. G. McConnell and B. E. Allen, stockholders.

The petition, filed by Brookes & Thompson, representing King, asks that "Schultz, Richards and McConnell be restrained from conducting the business of the company until further ordered by the court."

BRUSH-MOORE NEWSPAPERS ARE INCORPORATED AT COLUMBUS

East Liverpool, Salem, Steubenville and Canton Properties are Controlled by Company Headed by L. H. Brush.

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—A $3,420 fee was paid into the state treasury today when Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown authorized incorporation of the Brush-Moore newspapers, Inc., headquarters at Canton.

Incorporators are: Louis H. Brush, Salem; Roy D. Moore, Canton, and William H. Vodrey, East Liverpool. The corporation owns and operates the Canton, O., Repository; East Liverpool, O., Review-Tribune; Marion, O., Star; Salem, O., News; and the Steubenville, O., Herald-Star.

The company is authorized among other things to print, publish, circulate, distribute, buy, sell and deal in newspapers, magazines, periodicals, journals, books, and all other publications and literary works.

Authority is granted it to issue 14,000 shares of preferred stock, with a par value of $100 each, bearing 7 per cent annual interest, and 50,000 shares of no-par common stock.

Provision is made, also, in the articles of incorporation, for issuance of $1,650,000 in 10-year collateral 6½ per cent sinking fund gold notes, July 1, next, comprising interchangeable denominations of $1,000 and $500.

LESS THAN 50 PERSONS WITNESS REUNION OF EAGLE AND CRAFT

BY LAWRENCE SULLIVAN.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Racing over the eastern seaboard in a dramatic flight joining the night and the dawn, Colonel Charles Lindbergh dropped into the blinding floodlights of the naval air station at Anacostia at 3:43 o'clock this morning to re-establish the celebratwed "we" partnership for the first time on American shores.

Alone in a swift army pursuit plane, and still wearing the formal evening clothes of his last New York event, the sleepless eagle swooped down out of the red-tinted eastern skies one hour and fifty-nine minutes after his take-off from Mitchell Field.

Smiling and aglow with the spirit of his spectacular coup, he leaped from his plane, greeted officers of the naval flying field, quickly tuned up "The Spirit of St. Louis" and was off again for New York at 4:10 a. m.—twenty-seven minutes after his arrival.

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE.

Came a terrific report and again the eucalyptus shook, nearly unseating him; then sounded a noise as of a world gone mad, of a thousand devils in mortal agony. He heard a loud, thumping thud and a snarling wailing cry at the foot of the tree. Now arose a threshing and churning that might have come from a pair of dinasuri in deadly combat, and drawing forth another piece of dynamite he slid a yard down the tree and struck another match, shielding it so to throw the light downward.

He saw the tiger, with a portion of its head blown away, thumping about the ground. Its head was down, as though weighed with the burden of a million years; as though it could not lift it. He realized that the beast was fighting in the throes of death, yet, living up to its nature, was dying hard. It was conceivable that this giant hulk, in its final agonies, might shake him from the tree, might even crash the slender trunk to earth.

Now the great beast was sinking to its side, the eye that remained unharmed fast losing its brilliant, vivid green. He saw the rump stay up to the last, then, before the match died, he saw the beast collapse suddenly and lay still. For an hour he held to his perch, ears alert for the slightest sound below, distrustful that even the terrific bombardment he had poured on the tiger had finally killed it.

At the end of that time the low-hanging golden moon crept up over the eastern Atlas and its fiery, slanting beams sent little slivers of liquid silver through the forest, giving the trees and undergrowth an elusive, goblin appearance that while beautiful was a little fearful. As the beams lengthened and grew stronger he made out the tiger and saw that it had not moved from its last collapse.

Coolly, but cautiously, he descended from the tree and stepped to the side of the giant beast. With his feet he turned the great head slightly and was startled at the damage his charge of dynamite had inflicted. The lower jaw, one side of the head, even the eyes and ear, had been blown away, allowing the gray-tinged brain to ooze from the skull; and despite this awful wound, the tiger had not died soon—in fact, only his second dynamite shot had put the final quietus on it.

On the spur of the moment he drew his long Moorish knife from his sash and with a quick, sharp stroke clipped off the dead beast's good ear, close to the head. The brute had been dead so long by now that the piece of silken skin did not bleed. He tucked it beneath this burnouse, then, swinging his sword to a more comfortable position, found the pathway, gleaming dimly in the moonlight, and resumed his journey.

As he went on the moon rose brighter and finally it stood straight over him. He imagined it had not risen until nine or after, and that by now it probably was around three in the morning. He felt no fatigue, no desire for sleep. Thoughts of Benna filling his mind, nothing else could gain foothold in his brain.

After a time the trees grew thinner and he saw far ahead, how many miles distant it would have been impossible to judge, a needle-like peak standing against the moon-bathed horizon. His way seemed to be leading directly toward this. Suddenly, it seemed that the peak had sprung into flame, as though a fiery volcano had broken from the very crest of the sharp point.

He paused, startled and wondering, then realized that here was no volcano, but a man-made light; but for all that a most mysterious light. Brilliantly red, it rose and died, went out briefly, then flickered into life again, for all the world like a giant eye that was winking at him sardonically. Something about the shape of the light, and its color, too, seemed familiar and he found himself puzzling over what the resemblance could be. But he could lose no time dreaming here over a mysterious light; he was seeking Benna. He moved onward again.

He was heading straight toward the light and as he traveled its fiery, red beams swelled and died, winked out briefly, then flared again. He wondered if it were to continue indefinitely, and what its object was. Then it died out utterly and only the brilliant glow of the now wanning moon lit the scene—a scene that was the epitome of gloom and mystery.

He imagined he could hear soft voices calling out there in the night, on either hand, then cursed himself for a fool, chiding himself that he had not recognized on the instant the lazy tones of the osprey or the more guttural voices of the lapwings. Steadily, he went ahead.

Now, when he was beginning to forget the light, it sprung up again, brighter deeper in its brilliant redness. The moon was now a sickly thing that barely lingered in the west, and he had the curious feeling that comes to all men who are up at night, just before the dawn. He found himself speculating on whether the red Moroccan sun would be topping the distant mountain peaks in two hours or three.

Now the light on the peak flared brilliantly again, literally sending a crimson streak through the gathering of the darkness that comes in that space of time when the moon has set and the sun has not yet risen—the hour or two that precedes the dawn. Looking at it, Larry found it blinded his eyes and he raised his left hand to shield his orbs.

With the motion his hand seemed to catch on fire, literally to blaze with a crimson flame. Startled, he jerked his hand back, then gasped in realization.

Bodly he stuck his hand forth, the stone in the ring turned fairly toward the light on the peak. And he found the righ a living miror in which all the fantasies of the greater light were reflected. As the light on the peak flared and ebbed, so did the ring, and when the greater light dulled and seemed to throb like blood pulsing through a beating heart, the ring on his finger dulled and throbbed in unison. Curiously as he continued to walk onward, he watched this phenomena, and somehow came to feel that here was something he had discovered; that there was some direct connection between the ring on his finger and the mysterious light on the peak.

He wondered what the connection could be, what it could mean. Now the light on the distant silver of the mountain flared high, thrice, and thrice it died out to nothing, and thrice the ring reflected the flare and the subsequent darkness. After the third flare the light was gone and remained blanketed. The ring now reflected only the last dying effort of the pale, sickly moon, beating to maintain its dignity.

Hs realized that his arm was tired from having held it out so long and he let it drop at his side, grateful for the rest. Still he journeyed onward, walking rapidly. But the toil of his night's endeavors was beginning to tell on him and he knew that soon he would have to halt for food and rest. It would be both senseless and useless to wear himself down to a weakling seeking Benna for should he do so, and then find her with his great body weakened, his mighty muscles sapped of their strength, he would be of little avail in a fight, if it came down to one, whether with the marabouts or with a slave soldier who might be guarding the country of the holy men.

The moon gave up its fight and dipped from sight. Once more it became dark and the woods were eerie. To Larry's racked nerves and worn body, to his tired and weary brain, it seemed more than ever that goblins strode among the trees and made fiery all the countryside. He wondered if he would ever find human habitation in this wilderness, then stopped short, for he had almost fallen over a crouching, salaaming figure in the pathway befoer him!

Startled, his hand dropped to his sword, then, seeing the fellow remained in an attitude of supplication or homage—he was not sure which—he drew back a pace, pondering. It was too early for the fedjr, the time of prayer at dawn, so the kneeling man could not be at his prayers. Larry spoke, using the familiar guttural Chleuh of the hills:

"Why kneel there, Unknown One? Arise, that I may pass."

"Ai, wizard, may Allah bless you that you bade me rise and did not strike my unworthy head from my shoulders with the long sword that hangs at your side. You have been long in coming, but I praise Allah, you are here."

Here was more mystery. Evidently, Larry thought, he had been mistaken for another. He knitted his brow in puzzled thought; they could not be expecting the Marabout of Adrar, surely, and at the worst this fellow could never have mistaken him for that ancient and emaciated giant of a schemer. He decided to risk a chance shot:

"And how did you recognize me?"

EAST LIVERPOOL—AMERICA'S POTTERY CENTER

THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1927.

America Cares

The French flyers, Nungesser and Coli, have not been forgotten in the midst of America's rejoicing over recent aviation triumphs. Since early in June a search from the air has been under way, which will cover every square mile of the wild and inhospitable interior of Newfoundland. That search is to be as intensive as possible and will not cease until it is definitely established whether or not the two brave French airmen came to earth on Newfoundland.

In the meantime, a benefit show is to be held in New York, the proceeds of which will go to the families of Nungesser and Coli. American flyers are selling the tickets for this benefit and intend to make it a success.

These two thoughful services are regarded by the men backing them as "America's job." The work undoubtedly would have been undertaken here regardless of Lindbergh's successful flight and great welcome in France. Its carrying out is still more important, however, in view of French generosity and appreciation.

A Vanquished Plague.

In another 20 years, predicts the secretary of the New York State Charities Aid Association, tuberculosis will be practically eliminated in the United States. The battle against this disease is regarded by thoughtful persons as one of the most important things the United States has done in the last two decades.

The success of that battle is also one of the most hopeful victories of the same period, for it suggests that other diseases can be driven out in similar ways.

The white plague has been beaten because the medical profession faced the terror squarely, sought its causes, studied its symptoms, found its remedies and preventives and then proceeded to give these useful finds widespread publicity.

Prevention of tuberculosis through wholesome living conditions and proper feeding in childhood has greatly reduced the number of victims. Cure of tuberculosis has been found fairly simple when the patients and their families are willing to tackle the disease promptly and follow directions thoroughly. All of this has demonstrated the possibility of eliminating the disease entirely. This will take constant vigilance, persistent effort and continued widespread publicity, but it is a cause worth all the time and trouble. Even if tuberculosis is routed first, it won't be the only disease to go. Cancer, diabetes and other dreaded, mysterious and baffling ailments ultimately will follow its exit with their own.

China

Lately they have been taking down the barricades in Shanghai. That is to say, the "foreign" settlements in that great commercial city have been removing the defenses they set up a few months ago, with dramatic impressiveness, to protect their white residents from the "fury of yellow hordes."

They were safeguarding themselves and their property particularly from the Nationalists, sweeping up from Canton, under the leadership of Chiang Kai-Shek. Those Nationalists, they loudly declared, were anti-foreign, red themselves and dominated by Red influence from Moscow, determined to sweep Europeans into the sea and establish a Communist system that would make China unsafe for all whites.

The Nationalists have reached Shanghai, and flowed around it like a river in flood, and swept on in pursuit of the shifty northern war lords and their tattered armies. And the frightened foreigners in Shanghai are safe—so safe that they stop shrieking for armies and navies to defend them, and resume business as usual.

It is seen now more clearly that the great masses of Chinese are not rabid against foreigners, as they were in the Boxer movement of a generation ago; that there was a lot of false propaganda sent out from Shanghai to win the attention of the powers; that the Nationalist party and army represent, in a general way, the best aspirations of modern China; that Moscow has had far less influence in Chinese policies and programs than the world was led to believe; that the greatest peril to China lies not in the Cantonese movement, but in the northern movement for reaction, led by men who represent brigandage and reaction rather than principle and intelligent modernism.

Neighbors

New York and Paris, it has been demonstrated, are now only about 33 hours apart. Berlin is a little more than that, and London a little less. Call it a day and a half from America to England, France, Germany or Italy.

A generation ago, by horse and buggy, the same might have represented 40 or 50 miles. Improved transportation has increased our range already nearly 100 times, and is steadily bringing distant places still nearer.

It is time to ask again the old biblical question, "Who is thy neighbor?" Already the leading European powers are our neighbors in almost as real a sense as were the people over in the next village in our pioneer days. And communication, the other essential of friendly intercourse, is vastly quicker than transportation, as the other is more permeable than the air or water.

Evidently it is time for the development of a new neighborliness, on a scale so vast as to have been inconceivable to former generations, sweeping away the prejudices based on their lack of contact.

THE SILENT DEADLY SORT

Months ago I told the story of the high-tempered attorney down in Kentucky who, on being fined ten dollars for contempt of court by a judge whom he regarded as being both stupid and incompetent, reached into his pocket for the money and remarked:

"I'll pay it right now—it's a just claim!"

Lately I heard one which might fitly be classed as a companion piece to that story.

In the face of evidence to the contrary the judge had found for the plaintiff in a lawsuit. The counsel for the defendant, sitting with his face averted as though in deep thought, spoke without lifting his head.

"Your Honor, please fine me for contempt of court."

"I don't understand you," said the astonished judge. "You haven't indulged in any contempt."

"Oh, yes, I have,' said the lawyer. "It's silent."

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY
By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, June 16.—The stranger who pauses, especially after nightfall, before those glowering mansions of millionairdom, will almost immediately observe one or two figures appear from apparently nowhere to stand at a respectable distance in the offing.

They are the private watchmen, ever on guard at the portals of the rich. It is their job to restrain, not only the ordinarily curious, but the cranks and those who might have dangerous notions. So carefully are the rich protected that for a stranger to gain entrance halls is almost impossible.

Even reporters, skilled in scaling barriers of all sorts, often have to barriers themselves with prearranged appointments. It is rare a passerby sees people of wealth leaving their domiciles to enter their automobiles.

That is because watchmen usually scan the streets to see that there are no loiterers and then press a buzzer signal indicating the path is clear. It is not, however, a great danger that is feared. It is from annoyance of those who seek personal interviews.

There are hundreds who l'e in wait for the rich to exploit some idea which they believe needs only a moneyed interest. More than 50 per cent of a rich man's mail is burdened with these epistolary pleas. Strangely enough many people have been able to live for years through begging letters.

It has been said many millionaires were driven from Fifth Avenue to sequestered side streets because of those who waited morning and night in hope of a personal talk. The late Senator Clark always left his palace through a side servant entrance.

A gentleman I know was walking homeward from a dance very late one night. In passing an exclusive strip of Murray Hill he heard something drop to the sidewalk from his pocket and in the dark began to prowl around on his hands and knees. When he retrieved the lost article, he found he was in a complete circle of ten men—all guardians of the rich.

The swankily racked one-piece telephone of England and the continent has met such a sweeping demand in New York that rates for their use have increased 50 cents a month. There is a shop now dealing exclusively in their sale and installation.

In a short eight-block walk in midtown the other day I discovered two big hotels whose existence I had not known. Yet here they were with gaudy lobbies of onyx and marble displaying as much bustle as those that have existed for years. One has been open for a year and the other for four months and yet five people to whom I talked later, knew nothing of their existence. I doubt if such building activity could go as unnoticed in any other city.

About twenty years ago Isadora Duncan, the dancer, won first page prominence for giving a carriage driver a $100 tip for transporting her from her hotel to the Metropolitan Opera House. This week many New Yorkers have been solicited for subscriptions to a fund to purchase for Miss Duncan her old home in Neuilly, France.

During those golden days I was sent to interview Miss Duncan for a middle west newspaper. She received me in a room with decorations that somehow suggested a spasm in verse libre. She was seated on a stool surrounded by a circle of soft blue pillows. It was the first time I had ever seen a strange woman uncorseted. She wore a flowing robe and there was a sort of black metal band around her neck. I was about five months removed from the north end of a south bound plow, yet we discussed free love and she smoked one of my cigarettes and I went back to my city editor, feeling downright full of the Old Harry.

HASKINS' LETTER
By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

A Survey on Installment Buying.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16.—No little worry is being caused business men all over the country on the score of installment buying. Economists of repute have predicted that the orgy of installment buying which has been going on since the war is piling up a debt which will bring down on the heads of producers and merchants the worst period of depression the country ever has known.

Although installment buying is very old so far as real estate is concerned it is only in recent years that it has been widely extended. About fifty years ago piano houses began selling on installments; then the sewing machine companies took it up and next the furniture stores. But it has been only since the war that department stores, specialty stores, and every conceivable kind of a store have gone into the game of selling on the installment plan on a large scale.

The students of the situation and the merchants of the country are divided on the wisdom of the plan. Some hold that the system encourages people to live far beyond their incomes or even potential worth while others contend that it teaches thrift and compels the public to save to meet coming payments. One interesting lesson which can be gleaned from the development of this system is that it shows the American people are fundamentally honest. If merchants did not recognize this and believe in it they would not permit valuable goods to go out of their possession on the small cash payments required.

This is especially notable in the case of jewelry. Diamonds of great value and susceptible of easy concealment are now being sold on the installment plan. Diamonds always have a cash market and the opportunities for fraud are unlimited, yet the jewelry stores find that losses are very rare. When the purchaser agrees to pay he either keeps that agreement and pays or returns the stone.

Teaches Saving.

The American people are buying on the installment plan at the rate of five billions a year. This means that they are in debt to that extent. Hundreds of thousands of homes are occupied today by ostensible owners, but investigation shows that, first, the house itself and then the furniture, musical instruments, even kitchen utensils, and all manner of household furniture are really the property of others because the installments have not been completed.

One of the strongest fact arguments in support of the plan is that the figures show that savings deposits have increased coincidently with the growth of installment buying. Savings deposits increased from $14,000,000,000 to $23,000,000,000 from 1920 to 1925, the last year for which accurate figures are available. Presumably the same general class of people are depositing these savings as those taking advantage of the installment buying plan.

There is no criticism of installment buying of materials or tools or machinery intended to be used in production. It is recognized by economists that such purchases pay for themselves by their use and are much better in use, although not paid for, than wholly idle. The criticism is directed chiefly at the vastly increased purchase of luxuries on the installment plan. People buy things far beyond their means because the down payment looks small and the subsequent payments easy to handle.

One of the greatest advances in installment buying has been in the automobile field. Not long ago a survey was made in the state of Oregon to determine the extent of installment buying. It showed that 54 per cent of automobile owners were driving cars which they were purchasing on the installment plan. Forty-six per cent were buying furniture on time; pianos, 34 per cent; phonographs, 23 per cent; washing machines, 22 per cent; stoves, 22 per cent; vacuum cleaners, 16 per cent; clothing, 13 per cent; books, 13 per cent; sewing machines, 10 per cent, and so on down through a long list of articles.

There are two general methods of selling on the installment plan. The first provides that the buyer give a chattel mortgage to the seller. In such a case the title to the article passes to the buyer and there can be no recovery excepting on foreclosure. The second system retains title in the seller until the last installment is paid. The buyer is merely the lessee of the article during the period of payments and is not free to sell it or dispose of it in any way. At any time the seller can demand the article back in lieu of defaulted payments.

Reasons for and Against.

In the Oregon survey a questionnaire was employed which asked eight questions as to why the installment plan was desirable. In the order of their importance in the eyes of the persons answering, the reasons are stated as follows: Makes paying easier; encourages thrift by saving to meet payments; can enjoy use of product while paying; more convenient; permits the employment of more people to meet the demand for goods; greater luxury can be enjoyed; helps to keep up appearances; satisfies the family.

Notations on the questionnaires referred to the boon installment buying is to the man temporarily out of a job.

On the other hand, eight questions were asked in respect of reasons for disapproving the plan. In order the answers were as follows: Encourages running into debt; leads to extravagance; default on installments means loss of article and sacrifice of pay-

America Cares

The French flyers, Nungesser and Coli, have not been forgotten in the midst of America's rejoicing over recent aviation triumphs. Since early in June a search from the air has been under way, which will cover every square mile of the wild and inhospitable interior of Newfoundland. That search is to be as intensive as possible and will not cease until it is definitely established whether or not the two brave French airmen came to earth on Newfoundland.

In the meantime, a benefit show is to be held in New York, the proceeds of which will go to the families of Nungesser and Coli. American flyers are selling the tickets for this benefit and intend to make it a success.

These two thoughful services are regarded by the men backing them as "America's job." The work undoubtedly would have been undertaken here regardless of Lindbergh's successful flight and great welcome in France. Its carrying out is still more important, however, in view of French generosity and appreciation.

A Vanquished Plague.

In another 20 years, predicts the secretary of the New York State Charities Aid Association, tuberculosis will be practically eliminated in the United States. The battle against this disease is regarded by thoughtful persons as one of the most important things the United States has done in the last two decades.

The success of that battle is also one of the most hopeful victories of the same period, for it suggests that other diseases can be driven out in similar ways.

The white plague has been beaten because the medical profession faced the terror squarely, sought its causes, studied its symptoms, found its remedies and preventives and then proceeded to give these useful finds widespread publicity.

Prevention of tuberculosis through wholesome living conditions and proper feeding in childhood has greatly reduced the number of victims. Cure of tuberculosis has been found fairly simple when the patients and their families are willing to tackle the disease promptly and follow directions thoroughly. All of this has demonstrated the possibility of eliminating the disease entirely. This will take constant vigilance, persistent effort and continued widespread publicity, but it is a cause worth all the time and trouble. Even if tuberculosis is routed first, it won't be the only disease to go. Cancer, diabetes and other dreaded, mysterious and baffling ailments ultimately will follow its exit with their own.

China

Lately they have been taking down the barricades in Shanghai. That is to say, the "foreign" settlements in that great commercial city have been removing the defenses they set up a few months ago, with dramatic impressiveness, to protect their white residents from the "fury of yellow hordes."

They were safeguarding themselves and their property particularly from the Nationalists, sweeping up from Canton, under the leadership of Chiang Kai-Shek. Those Nationalists, they loudly declared, were anti-foreign, red themselves and dominated by Red influence from Moscow, determined to sweep Europeans into the sea and establish a Communist system that would make China unsafe for all whites.

The Nationalists have reached Shanghai, and flowed around it like a river in flood, and swept on in pursuit of the shifty northern war lords and their tattered armies. And the frightened foreigners in Shanghai are safe—so safe that they stop shrieking for armies and navies to defend them, and resume business as usual.

It is seen now more clearly that the great masses of Chinese are not rabid against foreigners, as they were in the Boxer movement of a generation ago; that there was a lot of false propaganda sent out from Shanghai to win the attention of the powers; that the Nationalist party and army represent, in a general way, the best aspirations of modern China; that Moscow has had far less influence in Chinese policies and programs than the world was led to believe; that the greatest peril to China lies not in the Cantonese movement, but in the northern movement for reaction, led by men who represent brigandage and reaction rather than principle and intelligent modernism.

Neighbors

New York and Paris, it has been demonstrated, are now only about 33 hours apart. Berlin is a little more than that, and London a little less. Call it a day and a half from America to England, France, Germany or Italy.

A generation ago, by horse and buggy, the same might have represented 40 or 50 miles. Improved transportation has increased our range already nearly 100 times, and is steadily bringing distant places still nearer.

It is time to ask again the old biblical question, "Who is thy neighbor?" Already the leading European powers are our neighbors in almost as real a sense as were the people over in the next village in our pioneer days. And communication, the other essential of friendly intercourse, is vastly quicker than transportation, as the other is more permeable than the air or water.

Evidently it is time for the development of a new neighborliness, on a scale so vast as to have been inconceivable to former generations, sweeping away the prejudices based on their lack of contact.

My Favorite Stories

THE SILENT DEADLY SORT

Months ago I told the story of the high-tempered attorney down in Kentucky who, on being fined ten dollars for contempt of court by a judge whom he regarded as being both stupid and incompetent, reached into his pocket for the money and remarked:

Lately I heard one which might fitly be classed as a companion piece to that story.

In the face of evidence to the contrary the judge had found for the plaintiff in a lawsuit. The counsel for the defendant, sitting with his face averted as though in deep thought, spoke without lifting his head.

"Your Honor, please fine me for contempt of court."

"I don't understand you," said the astonished judge. "You haven't indulged in any contempt."

"Oh, yes, I have,' said the lawyer. "It's silent."

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY
By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, June 16.—The stranger who pauses, especially after nightfall, before those glowering mansions of millionairdom, will almost immediately observe one or two figures appear from apparently nowhere to stand at a respectable distance in the offing.

They are the private watchmen, ever on guard at the portals of the rich. It is their job to restrain, not only the ordinarily curious, but the cranks and those who might have dangerous notions. So carefully are the rich protected that for a stranger to gain entrance halls is almost impossible.

Even reporters, skilled in scaling barriers of all sorts, often have to barriers themselves with prearranged appointments. It is rare a passerby sees people of wealth leaving their domiciles to enter their automobiles.

That is because watchmen usually scan the streets to see that there are no loiterers and then press a buzzer signal indicating the path is clear. It is not, however, a great danger that is feared. It is from annoyance of those who seek personal interviews.

There are hundreds who l'e in wait for the rich to exploit some idea which they believe needs only a moneyed interest. More than 50 per cent of a rich man's mail is burdened with these epistolary pleas. Strangely enough many people have been able to live for years through begging letters.

It has been said many millionaires were driven from Fifth Avenue to sequestered side streets because of those who waited morning and night in hope of a personal talk. The late Senator Clark always left his palace through a side servant entrance.

A gentleman I know was walking homeward from a dance very late one night. In passing an exclusive strip of Murray Hill he heard something drop to the sidewalk from his pocket and in the dark began to prowl around on his hands and knees. When he retrieved the lost article, he found he was in a complete circle of ten men—all guardians of the rich.

The swankily racked one-piece telephone of England and the continent has met such a sweeping demand in New York that rates for their use have increased 50 cents a month. There is a shop now dealing exclusively in their sale and installation.

In a short eight-block walk in midtown the other day I discovered two big hotels whose existence I had not known. Yet here they were with gaudy lobbies of onyx and marble displaying as much bustle as those that have existed for years. One has been open for a year and the other for four months and yet five people to whom I talked later, knew nothing of their existence. I doubt if such building activity could go as unnoticed in any other city.

About twenty years ago Isadora Duncan, the dancer, won first page prominence for giving a carriage driver a $100 tip for transporting her from her hotel to the Metropolitan Opera House. This week many New Yorkers have been solicited for subscriptions to a fund to purchase for Miss Duncan her old home in Neuilly, France.

During those golden days I was sent to interview Miss Duncan for a middle west newspaper. She received me in a room with decorations that somehow suggested a spasm in verse libre. She was seated on a stool surrounded by a circle of soft blue pillows. It was the first time I had ever seen a strange woman uncorseted. She wore a flowing robe and there was a sort of black metal band around her neck. I was about five months removed from the north end of a south bound plow, yet we discussed free love and she smoked one of my cigarettes and I went back to my city editor, feeling downright full of the Old Harry.

HASKINS' LETTER
By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

A Survey on Installment Buying.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16.—No little worry is being caused business men all over the country on the score of installment buying. Economists of repute have predicted that the orgy of installment buying which has been going on since the war is piling up a debt which will bring down on the heads of producers and merchants the worst period of depression the country ever has known.

Although installment buying is very old so far as real estate is concerned it is only in recent years that it has been widely extended. About fifty years ago piano houses began selling on installments; then the sewing machine companies took it up and next the furniture stores. But it has been only since the war that department stores, specialty stores, and every conceivable kind of a store have gone into the game of selling on the installment plan on a large scale.

The students of the situation and the merchants of the country are divided on the wisdom of the plan. Some hold that the system encourages people to live far beyond their incomes or even potential worth while others contend that it teaches thrift and compels the public to save to meet coming payments. One interesting lesson which can be gleaned from the development of this system is that it shows the American people are fundamentally honest. If merchants did not recognize this and believe in it they would not permit valuable goods to go out of their possession on the small cash payments required.

This is especially notable in the case of jewelry. Diamonds of great value and susceptible of easy concealment are now being sold on the installment plan. Diamonds always have a cash market and the opportunities for fraud are unlimited, yet the jewelry stores find that losses are very rare. When the purchaser agrees to pay he either keeps that agreement and pays or returns the stone.

Teaches Saving.

The American people are buying on the installment plan at the rate of five billions a year. This means that they are in debt to that extent. Hundreds of thousands of homes are occupied today by ostensible owners, but investigation shows that, first, the house itself and then the furniture, musical instruments, even kitchen utensils, and all manner of household furniture are really the property of others because the installments have not been completed.

One of the strongest fact arguments in support of the plan is that the figures show that savings deposits have increased coincidently with the growth of installment buying. Savings deposits increased from $14,000,000,000 to $23,000,000,000 from 1920 to 1925, the last year for which accurate figures are available. Presumably the same general class of people are depositing these savings as those taking advantage of the installment buying plan.

There is no criticism of installment buying of materials or tools or machinery intended to be used in production. It is recognized by economists that such purchases pay for themselves by their use and are much better in use, although not paid for, than wholly idle. The criticism is directed chiefly at the vastly increased purchase of luxuries on the installment plan. People buy things far beyond their means because the down payment looks small and the subsequent payments easy to handle.

One of the greatest advances in installment buying has been in the automobile field. Not long ago a survey was made in the state of Oregon to determine the extent of installment buying. It showed that 54 per cent of automobile owners were driving cars which they were purchasing on the installment plan. Forty-six per cent were buying furniture on time; pianos, 34 per cent; phonographs, 23 per cent; washing machines, 22 per cent; stoves, 22 per cent; vacuum cleaners, 16 per cent; clothing, 13 per cent; books, 13 per cent; sewing machines, 10 per cent, and so on down through a long list of articles.

There are two general methods of selling on the installment plan. The first provides that the buyer give a chattel mortgage to the seller. In such a case the title to the article passes to the buyer and there can be no recovery excepting on foreclosure. The second system retains title in the seller until the last installment is paid. The buyer is merely the lessee of the article during the period of payments and is not free to sell it or dispose of it in any way. At any time the seller can demand the article back in lieu of defaulted payments.

Reasons for and Against.

In the Oregon survey a questionnaire was employed which asked eight questions as to why the installment plan was desirable. In the order of their importance in the eyes of the persons answering, the reasons are stated as follows: Makes paying easier; encourages thrift by saving to meet payments; can enjoy use of product while paying; more convenient; permits the employment of more people to meet the demand for goods; greater luxury can be enjoyed; helps to keep up appearances; satisfies the family.

Notations on the questionnaires referred to the boon installment buying is to the man temporarily out of a job.

On the other hand, eight questions were asked in respect of reasons for disapproving the plan. In order the answers were as follows: Encourages running into debt; leads to extravagance; default on instaliments means loss of article and sacrifice of pay-

NEW STATION IS COMPLETED

Weirton Junction Depot Will be Opened for Business June 25.

New Weirton Junction passenger station located a half mile south of the Holliday's Cove undergrade will be opened for business on June 25, according to an announcement made today by Pennsylvania Railroad company officials.

The station, a part of the $1,000,000 improvement and construction program of the Pennsylvania system in the greater Weirton district, will serve the public, instead of two stations, one at Wheeling junction and the other at Weirton junction.

The new station was constructed half way or about one mile and a half distance between the two stations. In the construction of the new depot, the railroad company worked on plans for economizing, giving better service to the public and for the best interests for themselves and the public in general.

Passengers will use the depot, which will also be the express and mail point for the district. With the opening of the new depot the elimination of the Wheeling Junction and the old Weirton Junction station will be consumated.

Workmen are now completing the automatic block and signal system which will also be put in operation soon. The new station although small in structure, is up to date and modern and has been completed. On either side of the depot for a distance of 100 feet a platform of brick has been constructed.

Plans of the company are understood to be for the erection of another station in the immediate vicinity of the new station, in the future that will eventually be used as the Weirton Junction station instead of the present structure, which is rather small. The new depot, so it was learned today, will be much larger and of brick structure. Plans for the new depot have been completed.

CAPITOL PROGRAM IS FORMULATED

Extraordinary session of the state legislature adjourned early today after both senate and house passed a resolution creating a committee of seven from each house and devising a revnue program to provide for building the new capitol.

The plan was embodied in the report of a special joint committee of the two houses which brought it back after a conference with Governor Gore.

The resolution was adopted by the senate by a vote of 21 to 5 and the house adopted it without formality of a roll call and with only one voice heard in opposition.

The senate passed the bill by a 17 to 9 vote, after its sponsors had triumphed over a lack of enough votes to expedite its passage by the expendient of substituting its material for another bill, further advanced on its legislative course.

The house passed the bill by a vote of 37 to 12 after voting 42 to 6 to expedite action by suspending the rule which would have prevented a vote tonight.

The resolution creating the legislative committee provided that the presiding officers of both houses be members.

Speaker Johnson appointed as the other house members delegates Downs, Dean, Peters, Arnold, Weiss and Keatley and President White named as the other members from the upper branch Senators Devore, Helmick, Highland, Hallanan, Abbott and Henshaw.

'THE CLIMBERS' AT AMERICAN

Miss Irene Rich Stars in Thrilling Melodrama.

"The Climbers," now at the American theatre, is one of the very best vehicles given Miss Irene Rich for the display of her nerve and charm as well as her skill as equestrienne and markswoman. The scenes are laid in Old Spain at the Court of Ferdinand VII who ruled in the early part of the nineteenth century, and in that part of America then known as New Spain. The story has to do with the fate of the Duchess or Arrogan, separated from her young daughter, and banished from Spain, through the machinations of a heartless climber, the Countess Veya.

In America the duchess, embittered against the world, grows harsh and domineering and gains great wealth and the hatred of the peons whom she persecutes. The man Cordova, also exiled from Spain becomes a bandit leader, and coming to the Duchess' hacenda, with the intention of taking her gold, decides he prefers to steal her heart. He leaves the leadership of his band, is wounded in protecting the beautiful Duchess, protects her daughter from the outlaws and at last brings the girl, who has wandered from Spain in the vain hope of finding her mother, to her mother's side.

"The Climbers" is good, honest melodrama, thrilling and glamorous, and filled with fair romance! It should not be missed.

HARD WATER + = PLUS MEL'O MAKES SOFT WATER

THE dishes weren't awfully greasy. Just ordinary dishes. She used plenty of mild soap. Of course her hands were in the water three times a day. But that scum which always forms when you put soap in hard water kept those hands, once white and smooth, all red and rough.

Melo softens hard water. It prevents that scum from forming. That scum is the result of soap combining with the hardness in hard water. But scum never forms in soft water. Melo makes hard water as soft as rain water.

A teaspoonful of Melo in the dishpan and no red hands.

Two tablespoonfuls of Melo in the bath prevents the ring from forming around the tub. Two tablespoonfuls in the washtubs saves ⅓ to ½ the amount of soap and makes the clothes easier to wash. A pinch of Melo in the wash-basin gives you completely soft water for your hands and face.

Keep a can of Melo in the kitchen, in the laundry, in the bathroom. Get it at your grocer's.

The water in East Liverpool is 9 times as hard as it should be. Two tablespoonfuls of Melo will soften a bathtub full of water. Two tablespoonfuls in the washtubs. One teaspoonful in the dishpan.

CAPITOL PROGRAM IS FORMULATED

Extraordinary session of the state legislature adjourned early today after both senate and house passed a resolution creating a committee of seven from each house and devising a revnue program to provide for building the new capitol.

The plan was embodied in the report of a special joint committee of the two houses which brought it back after a conference with Governor Gore.

The resolution was adopted by the senate by a vote of 21 to 5 and the house adopted it without formality of a roll call and with only one voice heard in opposition.

The senate passed the bill by a 17 to 9 vote, after its sponsors had triumphed over a lack of enough votes to expedite its passage by the expendient of substituting its material for another bill, further advanced on its legislative course.

The house passed the bill by a vote of 37 to 12 after voting 42 to 6 to expedite action by suspending the rule which would have prevented a vote tonight.

The resolution creating the legislative committee provided that the presiding officers of both houses be members.

Speaker Johnson appointed as the other house members delegates Downs, Dean, Peters, Arnold, Weiss and Keatley and President White named as the other members from the upper branch Senators Devore, Helmick, Highland, Hallanan, Abbott and Henshaw.

'THE CLIMBERS' AT AMERICAN

Miss Irene Rich Stars in Thrilling Melodrama.

"The Climbers," now at the American theatre, is one of the very best vehicles given Miss Irene Rich for the display of her nerve and charm as well as her skill as equestrienne and markswoman. The scenes are laid in Old Spain at the Court of Ferdinand VII who ruled in the early part of the nineteenth century, and in that part of America then known as New Spain. The story has to do with the fate of the Duchess or Arrogan, separated from her young daughter, and banished from Spain, through the machinations of a heartless climber, the Countess Veya.

In America the duchess, embittered against the world, grows harsh and domineering and gains great wealth and the hatred of the peons whom she persecutes. The man Cordova, also exiled from Spain becomes a bandit leader, and coming to the Duchess' hacenda, with the intention of taking her gold, decides he prefers to steal her heart. He leaves the leadership of his band, is wounded in protecting the beautiful Duchess, protects her daughter from the outlaws and at last brings the girl, who has wandered from Spain in the vain hope of finding her mother, to her mother's side.

"The Climbers" is good, honest melodrama, thrilling and glamorous, and filled with fair romance! It should not be missed.

HARD WATER + MEL'O = MAKES SOFT WATER

THE dishes weren't awfully greasy. Just ordinary dishes. She used plenty of mild soap. Of course her hands were in the water three times a day. But that scum which always forms when you put soap in hard water kept those hands, once white and smooth, all red and rough.

Melo softens hard water. It prevents that scum from forming. That scum is the result of soap combining with the hardness in hard water. But scum never forms in soft water. Melo makes hard water as soft as rain water.

A teaspoonful of Melo in the dishpan and no red hands.

Two tablespoonfuls of Melo in the bath prevents the ring from forming around the tub. Two tablespoonfuls in the washtubs saves ⅓ to ½ the amount of soap and makes the clothes easier to wash. A pinch of Melo in the wash-basin gives you completely soft water for your hands and face.

Keep a can of Melo in the kitchen, in the laundry, in the bathroom. Get it at your grocer's.

The water in East Liverpool is 9 times as hard as it should be. Two tablespoonfuls of Melo will soften a bathtub full of water. Two tablespoonfuls in the washtubs. One teaspoonful in the dishpan.

Contractor Hineman Seeks Conference With Officials.

LUCCOCK TO ACT

Steps Taken to Avoid Fight in Courts.

Plans looking toward an adjustment of financial differences between the city of Wellsville and A. W. Hineman, of Williamsport, Pa., contractor who constructed the largest part of the municipality's gravity water system, may be launched here next Monday, it was indicated today.

In a communication received by city officials this morning Contractor Hineman announced he would be willing to confer with authorities on the matter Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the office of the city auditor.

The communication will be turned over to Solicitor S. C. Luccock, and in the event that the law director approves, immediate steps will be taken for the conference.

In a letter read at the last meeting of council, Hineman broached the subject of settlement. Asserting that in his opinion, it would profit neither himself nor the city to take the controversy into the courts, he declared he was willing to consider plans for adjustment.

N. E. WALKER WEDS MARIE DONALDSON

A prettily appointed wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donaldson, 1031 Main street, yesterday at noon, when their daughter, Marie E. Donaldson, was married to Norman E. Walker, of Canton. The ring ceremony was used by Rev. Thomas Berger, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Mary McCormick, of Salineville; the bridegroom by Charles Donaldson, Jr., brother of the bride.

The bride wore peach colored georgette and carried a corsage of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was attired in yellow flowered taffeta and carried yellow roses.

Guests included Mrs. Thomas Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Michaels, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Madison and daughter, Marilyn, of Wellsville; Mrs. Effie Donaldson, of Louisville; Attorney and Mrs. S. E. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb and son, Robert, Miss Ida Madison, Bert, Fred and John Madison.

B. L. E. MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Plans are being prepared for the memorial services to be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Knights of Pythias lodgerooms, Fifth and Main streets, under auspices of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Ladies' Auxiliary to Division 70.

Officers of the organization announce the exercises will be open to the public.

FACES GAME LAW CHARGE

Local Man to Get Hearing in Lisbon Court.

Charged with capturing fur bearing animals out of season, J. B. Ketchum, of Wellsville, will face a hearing tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock before Justice M. K. Zimerman, in Lisbon.

Ketchum was arrested yesterday by L. W. Boring, Columbiana county game warden. He is charged with having captured five raccoons, a mother and four young ones.

On preliminary arraignment, he pleaded not guilty. Unable to furnish bond of $300 he was remanded to jail pending the hearing.

125 ATTEND K. OF P. MEMORIAL MEET

Approximately 125 Knights of Pythias and friends attended the memorial services held recently by the order in their Fifth and Main street lodgsrooms.

Attorney Charles Boyd was among the principal speakers. A musical program also was given in connection with the ritualistic work.

The start of the twin brothers on the long journey to face four-year-old indictments growing out of the dynamiting and robbery of a Southern Pacific passenger train, in which four men were killed, will probably be delayed until early tomorrow, while Oregon officers and postoffice inspectors today visited Steubenville, where the two brothers were arrested after a four-year search.

A GOVERNOR "CLEANS HOUSE"

Governor Fred B. Balzar of Nevada, who took office the first of the year, swore warrants several weeks ago for the arrest of George Cole, top right, retiring state controller; Ed Malley, lower right, state treasurer, and H. S. Clapp, cashier of the Carson Valley bank, alleging the embezzlement of $516,000 in state money. He also ousted Malley from office. Now Clapp has pleaded guilty and has been sentenced to the penitentiary for from five to fifteen years.

CROWD GREETS WEST'S SHOWS

West's World's Wonder shows opened their East Liverpool engagement at Patterson Field last evening with a capacity crowd swarming the midway. The show is for the benefit of the police and firemen's pension fund.

Although the carnival did not arrive here until Tuesday midnight, everything was in readiness for the opening at 7 o'clock last night. Ten riding devices, 15 shows and dozens of "fun booths" are presented by the company on its ninth annual tour.

The rides include the merry-go-round, Hey Day, ferris wheel, whip, caterpillar and chairswings and also a miniature merry-go-round and chairswings for the youngsters.

Animals from the four corners of the world are to be seen in the Wild Animal show. Other attractions include Baby Ivan, three and one-half years of age and weighing approximately 125 pounds; Lady Fanchon, the horse with the human mind; monkey speedway, wrestling show, water circus, minstrel show, midgets, "Law and Outlaw," a group of wax figures, a fat girl, Ten in One, laughland and others.

A children's matinee will be held Saturday afternoon at which a five-cent admission to all shows and rides will be charged. The show will open every evening at 6:30 o'clock. A concert by Captain Jack Holt's Gold Medal band will be given at the show grounds prior to the opening of the evening perfomance.

MRS. MARY WARD D. A. R. HOSTESS

Flag Day Observed by Bethia Southwick Chapter.

Mrs. Mary Ward was hostess to members of Bethia Southwick chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, on Tuesday evening at her home in Riverside avenue, the affair taking the form of a flag day observance.

An appropriate program was carried out by the chapter following the business meeting, which was directed by Mrs. W. F. Lones, chapter regent. The opening exercises included the salute to the flag and singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," with Carrie Southwick as accompanist.

Committee chairman for the coming year were announced as follows:

Better films, Mrs. George Moore; conservative and thrift, Miss Carrie Southwick; D. A. R. magazine, Mrs. Mary Hanley; Ellis Island, Mrs. Mary Ward; historical and literary reciprocity, Miss Lucy Ward; patriotic education, Mrs. William Wilson; preservation of historical spots and Revolutionary soldiers' graves, Mrs. F. F. Davis; Americaization, Mrs. William Smith; international relations, Mrs. E. F. Swift; flowers, Miss Ward.

Application for memberships in the chapter, 14 in all, from East Liverpool, Chester, Newell and Lisbon were received.

Arrangements were made for a luncheon this evening at Maple Villa at which Mrs. Herbert Backus, of Columbus, state regent, Miss Mary Stone, Cambridge, director for the southeast district and Mrs. Campbell, Toronto chapter regent, will be special guests.

Mrs. George Moore, secretary, gave an interesting resume of the year's work, pointing out, as a sidelight, that "13" was the chapter's "lucky number."

Launching the program in connection with the business meeting, members responded to roll call with flag quotations.

Mrs. Wilson read a paper on "Our Flag." Acting as her own accompanist, Miss Marjorie Fickes rendered two whistling solos and vocal selections.

Talks were given by Mrs. W. F. Campbell, regent, and Mrs. Mabel Stone, regent-elect of the Toronto chapter.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Lucy Ward, and Mrs. John Potts and Mrs. George Morris.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. William Moller and daughter, Ruth; Misses Mildred and Elizabeth Southwick, of Youngstown; Mrs. W. F. Campbell, Mrs. Hannah Casey, Mrs. Clark Francy and son, Robert, of Toronto; Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Margaret Grounds of Empire; Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, of Newell; Mrs. Morris, of Chester; Mrs. Isaac Fleming, Mrs. Potts and Mrs. Sara Thomas of East Liverpool.

SHERIFF TO ACT IN ADENA TROUBLE

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—There will be no state interference at Adena Ohio, it was announced here today at the governor's office, after Sheriff Allison of Jefferson county wired the governor that he was able to cope with teh situation in the little mining town.

The governor's office last night communicated with Sheriff Allison upon receipts of a telegram from Mayor F. H. Gibson. It read:

"Maintenance of order now becomes impossible. The village council and sheriff join in requesting your help. The village council has passed resolutions asking your help."

Following receipt of the telegram the governor's office informed Sheriff Allison of the request for aid and deputized him to appoint sufficient deputies to maintain order and to report to the governor.

"A daily gathering of about 300 striking miners in Adena has been the only demonstration since the strike started," Sheriff Allison replied. "On one occasion eggs were thrown at a mine superintendent. An imported strike breaker from Pittsburgh has been driving through the streets of Adena, defying strikers. Other than that no trouble has occurred."

SALINEVILLE

The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held a surprise miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Robert Paisley, formerly Miss Pauline James, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William James, West Main street, Monday evening. About 24 members of the society were present. Mrs. Bess Ashbaugh was in charge of the entertainment. After a social hour, lunch was served by the society. Mrs. Paisley was surprised again Tuesday by her club.

Attorney and Mrs. S. E. McCormick, and daughter, Miss Mary, and son, James, Miss Ida Madison and brother, Fred, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb, attended the marriage of Miss Marie Donaldson, of Wellsville, to Norman Walker, also of Wellsville, Wednesday. Miss Donaldson is a niece of Mrs. McCormick and Miss Ida Madison. She was married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donaldson, Main street, Wellsville.

The Salineville Male Quartet, composed of the Maple Brothers, Frank Schubert and William Hanley, rendered several selections at the meeting of the grange at Knoxville Tuesday evening. Martha Carman, of Salineville also sang.

Paul Johnson is reported ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Lincoln avenue.

The Gideon Bible class of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening at the home of William Heatherington. Prayer was led by Rev. W. S. Martin. Vice President O. M. Ashbaugh had charge of the services. It was decided to postpone the festival until July. The treasurer reported that $60 was cleared on the musical, and that $50 is needed to pay off the note in July, which will complete the class pledge on the pipe organ. The July meeting will be at the home of David Wilkie, on Maple Hill. Mrs. Heatherington served lunch, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Knox.

Time creates the matchless, mellow Flavor ....

Aged 6 months

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale

YOU find it—this aged, mellow softness—only in Clicquot Club Ginger Ale, and it is there because skill joins hands with Time in the making of this delightful beverage, creating the bouquet and aroma of a veritable vintage.

And what accounts for this haunting charm of flavor? The rare quality of pure, natural spring water that flows from its natural source to a modern, sunlit plant. The choiceness of the flavoring and sweetening ingredients, whose quality is higher than the highest government standards. And—most important of all—this careful process of aging.

With Clicquot Club, as with old wines, this aging releases hidden tones in the flavorings and permits their perfect blending into an exquisite bouquet. One sip, of either the full-flavored Golden or the delicate Pale Dry, reveals the difference that gives Clicquot Club its distinctiveness—that rich flavor no other ginger ale can match.

That is why the offering of Clicquot Club is a compliment to any guest; why its use with other beverages produces such satisfying results. To have it in your home; to order it at your club, hotel or restaurant; to insist on Clicquot Club everywhere, is to show appreciation of those rare qualities which always have made "vintage" wines famous.

Steps Taken to Avoid Fight in Courts.

Plans looking toward an adjustment of financial differences between the city of Wellsville and A. W. Hineman, of Williamsport, Pa., contractor who constructed the largest part of the municipality's gravity water system, may be launched here next Monday, it was indicated today.

In a communication received by city officials this morning Contractor Hineman announced he would be willing to confer with authorities on the matter Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the office of the city auditor.

The communication will be turned over to Solicitor S. C. Luccock, and in the event that the law director approves, immediate steps will be taken for the conference.

In a letter read at the last meeting of council, Hineman broached the subject of settlement. Asserting that in his opinion, it would profit neither himself nor the city to take the controversy into the courts, he declared he was willing to consider plans for adjustment.

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—Requisition papers authorizing transfer of Ray and Roy D'Autremont, brothers under indictment for murder in Oregon, to Oregon officers here for transfer, will be signed today, according to S. P. Dunkle, executive secretary to Governor Vic Donahey.

B. L. E. MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Plans are being prepared for the memorial services to be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Knights of Pythias lodgerooms, Fifth and Main streets, under auspices of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Ladies' Auxiliary to Division 70.

Officers of the organization announce the exercises will be open to the public.

FACES GAME LAW CHARGE

Local Man to Get Hearing in Lisbon Court.

Charged with capturing fur bearing animals out of season, J. B. Ketchum, of Wellsville, will face a hearing tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock before Justice M. K. Zimerman, in Lisbon.

Ketchum was arrested yesterday by L. W. Boring, Columbiana county game warden. He is charged with having captured five raccoons, a mother and four young ones.

On preliminary arraignment, he pleaded not guilty. Unable to furnish bond of $300 he was remanded to jail pending the hearing.

125 ATTEND K. OF P. MEMORIAL MEET

Approximately 125 Knights of Pythias and friends attended the memorial services held recently by the order in their Fifth and Main street lodgsrooms.

Attorney Charles Boyd was among the principal speakers. A musical program also was given in connection with the ritualistic work.

The start of the twin brothers on the long journey to face four-year-old indictments growing out of the dynamiting and robbery of a Southern Pacific passenger train, in which four men were killed, will probably be delayed until early tomorrow, while Oregon officers and postoffice inspectors today visited Steubenville, where the two brothers were arrested after a four-year search.

MRS. MARY WARD D. A. R. HOSTESS

Flag Day Observed by Bethia Southwick Chapter.

Mrs. Mary Ward was hostess to members of Bethia Southwick chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, on Tuesday evening at her home in Riverside avenue, the affair taking the form of a flag day observance.

An appropriate program was carried out by the chapter following the business meeting, which was directed by Mrs. W. F. Lones, chapter regent. The opening exercises included the salute to the flag and singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," with Carrie Southwick as accompanist.

Committee chairman for the coming year were announced as follows:

Better films, Mrs. George Moore; conservative and thrift, Miss Carrie Southwick; D. A. R. magazine, Mrs. Mary Hanley; Ellis Island, Mrs. Mary Ward; historical and literary reciprocity, Miss Lucy Ward; patriotic education, Mrs. William Wilson; preservation of historical spots and Revolutionary soldiers' graves, Mrs. F. F. Davis; Americaization, Mrs. William Smith; international relations, Mrs. E. F. Swift; flowers, Miss Ward.

Application for memberships in the chapter, 14 in all, from East Liverpool, Chester, Newell and Lisbon were received.

Arrangements were made for a luncheon this evening at Maple Villa at which Mrs. Herbert Backus, of Columbus, state regent, Miss Mary Stone, Cambridge, director for the southeast district and Mrs. Campbell, Toronto chapter regent, will be special guests.

Mrs. George Moore, secretary, gave an interesting resume of the year's work, pointing out, as a sidelight, that "13" was the chapter's "lucky number."

Launching the program in connection with the business meeting, members responded to roll call with flag quotations.

Mrs. Wilson read a paper on "Our Flag." Acting as her own accompanist, Miss Marjorie Fickes rendered two whistling solos and vocal selections.

Talks were given by Mrs. W. F. Campbell, regent, and Mrs. Mabel Stone, regent-elect of the Toronto chapter.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Lucy Ward, and Mrs. John Potts and Mrs. George Morris.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. William Moller and daughter, Ruth; Misses Mildred and Elizabeth Southwick, of Youngstown; Mrs. W. F. Campbell, Mrs. Hannah Casey, Mrs. Clark Franey and son, Robert, of Toronto; Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Margaret Grounds of Empire; Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, of Newell; Mrs. Morris, of Chester; Mrs. Isaac Fleming, Mrs. Potts and Mrs. Sara Thomas of East Liverpool.

SHERIFF TO ACT IN ADENA TROUBLE

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—There will be no state interference at Adena Ohio, it was announced here today at the governor's office, after Sheriff Allison of Jefferson county wired the governor that he was able to cope with teh situation in the little mining town.

The governor's office last night communicated with Sheriff Allison upon receipts of a telegram from Mayor F. H. Gibson. It read:

"Maintenance of order now becomes impossible. The village council and sheriff join in requesting your help. The village council has passed resolutions asking your help."

Following receipt of the telegram the governor's office informed Sheriff Allison of the request for aid and deputized him to appoint sufficient deputies to maintain order and to report to the governor.

"A daily gathering of about 300 striking miners in Adena has been the only demonstration since the strike started," Sheriff Allison replied. "On one occasion eggs were thrown at a mine superintendent. An imported strike breaker from Pittsburgh has been driving through the streets of Adena, defying strikers. Other than that no trouble has occurred."

SALINEVILLE

The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held a surprise miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Robert Paisley, formerly Miss Pauline James, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William James, West Main street, Monday evening. About 24 members of the society were present. Mrs. Bess Ashbaugh was in charge of the entertainment. After a social hour, lunch was served by the society. Mrs. Paisley was surprised again Tuesday by her club.

Attorney and Mrs. S. E. McCormick, and daughter, Miss Mary, and son, James, Miss Ida Madison and brother, Fred, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb, attended the marriage of Miss Marie Donaldson, of Wellsville, to Norman Walker, also of Wellsville, Wednesday. Miss Donaldson is a niece of Mrs. McCormick and Miss Ida Madison. She was married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donaldson, Main street, Wellsville.

The Salineville Male Quartet, composed of the Maple Brothers, Frank Schubert and William Hanley, rendered several selections at the meeting of the grange at Knoxville Tuesday evening. Martha Carman, of Salineville also sang.

Paul Johnson is reported ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Lincoln avenue.

The Gideon Bible class of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening at the home of William Heatherington. Prayer was led by Rev. W. S. Martin. Vice President O. M. Ashbaugh had charge of the services. It was decided to postpone the festival until July. The treasurer reported that $60 was cleared on the musical, and that $50 is needed to pay off the note in July, which will complete the class pledge on the pipe organ. The July meeting will be at the home of David Wilkie, on Maple Hill. Mrs. Heatherington served lunch, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Knox.

A GOVERNOR "CLEANS HOUSE"

Governor Fred B. Balzar of Nevada, who took office the first of the year, swore warrants several weeks ago for the arrest of George Cole, top right, retiring state controller; Ed Malley, lower right, state treasurer, and H. S. Clapp, cashier of the Carson Valley bank, alleging the embezzlement of $516,000 in state money. He also ousted Malley from office. Now Clapp has pleaded guilty and has been sentenced to the penitentiary for from five to fifteen years.

CROWD GREETS WEST'S SHOWS

West's World's Wonder shows opened their East Liverpool engagement at Patterson Field last evening with a capacity crowd swarming the midway. The show is for the benefit of the police and firemen's pension fund.

Although the carnival did not arrive here until Tuesday midnight, everything was in readiness for the opening at 7 o'clock last night. Ten riding devices, 15 shows and dozens of "fun booths" are presented by the company on its ninth annual tour.

The rides include the merry-go-round, Hey Day, ferris wheel, whip, caterpillar and chairswings and also a miniature merry-go-round and chairswings for the youngsters.

Animals from the four corners of the world are to be seen in the Wild Animal show. Other attractions include Baby Ivan, three and one-half years of age and weighing approximately 125 pounds; Lady Fanchon, the horse with the human mind; monkey speedway, wrestling show, water circus, minstrel show, midgets, "Law and Outlaw," a group of wax figures, a fat girl, Ten in One, laughland and others.

A children's matinee will be held Saturday afternoon at which a five-cent admission to all shows and rides will be charged. The show will open every evening at 6:30 o'clock. A concert by Captain Jack Holt's Gold Medal band will be given at the show grounds prior to the opening of the evening perfomance.

Time creates the matchless, mellow Flavor ....

Aged 6 months

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale

YOU find it—this aged, mellow softness—only in Clicquot Club Ginger Ale, and it is there because skill joins hands with Time in the making of this delightful beverage, creating the bouquet and aroma of a veritable vintage.

And what accounts for this haunting charm of flavor? The rare quality of pure, natural spring water that flows from its natural source to a modern, sunlit plant. The choiceness of the flavoring and sweetening ingredients, whose quality is higher than the highest government standards. And—most important of all—this careful process of aging.

With Clicquot Club, as with old wines, this aging releases hidden tones in the flavorings and permits their perfect blending into an exquisite bouquet. One sip, of either the full-flavored Golden or the delicate Pale Dry, reveals the difference that gives Clicquot Club its distinctiveness—that rich flavor no other ginger ale can match.

That is why the offering of Clicquot Club is a compliment to any guest; why its use with other beverages produces such satisfying results. To have it in your home; to order it at your club, hotel or restaurant; to insist on Clicquot Club everywhere, is to show appreciation of those rare qualities which always have made "vintage" wines famous.

MILLS CONTINUES FIGHT TO FREE PAT McDERMOTT

CANTON LAWYER MEETS ALLEGED SLAYER IN PEN

Private Interview Culminates Court Battle With Warden.

RUDNER WAVES

Another Move Looms in Mellett Murder Inquiry.

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—E. L. Mills, Canton attorney, today was planning to continue his legal battle to free Patrick Eugene McDermott from the Ohio penitentiary, after holding his long delayed private interview with the alleged slayer of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher.

The private interview culminated a legal battle which had been waged between Mills and Warden P. E. Thomas of the penitentiary since the red-headed trigger man was sentenced to life imprisonment on Christmas eve.

Thomas had refused to allow Mills to interview his client privately, when the attorney asked for the privilege while defending Ben Rudner, another alleged conspirator also serving a life term for the Mellett murder.

Declares McDermott Innocent.

Arrived at the penitentiary late Wednesday, Mills refused to talk to McDermott through a small window, when penitentiary officials then allowed the prisoner and his attorney to meet on a bench in the court yard. Mills and his client talked for more than an hour, after which Mills again declared the innocense of McDermott.

Mills' wife was refused permission to see David Atkins, negro, convicted in Stark county for the murder of a railroad detective, he reported after the McDermott interview. Mrs. Mills, it was said, wished to see Atkins to tell him of his mother's funeral. Penitentiary guards, Mills said, told her she would "hace to write the message."

While Mills spoke with McDermott, Rudner passed at the other side of the yard, and the two waved at each other. Streitenberger also passed, but the former detective did not look toward the couple. He had nothing to say since being sentenced for his part in the Mellett murder conspiracy, McDermott told Mills.

Lindy Hops Off

gracefully toward the field, with Lindbergh at the controls and followed by three other airships. "Lindy" was in the lead of the formation, followed by Captain Street in his plane and two navy pursuit planes bringing up the rear.

Stages Fancy Formations.

Before he came down, "Lindy," as if jubilant over his stunt, broke out of formation and went into a series of fancy formations. "The Spirit of St. Louis" made a pretty picture as its silver sides glinted in the bright morning sunlight. It looped and dived, sidebanked and turned over on its back with the expert fingers controlling its movements.

Aviators and mechanics on the ground applauded the buoyant spirit reflected in "Lindy's" dizzy gyrations of the ship.

And then suddenly, the famous ship dived for the landing field. Some of the observers started to run toward the plane but it suddenly zoomed up with an increased roar and sailed straight up into the sky.

"Had Grand Time," He Says.

"Lindy" was having a grand time. Away from the roar of the crowds he was enjoying himself.

A few minutes later he came down gracefully to a perfect landing.

But "Lindy" didn't stay down. As his plane came down lightly on its landing wheels, the motors began to roared again and up he rose and soon he was in high altitude and into another series of ecstatic stunts. He turned over lazily as if he was enjoying the sheer luxury of the reunion with "we."

"I sure had a grand time," he exclaimed when he finally came to earth.

Plane Taken to Hangar.

The plane was taken to a hangar at the west end of Roosevelt field, and Lindbergh watched and supervised as it was put away. The hangar doors were locked and a heavy guard placed outside.

Lindbergh said "The Spirit of St. Louis" had functioned perfectly enroute from Washington and does not require overhauling or attention of any kind. It is ready for Lindbergh's take-off tomorrow morning for St. Louis.

The exuberant young flyer was escorted to the quarters of Colonel Benjamin D. Foulois, commanding officer of Mitchel Field, for breakfast.

Lindbergh said he would take a short rest after breakfast before leaving for New York by automobile. He didn't had any sleep. His friend, Blythe, sought to dissuade him from it and have him go to New York as once as Lindbergh is to be the guest of Brooklyn this morning but the flyer won his point.

Mother on Way to St. Louis.

A double guard was placed outside the quarters of Colonel Foulois as Lindbergh ate breakfast. Meanwhile, a battery of camera men assembled and waited for Lindbergh to reappear. Blythe said "Lindy" made up his mind suddenly to make the trip as they sat in Roxy's theatre. He had been longing for his plane.

"Say, there's a grand moon up tonight," Lindy remarked. "Let's get out of here and go to the field."

None of the audience knew Lindbergh had slipped away until 3 o'clock when an explanation was made from the stage. A few hisses greeted the announcement, and a round of cheering, too, from those who understood how the boy felt after having been feted to within an inch of his life.

Earlier in the night he had attended a Ziegfeld performance and also went with Mayor James J. Walker to the Polo grounds to see his friend, Ace Hudkins, of Lincoln, Neb., lose a hard-fought battle to Sergeant Sammy Baker of Mitchel Field.

The flyer's mother, Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, is enroute to St. Louis by train in a private car attached to the Pennsylvania railroad's "Spirit of St. Louis." "Lindy" will meet her in St. Louis following the only mode of travel which seems to satisfy him.

All along the route through Brooklyn, "Lindy" was wildly cheered. His car was preceded by 35 motor cycle policemen. At one point along the way, the parade was halted for a moment to allow Donald Hall, of Brooklyn, the designer of "The Spirit of St. Louis," an opportunity to present Lindbergh with an illuminated scroll which Hall had prepared for the occasion.

Brooklyn Greets Hero.

Without even a "cat nap," Lindbergh left his apartment in New York at 10:15 to take part in "Brooklyn day" ceremonies in his honor. He entered an automobile to be taken on a 20-mile tour of Brooklyn's main thoroughfares. Thousands of people lined the streets all along the route of the parade.

Brooklyn was in gala garb for the occasion. Bunting, flags and pictures of Lindbergh were on almost every home and buildings. Huge throngs came from miles around by subway, elevated lines and motor cars to view the procession.

"Lindy" was due at the parade ground adjoining Prospect park, Brooklyn, at 11:30 and long before that hour more than 25,000 persons had assembled. Bands played patriotic airs for the restless crowd awaiting the flyer's arrival at the park.

All along King's highway, one of Brooklyn's main thoroughfares, troops of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts were stationed to maintain order among the thousands of school children who were given a holiday so they could see the flyer.

Elaborate police arrangements had been made, and practically every policeman in Brooklyn was on parade duty. Two thousand policemen were assigned to handle the crowd at Prospect park.

Escorted by motorcycle policemen, Lindbergh with his automobile cavalcade passed over the Manhattan bridge and into Brooklyn at 11 a. m.

Lindbergh Lauds Police Department Of New York City

NEW YORK, June 16.—Between "hops" in airplanes and one ceramony after another, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh found time enough today to thank Police Commissioner Joseph A. Warren for the protection he had received during his stay here.

He told Warren he had "the grandest police department in the world."

A reporter, recalling that Lindbergh had no sleep last night, asked him if he was tired.

"I'll have to see the newspapers and see what they say," he responded with an engaging smile.

TRAFFIC LIGHT INSTALLED ON EIGHTH STREET

Police Warn Speeders Regarding Two-Way Signals.

NO AMBER COLOR

Violators Must Post $25 or go to Jail.

New traffic light on West Eighth street, near the intersection of Lisbon street, will be ready for operation tonight, police announced today.

The light differs from the usual type of automatic traffic signals, inasmuch as it is not equipped with the "caution" or amber lens. While traffic is moving from Wellsville or down the Lisbon hill, vehicles headed westward in the opposite direction will stop. When cars are traveling westward with the green light the red light will show on the opposite side of the signal, halting traffic coming down Lisbon street and also on Eighth street from Wellsville.

Chief McDermott said the installation of the light will halt the practice of the "running start" for the Lisbon street hill. Many accidents, some of a serious nature, have occurred at this point.

Police will be kept on duty at the intersection to see that the traffic signals are obeyed. They will be instructed to collect a $25 deposit from speeders. If bond is not posted, offenders will be taken to jail.

DEATH ROLL

Milheim Funeral Services.

Funeral services for Edward A. Milheim, 15 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Milheim, 1043 Pennsylvania avenue, will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Second United Presbyterian church, East End, in charge of Rev. L. J. Davison, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church. Burial will be made in Riverview cemetery.

Flyer in Washington

his arrival and departure there had been hardly sufficient time to turn over, but in the dramatic interval the blackest night which precedes the dawn had been toned to a dull grey by the rising rim of red on the eastern horizon.

Newspapermen Rush to Field.

He arrived in a drab green army craft which was barely visible in the black skies until it swerved within one hundred feet of the glaring beacon lights of the landing field; and when he took off, the lights meanwhile having been extinguished, the glistening lines of the silvered St. Louis were as quickly lost in the dull sheen of the morning light.

Less than fifty persons were on the field to witness the reunion of the daring lone eagle and his famous craft.

Advised by telephone of "Lindy's" departure from New York, naval officers at Anacostia had barely time to rout snoring sailors from their bunks to provide a ground crew. A dozen taxicabs rushed routed newspapermen and photographers to the scene less than five minutes before the landing.

Lindbergh was accompanied to Washington by army Lieutenant "Billy" Street, who landed at 3:38 a. m., five minutes before the full-dressed pilot wheeled his craft into the field lights. On the return trip, "The Spirit of St. Louis" headed a string of four craft. Commander Homer C. Wick of Anacostia station took off a few seconds after Lindbergh. Lieutenant A. C. Miles followed in a second naval plane, and Street brought up the rear with the army pursuit craft he had flown from Mitchel Field.

Plane in Perfect Condition.

"The Spirit of St. Louis" apparently was in perfect condition, for her master smiled broadly as he approached her roaring motor from the hangar in which he had conversed with the naval officers. Climbing into the pilot-seat, he put both hands to the instrument board, tuned the engine for less than a minute, leaped out to secure final directions from Commander Wick, posed an instant for a flash-light picture, waved a cheery adieu to the small circle of heavy eyed field attendants and newspapermen and was away.

Although he flew from Mitchel Field to Anacostia in almost record time, Lindbergh omitted his wonted stunt flying as he took off in his own plane for the first flight since his triumphal return to America.

Heading into the gentle northwest wind, he taxied the St. Louis less than 150 yards, nosed her upwards at a thrilling angle to an altitude of about 1,200 feet and then away in a northeasterly course for New York. Two minutes later he and his escorts were lost in the shimmering harbingers of day on the eastern horizon and the disturbed field settled into the even tenor of its uneventful ways.

MOTORIST FINED, LOSES LICENSE

Heber Thompson, of East Liverpool, was fined $50 and costs, given a 10-day jail sentence, which was suspended, and his automobile license revoked for three months when he faced Justice M. K. Zimerman, at Lisbon, today upon a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. He paid his fine and was released.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKETS

NEW YORK, June 16.—Active stocks in all departments of the market advanced in good form at the beginning of trading today as the result of the influx of a good volume of buying orders from important speculative centers. The advance was halted in the second hour, however, when profit taking forced heavy selling in the principal industrial and railroad shares.

The influx of actual and prospective higher dividends for the important railroad companies was plainly seen in the larger demand for the investment rails. Rock Island's advance to above 114 was based on the expectation of an increase in the annual divident rate of 7 per cent before the end of the year. Indorsement of the Van Sweringen consolidation plan by the Richmond minority which had successfully opposed the first proposals was considered a salutary victory for the Cleveland railroad leaders, and Nickel Plate stock rose a few points on the resultant buying.

General Motors corporation reported its retail sales of May at 171,364 units, a 21 per cent increase over the same month last year. Reports from two other automobile manufacturers also showed a gain in production and sales as compared with last year. The money market was unchanged, with the first call loan renewal at 4¼ per cent. Dow Jones reported the average price of iron and steel products at the lowest level since May.

Specialty stocks displayed a heavy tone in the second hour, Pittsburgh Coal decline to 50, off 4 points from Wednesday's close. International Nickel, Texas Land Trust and other well known shares lost practically all of their early gains. Prime industrials were firm but inactive. Commodity markets were slightly reactionary, with cotton down 10 points, coffee down 10 and wheat down about half a cent.

NATION'S CHIEF FACES SOUTH DAKOTA CAMERA

President Welcomed to Black Hills by Cowboys.

AT GAME LODGE

Contemplates Wonderful Scenery and Buffalo Steak.

By George E. Durno.

STATE GAME LODGE, South Dakota, June 16.—Welcomed to the Black Hills by the cowboys he was told to expect, President Coolidge this morning planned to divide his first day in this rugged summer White House between contemplation of the wonderful surrounding scenery, a buffalo steak, and the lenses of a large battery of movie and still cameras.

Arising about 6 o'clock, the scenery came first. Next came the photographers. His engagement with them was the first official appointment of the summer season. Arrival at the game lodge last night was so late Mr. Coolidge was forced to explain to the camera men he believed the light to be too bad for satisfactory pictures and compromised with today's set appointment.

The buffalo steak will come later—a delectable 10-pound sirloin presented him at Pierre by Hugh Jaynes, who once did likewise to Theodore Roosevelt. In addition, the game lodge table will be graced with seven Chinese pheasants, also Jaynes' gift. Chinese pheasants are out of season, but they were destined for the president and the game warden knew about it.

"Hold-up" Staged.

During the course of the afternoon Mr. Coolidge is expected to motor the 32 miles to Rapid City and inspect the temporary executive offices established there in the high school building. Rapid City is official headquarters, and there are quartered all of the office staff and newspapermen and photographers.

The town has outdone itself to welcome these visitors.

Last night's arrival was staged to impress the chief executive that he was actually in the west. Following an enthusiastic reception at Rapid City, the party motored over the hills to Hermosa and were there met by 140 cowboys, all sporting colorful attire of the plains. A "hold-up" reminiscent of the Deadwood stage coach days— minus, however, the use of gunpowder—was staged. Colonel E. W. Starling, advance secret service man, had warned about the fire arms. The cow punchers gave the president the "y-i-i-p-p-e-e," and a few hearty hurrahs, cricled in on the autos and escorted them to the lodge.

Three Auto Drivers Arrested; One Fined, Another Dismissed

Thomas Reed, Wellsville, was fined $1 and costs by Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley today after he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of fast and reckless driving. He was arrested on Dresden avenue at 10 o'clock today by Patrolman James Haley.

Charge of reckless driving filed against Glessner Hendricks, who was arrested on West Eighth street by Patrolman Curran at 9:50 o'clock last night, when four persons were riding in the front seat of an automobile, was dismissed by Judge Hanley. A like charge has been filed against Earl Haney, who was also arrested on West Eighth street by Patrolman Officer Skenkel at 10 o'clock last night.

MASONIC DEGREE WORK TOMORROW

Class of five candidates will receive the master degree at a special communication of East Liverpool lodge, No. 681, F. & A. M., to be held at the Masonic temple tomorrow.

The lodge meeting will open at 4 p. m., followed by dinner at 6 o'clock. The evening session will start promptly at 7 o'clock. The work will be in charge of L. A. Wallover, worshipful master of the lodge.

30 Army Airplanes Will Join "Lindy" Escort at Dayton

DAYTON, O., June 16.—Twenty-seven army airplanes, of a total of 30, which will escort Col. Charles A. Lindbergh from Dayton to St. Louis Friday, were due to arrive at Wright Field here today.

The escort will pick up the famous flyer when he passes Dayton, but he is not expected to stop here, enroute from New York to St. Louis in his "Spirit of St. Louis" plane. Twenty-one pursuit planes from Selfridge Field, near Detroit, six observation planes from Mitchel Field, each carrying a newspaperman as passenger, and three transports from Wright Field, comprise the escort.

Lieutenant Jimmy Doolittle, flying one of the transports, will pilot Brig. Gen. William E. Gilmore, and the other two transports iwll carry a committee of Dayton citizens. The committee will extend an invitation to Col. Lindbergh to visit Dayton, the "birthplace of aviation," later when he goes to Detroit.

KIWANIS HEARS MEMPHIS STORY

Gruber and Heddleston Make Convention Reports.

Reports of the eleventh annual convention of Kiwanis International held at Memphis, Tenn., last week, were made by Secretary Carl E. Gruber and R. C. Heddleston, international trustee, at today's meeting of the local club in Larkins' Annex, Market street.

Gruber declared the Memphis meeting to have been one of the best ever held in the history of the organization. Approximately 4,500 visitors, 1,850 of them delegates, attended the four-day session. He touched upon practically every phase of the convention, completing his talk with a report on the election of officers.

Heddleston, who was re-elected international trustee for a term of two years, declared that the East Liverpool club stood high, not only in the Ohio district but also in the international organization.

W. A. Hobbs presided. Prof. H. F. Laughlin led the chorus singing with Claire Chambers as the accompanist.

Chamberlin, Levine Fly to Bremen to Meet Their Wives

FRANKFORT-ON-MAIN, June 16.—After a series of record-breaking demonstrations and ovations in South Germany, Clarence D. Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine, the two American trans-Atlantic flyers, depart for the north today. They planned to fly to Bremen with a brief stop-over at Hanover. At Bremen they will meet their wives, who are due to land from the German liner Berlin on Friday morning. It will be the first greeting between the airmen and their wives since the trans-ocean flight began at Roosevelt flying field, just outside of New York City nearly two weeks ago.

Chamberlin and Levine with Mrs. Chamberlin and Mrs. Levine will fly to Berlin by way of Magdeburg. According to present plans the flyers will hop off from Berlin in the Columbia on Saturday for Munich, arriving in Vienna on Sunday.

GREAT WELCOME AWAITS "SLIM" IN ST. LOUIS

Home Town Prepares Tumultuous Reception for Lindbergh.

SIX FUNCTIONS

Trans-Atlantic Jumper Returns to Missouri Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The possibility that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh might hop off for St. Louis tonight instead of tomorrow, as planned, was seen in the action of the reception committee in changing the time of the Raymond Orteig breakfast at which "Lindy" will receive the $25,000 Orteig prize for the New York to Paris hop. The function, originally scheduled for tomorrow morning, has been changed to a 6 o'clock tea this evening. The only official responsibility Lindbergh has left after that is a dinner to be given him at 7 p. m. by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—Back to the city which gave him his plane and bade him "Godspeed," "Slim" Lindbergh will come tomorrow. No St. Louisian ever received a welcome home as that which awaits "Slim." No youth who had left the home town ambitious for fame and glory ever returned to find himself so idolized.

He was just "Lucky" Lindbergh, a likeable, but obscure air mail pilot, not so long ago. Tomorrow, when the comes home, this city will use every factory whistle, siren and bell at its command in one great tumultuous effort to tell him he is the greatest man on earth.

The arrangements for the occasion, as they stand today, are the most eloborate the city has ever made for a celebration of any sort. They were started the day he landed at Le Bourget and have been the most important business of the day ever since.

Six public functions will constitute the city of St. Louis' welcome to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. The ceremony of greeting him on his arrival at Lambert field here at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will be short. Mayor Victor Miller, Governor Sam A. Baker and a few members of the reception committee will meet the "lone eagle" as he climbs from the cockpit of "The Spirit of St. Louis" and take him to the home of Harry H. Knight, one of his principal backers. Before landing, however, Lindbergh will circle the city so that all may see his plane.

Two Major Days.

Saturday and Sunday are to be the major days of celebration. The parade in his honor Saturday morning will give every enthusiastic St. Louisan his opportunity to see the honored fellow citizen and to shout his praise. That afternoon Lindbergh will attend and participate in the flag-raising ceremonies of the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals at Sportsman's park.

Saturday night there is to be a formal dinner at the Hotel Chase, when the flier will be presented a scroll expressing the city's appreciation of his achievement.

MILLS CONTINUES FIGHT TO FREE PAT McDERMOTT

CANTON LAWYER MEETS ALLEGED SLAYER IN PEN

Private Interview Culminates Court Battle With Warden.

RUDNER WAVES

Another Move Looms in Mellett Murder Inquiry.

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—E. L. Mills, Canton attorney, today was planning to continue his legal battle to free Patrick Eugene McDermott from the Ohio penitentiary, after holding his long delayed private interview with the alleged slayer of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher.

The private interview culminated a legal battle which had been waged between Mills and Warden P. E. Thomas of the penitentiary since the red-headed trigger man was sentenced to life imprisonment on Christmas eve.

Thomas had refused to allow Mills to interview his client privately, when the attorney asked for the privilege while defending Ben Rudner, another alleged conspirator also serving a life term for the Mellett murder.

Declares McDermott Innocent.

Arrived at the penitentiary late Wednesday, Mills refused to talk to McDermott through a small window, when penitentiary officials then allowed the prisoner and his attorney to meet on a bench in the court yard. Mills and his client talked for more than an hour, after which Mills again declared the innocense of McDermott.

Mills' wife was refused permission to see David Atkins, negro, convicted in Stark county for the murder of a railroad detective, he reported after the McDermott interview. Mrs. Mills, it was said, wished to see Atkins to tell him of his mother's funeral. Penitentiary guards, Mills said, told her she would "hace to write the message."

While Mills spoke with McDermott, Rudner passed at the other side of the yard, and the two waved at each other. Streitenberger also passed, but the former detective did not look toward the couple. He had nothing to say since being sentenced for his part in the Mellett murder conspiracy, McDermott told Mills.

Lindy Hops Off

gracefully toward the field, with Lindbergh at the controls and followed by three other airships. "Lindy" was in the lead of the formation, followed by Captain Street in his plane and two navy pursuit planes bringing up the rear.

Stages Fancy Formations.

Before he came down, "Lindy," as if jubilant over his stunt, broke out of formation and went into a series of fancy formations. "The Spirit of St. Louis" made a pretty picture as its silver sides glinted in the bright morning sunlight. It looped and dived, sidebanked and turned over on its back with the expert fingers controlling its movements.

Aviators and mechanics on the ground applauded the buoyant spirit reflected in "Lindy's" dizzy gyrations of the ship.

And then suddenly, the famous ship dived for the landing field. Some of the observers started to run toward the plane but it suddenly zoomed up with an increased roar and sailed straight up into the sky.

"Had Grand Time," He Says.

"Lindy" was having a grand time. Away from the roar of the crowds he was enjoying himself.

A few minutes later he came down gracefully to a perfect landing.

But "Lindy" didn't stay down. As his plane came down lightly on its landing wheels, the motors began to roared again and up he rose and soon he was in high altitude and into another series of ecstatic stunts. He turned over lazily as if he was enjoying the sheer luxury of the reunion with "we."

"I sure had a grand time," he exclaimed when he finally came to earth.

Plane Taken to Hangar.

The plane was taken to a hangar at the west end of Roosevelt field, and Lindbergh watched and supervised as it was put away. The hangar doors were locked and a heavy guard placed outside.

Lindbergh said "The Spirit of St. Louis" had functioned perfectly enroute from Washington and does not require overhauling or attention of any kind. It is ready for Lindbergh's take-off tomorrow morning for St. Louis.

The exuberant young flyer was escorted to the quarters of Colonel Benjamin D. Foulois, commanding officer of Mitchel Field, for breakfast.

Lindbergh said he would take a short rest after breakfast before leaving for New York by automobile. He hadn't had any sleep. His friend, Blythe, sought to dissuade him from this and have him go to New York as once as Lindbergh is to be the guest of Brooklyn this morning but the flyer won his point.

Mother on Way to St. Louis.

A double guard was placed outside the quarters of Colonel Foulois as Lindbergh ate breakfast. Meanwhile, a battery of camera men assembled and waited for Lindbergh to reappear.

Blythe said "Lindy" made up his mind suddenly to make the trip as they sat in Roxy's theatre. He had been longing for his plane.

"Say, there's a grand moon up tonight," Lindy remarked. "Let's get out of here and go to the field."

None of the audience knew Lindbergh had slipped away until 3 o'clock when an explanation was made from the stage. A few hisses greeted the announcement, and a round of cheering, too, from those who understood how the boy felt after having been feted to within an inch of his life.

Earlier in the night he had attended a Ziegfeld performance and also went with Mayor James J. Walker to the Polo grounds to see his friend, Ace Hudkins, of Lincoln, Neb., lose a hard-fought battle to Sergeant Sammy Baker of Mitchel Field.

The flyer's mother, Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, is enroute to St. Louis by train in a private car attached to the Pennsylvania railroad's "Spirit of St. Louis." "Lindy" will meet her in St. Louis following the only mode of travel which seems to satisfy him.

All along the route through Brooklyn, "Lindy" was wildly cheered. His car was preceded by 35 motor cycle policemen. At one point along the way, the parade was halted for a moment to allow Donald Hall, of Brooklyn, the designer of "The Spirit of St. Louis," an opportunity to present Lindbergh with an illuminated scroll which Hall had prepared for the occasion.

Brooklyn Greets Hero.

Without even a "cat nap," Lindbergh left his apartment in New York at 10:15 to take part in "Brooklyn day" ceremonies in his honor. He entered an automobile to be taken on a 20-mile tour of Brooklyn's main thoroughfares. Thousands of people lined the streets all along the route of the parade.

Brooklyn was in gala garb for the occasion. Bunting, flags and pictures of Lindbergh were on almost every home and buildings. Huge throngs came from miles around by subway, elevated lines and motor cars to view the procession.

"Lindy" was due at the parade ground adjoining Prospect park, Brooklyn, at 11:30 and long before that hour more than 25,000 persons had assembled. Bands played patriotic airs for the restless crowd awaiting the flyer's arrival at the park.

All along King's highway, one of Brooklyn's main thoroughfares, troops of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts were stationed to maintain order among the thousands of school children who were given a holiday so they could see the flyer.

Elaborate police arrangements had been made, and practically every policeman in Brooklyn was on parade duty. Two thousand policemen were assigned to handle the crowd at Prospect park.

Escorted by motorcycle policemen, Lindbergh with his automobile cavalcade passed over the Manhattan bridge and into Brooklyn at 11 a. m.

Lindbergh Lauds Police Department Of New York City

NEW YORK, June 16.—Between "hops" in airplanes and one ceramony after another, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh found time enough today to thank Police Commissioner Joseph A. Warren for the protection he had received during his stay here.

He told Warren he had "the grandest police department in the world."

A reporter, recalling that Lindbergh had no sleep last night, asked him if he was tired.

"I'll have to see the newspapers and see what they say," he responded with an engaging smile.

TRAFFIC LIGHT INSTALLED ON EIGHTH STREET

Police Warn Speeders Regarding Two-Way Signals.

NO AMBER COLOR

Violators Must Post $25 or go to Jail.

New traffic light on West Eighth street, near the intersection of Lisbon street, will be ready for operation tonight, police announced today.

The light differs from the usual type of automatic traffic signals, inas-much as it is not equipped with the "caution" or amber lens. While traffic is moving from Wellsville or down the Lisbon hill, vehicles headed westward in the opposite direction will stop. When cars are traveling westward with the green light the red light will show on the opposite side of the signal, halting traffic coming down Lisbon street and also on Eighth street from Wellsville.

Chief McDermott said the installation of the light will halt the practice of the "running start" for the Lisbon street hill. Many accidents, some of a serious nature, have occurred at this point.

Police will be kept on duty at the intersection to see that the traffic signals are obeyed. They will be instructed to collect a $25 deposit from speeders. If bond is not posted, offenders will be taken to jail.

DEATH ROLL

Milheim Funeral Services.

Funeral services for Edward A. Milheim, 15 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Milheim, 1043 Pennsylvania avenue, will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Second United Presbyterian church, East End, in charge of Rev. L. J. Davison, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church. Burial will be made in Riverview cemetery.

Flyer in Washington

his arrival and departure there had been hardly sufficient time to turn over, but in the dramatic interval the blackest night which precedes the dawn had been toned to a dull grey by the rising rim of red on the eastern horizon.

Newspapermen Rush to Field.

He arrived in a drab green army craft which was barely visible in the black skies until it swerved within one hundred feet of the glaring beacon lights of the landing field; and when he took off, the lights meanwhile having been extinguished, the glistening lines of the silvered St. Louis were as quickly lost in the dull sheen of the morning light.

Less than fifty persons were on the field to witness the reunion of the daring lone eagle and his famous craft.

Advised by telephone of "Lindy's" departure from New York, naval officers at Anacostia had barely time to rout snoring sailors from their bunks to provide a ground crew. A dozen taxicabs rushed routed newspapermen and photographers to the scene less than five minutes before the landing.

Lindbergh was accompanied to Washington by army Lieutenant "Billy" Street, who landed at 3:38 a. m., five minutes before the full-dressed pilot wheeled his craft into the field lights. On the return trip, "The Spirit of St. Louis" headed a string of four craft. Commander Homer C. Wick of Anacostia station took off a few seconds after Lindbergh. Lieutenant A. C. Miles followed in a second naval plane, and Street brought up the rear with the army pursuit craft he had flown from Mitchel Field.

Plane in Perfect Condition.

"The Spirit of St. Louis" apparently was in perfect condition, for her master smiled broadly as he approached her roaring motor from the hangar in which he had conversed with the naval officers. Climbing into the pilot-seat, he put both hands to the instrument board, tuned the engine for less than a minute, leaped out to secure final directions from Commander Wick, posed an instant for a flashlight picture, waved a cheery adieu to the small circle of heavy eyed field attendants and newspapermen and was away.

Although he flew from Mitchel Field to Anacostia in almost record time, Lindbergh omitted his wonted stunt flying as he took off in his own plane for the first flight since his triumphal return to America.

Heading into the gentle northwest wind, he taxied the St. Louis less than 150 yards, nosed her upwards at a thrilling angle to an altitude of about 1,200 feet and then away in a northeasterly course for New York. Two minutes later he and his escorts were lost in the shimmering harbingers of day on the eastern horizon and the disturbed field settled into the even tenor of its uneventful ways.

MOTORIST FINED, LOSES LICENSE

Heber Thompson, of East Liverpool, was fined $50 and costs, given a 10-day jail sentence, which was suspended, and his automobile license revoked for three months when he faced Justice M. K. Zimerman, at Lisbon, today upon a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. He paid his fine and was released.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKETS

NEW YORK, June 16.—Active stocks in all departments of the market advanced in good form at the beginning of trading today as the result of the influx of a good volume of buying orders from important speculative centers. The advance was halted in the second hour, however, when profit taking forced heavy selling in the principal industrial and railroad shares.

The influx of actual and prospective higher dividends for the important railroad companies was plainly seen in the larger demand for the investment rails. Rock Island's advance to above 114 was based on the expectation of an increase in the annual divident rate of 7 per cent before the end of the year. Indorsement of the Van Sweringen consolidation plan by the Richmond minority which had successfully opposed the first proposals was considered a salutary victory for the Cleveland railroad leaders, and Nickel Plate stock rose a few points on the resultant buying.

General Motors corporation reported its retail sales of May at 171,364 units, a 21 per cent increase over the same month last year. Reports from two other automobile manufacturers also showed a gain in production and sales as compared with last year. The money market was unchanged, with the first call loan renemal at 4¼ per cent. Dow Jones reported the average price of iron and steel products at the lowest level since May.

Specialty stocks displayed a heavy tone in the second hour, Pittsburgh Coal decline to 50, off 4 points from Wednesday's close. International Nickel, Texas Land Trust and other well known shares lost practically all of their early gains. Prime industrials were firm but inactive. Commodity markets were slightly reactionary, with cotton down 10 points, coffee down 10 and wheat down about half a cent.

NATION'S CHIEF FACES SOUTH DAKOTA CAMERA

President Welcomed to Black Hills by Cowboys.

AT GAME LODGE

Contemplates Wonderful Scenery and Buffalo Steak.

By George E. Durno.

STATE GAME LODGE, South Dakota, June 16.—Welcomed to the Black Hills by the cowboys he was told to expect, President Coolidge this morning planned to divide his first day in this rugged summer White House between contemplation of the wonderful surrounding scenery, a buffalo steak, and the lenses of a large battery of movie and still cameras.

Arising about 6 o'clock, the scenery came first. Next came the photographers. His engagement with them was the first official appointment of the summer season. Arrival at the game lodge last night was so late Mr. Coolidge was forced to explain to the camera men he believed the light to be too bad for satisfactory pictures and compromised with today's set appointment.

The buffalo steak will come later—a delectable 10-pound sirloin presented him at Pierre by Hugh Jaynes, who once did likewise to Theodore Roosevelt. In addition, the game lodge table will be graced with seven Chinese pheasants, also Jaynes' gift. Chinese pheasants are out of season, but they were destined for the president and the game warden knew about it.

"Hold-up" Staged.

During the course of the afternoon Mr. Coolidge is expected to motor the 32 miles to Rapid City and inspect the temporary executive offices established there in the high school building. Rapid City is official headquarters, and there are quartered all of the office staff and newspapermen and photographers.

The town has outdone itself to welcome these visitors.

Last night's arrival was staged to impress the chief executive that he was actually in the west. Following an enthusiastic reception at Rapid City, the party motored over the hills to Hermosa and were there met by 140 cowboys, all sporting colorful attire of the plains. A "hold-up" reminiscent of the Deadwood stage coach days— minus, however, the use of gunpowder—was staged. Colonel E. W. Starling, advance secret service man, had warned about the fire arms. The cow punchers gave the president the "y-i-p-p-e-e," and a few hearty hurrahs, cricled in on the autos and escorted them to the lodge.

Three Auto Drivers Arrested; One Fined, Another Dismissed

Thomas Reed, Wellsville, was fined $1 and costs by Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley today after he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of fast and reckless driving. He was arrested on Dresden avenue at 10 o'clock today by Patrolman James Haley.

Charge of reckless driving filed against Glessner Hendricks, who was arrested on West Eighth street by Patrolman Curran at 9:50 o'clock last night, when four persons were riding in the front seat of an automobile, was dismissed by Judge Hanley. A like charge has been filed against Earl Haney, who was also arrested on West Eighth street by Patrolman Officer Skenkel at 10 o'clock last night.

MASONIC DEGREE WORK TOMORROW

Class of five candidates will receive the master degree at a special communication of East Liverpool lodge, No. 681, F. & A. M., to be held at the Masonic temple tomorrow.

The lodge meeting will open at 4 p. m., followed by dinner at 6 o'clock. The evening session will start promptly at 7 o'clock. The work will be in charge of L. A. Wallover, worshipful master of the lodge.

30 Army Airplanes Will Join "Lindy" Escort at Dayton

DAYTON, O., June 16.—Twenty-seven army airplanes, of a total of 30, which will escort Col. Charles A. Lindbergh from Dayton to St. Louis Friday, were due to arrive at Wright Field here today.

The escort will pick up the famous flyer when he passes Dayton, but he is not expected to stop here, enroute from New York to St. Louis in his "Spirit of St. Louis" plane. Twenty-one pursuit planes from Selfridge Field, near Detroit, six observation planes from Mitchel Field, each carrying a newspaperman as passenger, and three transports from Wright Field, comprise the escort.

Lieutenant Jimmy Doolittle, flying one of the transports, will pilot Brig. Gen. William E. Gilmore, and the other two transports iwll carry a committee of Dayton citizens. The committee will extend an invitation to Col. Lindbergh to visit Dayton, the "birthplace of aviation," later when he goes to Detroit.

KIWANIS HEARS MEMPHIS STORY

Gruber and Heddleston Make Convention Reports.

Reports of the eleventh annual convention of Kiwanis International held at Memphis, Tenn., last week, were made by Secretary Carl E. Gruber and R. C. Heddleston, international trustee, at today's meeting of the local club in Larkins' Annex, Market street.

Gruber declared the Memphis meeting to have been one of the best ever held in the history of the organization. Approximately 4,500 visitors, 1,850 of them delegates, attended the four-day session. He touched upon practically every phase of the convention, completing his talk with a report on the election of officers.

Heddleston, who was re-elected international trustee for a term of two years, declared that the East Liverpool club stood high, not only in the Ohio district but also in the international organization.

W. A. Hobbs presided. Prof. H. F. Laughlin led the chorus singing with Claire Chambers as the accompanist.

Chamberlin, Levine Fly to Bremen to Meet Their Wives

FRANKFORT-ON-MAIN, June 16.—After a series of record-breaking demonstrations and ovations in South Germany, Clarence D. Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine, the two American trans-Atlantic flyers, depart for the north today. They planned to fly to Bremen with a brief stop-over at Hanover. At Bremen they will meet their wives, who are due to land from the German liner Berlin on Friday morning. It will be the first greeting between the airmen and their wives since the trans-ocean flight began at Roosevelt flying field, just outside of New York City nearly two weeks ago.

Chamberlin and Levine with Mrs. Chamberlin and Mrs. Levine will fly to Berlin by way of Magdeburg. According to present plans the flyers will hop off from Berlin in the Columbia on Saturday for Munich, arriving in Vienna on Sunday.

GREAT WELCOME AWAITS "SLIM" IN ST. LOUIS

Home Town Prepares Tumultuous Reception for Lindbergh.

Trans-Atlantic Jumper Returns to Missouri Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The possibility that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh might hop off for St. Louis tonight instead of tomorrow, as planned, was seen in the action of the reception committee in changing the time of the Raymond Orteig breakfast at which "Lindy" will receive the $25,000 Orteig prize for the New York to Paris hop. The function, originally scheduled for tomorrow morning, has been changed to a 6 o'clock tea this evening. The only official responsibility Lindbergh has left after that is a dinner to be given him at 7 p. m. by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—Back to the city which gave him his plane and bade him "Godspeed," "Slim" Lindbergh will come tomorrow. No St. Louisian ever received a welcome home as that which awaits "Slim." No youth who had left the home town ambitious for fame and glory ever returned to find himself so idolized.

He was just "Lucky" Lindbergh, a likeable, but obscure air mail pilot, not so long ago. Tomorrow, when the comes home, this city will use every factory whistle, siren and bell at its command in one great tumultuous effort to tell him he is the greatest man on earth.

The arrangements for the occasion, as they stand today, are the most eloborate the city has ever made for a celebration of any sort. They were started the day he landed at Le Bourget and have been the most important business of the day ever since.

Six public functions will constitute the city of St. Louis' welcome to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. The ceremony of greeting him on his arrival at Lambert field here at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will be short. Mayor Victor Miller, Governor Sam A. Baker and a few members of the reception committee will meet the "lone eagle" as he climbs from the cockpit of "The Spirit of St. Louis" and take him to the home of Harry H. Knight, one of his principal backers. Before landing, however, Lindbergh will circle the city so that all may see his plane.

Two Major Days.

Saturday and Sunday are to be the major days of celebration. The parade in his honor Saturday morning will give every enthusiastic St. Louisan his opportunity to see the honored fellow citizen and to shout his praise. That afternoon Lindbergh will attend and participate in the flag-raising ceremonies of the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals at Sportsman's park.

Saturday night there is to be a formal dinner at the Hotel Chase, when the flier will be presented a scroll expressing the city's appreciation of his achievement.

Armour's STAR BACON with baked potatoes

a wonderful idea for the children's lunch

and yours

A SIMPLE meal, to be sure—but there is nothing more tempting and satisfying than the snowy goodness of a piping-hot baked potato with two or three crisp strips of Armour's Star Bacon beside it. And you'll be amazed at the way Star Bacon flavors the potato. So savory and zestful because of the famous Armour curing process. Always tender. Your dealer has Armour's Star Bacon in pound and half-pound cartons, uniformly sliced. Also in parchment-wrapped pieces. Write for free booklet—"Slices of Real Flavor."

WASHINGTON STEWART'S LETTER

IF YOU HAVEN'T BEEN READING FOREIGN NEWS HERE'S SUMMARY

By Charles P. Stewart.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Now that Col. Lindbergh's moved on, with his mammoth attraction, let's take a hasty glance around at some of the little matters which have been awaiting attention in Washington until the government had time to give them the once over.

Up to date they've scarcely been mentioned.

The reports and dispatches and correspondence concerning them have simply been dumped on departmental desks and stayed there, mostly unopened, while officialdom was greeting Lindy.

Except as to Lindy, the capital honestly hasn't the slightest idea what's been going on of late.

It will be interesting to see what can happen, and nobody know it.

TO begin with, Russia's in a terrible ferment, due to the cold-blooded assassination of one of its emissaries in Warsaw, right on top of a police raid on its diplomatic headquarters in London, following the local authorities' flagrant violation of the sanctity of its embassy in Peking, plus a healthy suspicion in Moscow that all the rest of the world's out to "get" the Soviet government.

England and Russia, in fact, have severed relations.

Dispatches (hitherto unread) say a conflict's threatened that may involve the whole of northern Europe.

ITALY and Jugoslavia are on the ragged edge of war over Albania.

It may sound like a small affair, but it's one of those Balkan difficulties which, when started, spread like smallpox. The World war illustrated how they do it.

Dispatches (hithero unread) say it threatens a conflict which may involve the whole of southern Europe.

CHANG TSO-LIN'S forces, bunched in and around Peking, with the rebels closing in on 'em, appear to be on the verge of a fight that will make the rookus a few weeks ago, at Shanghai and up the Yangtse, look like small potatoes.

Some folks predict it will be as bad for foreigners as the Boxer uprising.

Every effort's being made to drag the United States into it with the other "powers"—a mere matten of ten or a dozen years' fighting and police work, a million or so of troops and a few billions' expenditure.

PREMIER POINCARE has come out flat-footed with the announcement that France can't stand for the last American war debt settlement, but will have to have a good deal better terms before beginning to pay anything.

OTHERWISE—except that the Missippi and the Missouri have overflowed in some new places and tha United States has managed to get into a mean little immigration dispute with Canada, which doesn't exactly strain relations, but certainly doesn't make 'em any pleasanter—nothing much has happened under cover of the Lindy excitement.

ments already made; cost of article is greater; always bothered with small bills; payments last longer than the article purchased; not fair to those who pay cash; lower quality goods sold on installments.

Notations on the questionnaires included such comments as "the worst thing which has happened to the working class;" that it "should be prohibited by law;" that it "sets up false standards of living;" and that "most people use their money to meet installments on luxuries purchased under the plan and make the grocer and coal dealer and other purveyors of necessities wait for their money."

The whole thing is probably the biggest experiment the American people ever have undertaken. The whole nation is in debt. The national debt of the government is not nearly so great a problem as this vast personal debt of the people as individuals. Proponents of the system declare that the plan makes for prosperity. The demand for goods, made possible by the installment plan of selling, creates a greater demand for labor. Hundreds of thousands more men are employed at good wages and the putting of this money into the market is an industrial and general business stimulant which makes good times. The big question which everybody concerned is asking is, How long will it last? Will there ever have to be a day of reckoning when all debts will be cleaned up? Will the plan continue? It is like a spinning top; so long as it keeps spinning it stands upright, but when its momentum stops it falls over?

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands who have piles don't know that quick and permanent relief can be accomplished with internal medicine. Cutting or any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will not remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is stagnation of blood circulation in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt found the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. Dr. Leonhardt tried it in many, many cases with a marvelous record of success, such a wonderful record that HEM-ROID is now sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEM-ROID from Mathews Original Cut Rate, today. It has given quick and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you.

MEDICAL MEN HOLD SESSION

Principal Address Made by Dr. E. P. McNamee of Cleveland.

Declaring that preventive measures are more essential than curative methods, members of the Columbiana County Medical society, meeting in Salem, passed a resolution to take steps to advertise to the public the importance of the prevention of certain diseases, and to conduct all public clinics for diagnostic purposes under the direction of the medical society.

The meeting was held at the Memorial building, the program including a talk on the value of X-ray examinations in gall bladder condition, by Dr. E. P. McNamee of Cleveland. This instructive discussion was illustrated by lantern slides.

The resolution adopted by the medical society follows:

"That the logical adviser in matters of health is, and should be, the family physician.

"That it is not only the right but the duty of all physicians to inform their patients that curative methods, while necessary, are not the most essential to the public in general; that typhoid fever, small pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough, etc., are preventable and no community should stop short of a most rigid understanding that a disease which is preventable should not be allowed to exist, and that special emphasis shall be placed on preventive measures rather than curative.

"That the control of communicable diseases by stopping their spread at their source shall be the goal of every practicing physician.

"That on and after Sept. 1, 1927, all physicians in the Columbiana County Medical society shall display in a conspicuous place in their offices, cards announcing to the public the importance of the prevention of certain diseases, namely, typhoid fever, small pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough, etc., by the latest and approved methods of conferring such immunity, and such cards shall be supplied by the health department.

"That all public clinics for diagnostic purposes shall be sponsored by the Columbiana County Medical society.

"That all treatment and work of immunization formerly done by the health department for demonstration and educational purposes shall in the future be done by the family physician at the request of the parents or guardian, and the health department shall do such work only when requested by the physicians of the community or upon demand of the board of education."

FIVE MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

A marriage license has been issued by Judge Lodge Riddle to Charles F. Stull and Miss Harriet Jackson Podewels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Podewels of East Liverpool. They are to be married by the Rev. F. E. Dean at East Liverpool.

William Hardy of Homeworth and Dorothy Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. High S. Martin of Moultrie have been granted a marriage license. They were married at Lisbon by Justice M. K. Zimerman.

Alexander Sommerville, residing at Garfield, formerly at Washingtonville, a stationary engineer and Doris Scattergood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Scattergood, of Salem, R. F. D. have obtained a marriage license. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Cope.

Harry C. Ramsey and Mildred Ethel Conn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ethel Conn, both residing at East Liverpool, secured a marriage license. They were married at the parsonage of the Lisbon United Presbyterian church by the Rev. J. M. Cameron.

William Kring of Salem and Arvilla Dicken of Washingtonville, but formerly residing at Bedford, Pa., were granted a license. They are to be married at Salem by the Rev. Beale.

LARKINS GIVEN WORKHOUSE TERM

When given a hearing before Judge Lodge Riddle Wednesday afternoon, Wade Larkins of East Liverpool, upon his plea of guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was sentenced to 30 days in the Canton workhouse. In addition his committment will continue until the costs are also paid. The girl was committed to the Industrial school at Delaware.

John Davis, of East Liverpool, who also entered a plea of guilty in the same court to contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was fined $75 and costs, and committed to the county jail until the fine and costs are paid.

VERDICT GIVEN IN DAMAGE CASE

A verdict for the defendants was returned by a jury composed of nine women and three men in common pleas court No. 2 late Wednesday afternoon in the case of John Senserbacher against Irwin Rupert and Harry Rupert. The plaintiff sued the defendants for $5,000 damages Sept. 3, 1926, and the case went to trial Monday morning.

In this case it developed that Senserbacher went to the Rupert farm in Fairfield township, and a quarrel followed with the Rupert brothers. Senserbacher had his eyes blackened, but he suffered no other physical damage, it was testified. Costs in the case have been put against the plaintiff.

Action Filed.

According to a petition and action in attachment filed in common pleas court by Alicia Hoban, by her counsel Cochran and Crawford and P. V. Mackall of East Liverpool, the claim is set up that William Campbell is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $498.

Patterson Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Patterson family will be held at Willow Grove park, north of the Canton bridge, Lisbon, next Saturday afternoon. During the afternoon a history of the family in this county is expected to be read, as it is one of the pioneer families in this part of Ohio. All relatives have been asked to attend this event.

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils and other skin eruptions as being an indication of an abnormal condition of the system. This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. It helps Nature build up red corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished.

"I suffered from impure blood—was weak, and I had lost so much weight, I didn't look natural. I had pimples and was also bothered with a breaking-out that itched terribly. I also had boils one after another. I tried different kinds of remedies, but nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to take S.S.S. which I did. This was some time ago. Now I feel well, and I am getting along fine. S.S.S. stopped the itching and it cured me of boils. I advise all weak and run-down people to give S.S.S. a trial. It clears up the skin and makes you strong and fills you with energy." Mrs. J. W. Barker, 1337 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

S.S.S. is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory. It is time-tried and reliable.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Make sure today, that you are using the right oil in your Ford.

Smoothness and economy depend upon the oil you use

Only a specially-compounded light-bodied oil—Polarine F—can give best results in your Ford. There are several reasons why this is so.

The Ford motor is a high speed motor and requires an oil which flows freely and quickly to all engine parts.

It is a high compression motor in which carbon formation is more serious, hence an oil of low carbon tendency is required.

Its bearing construction requires an oil light enough to penetrate quickly to bearing surfaces, yet of sufficient body to withstand heat and pressure.

The splash system of lubrication is used, requiring a light-bodied oil which will atomize readily when splashed by the connecting rods.

Polarine F also has the second vital Ford oil characteristic. It keeps transmission bands soft and pliable—prevents chatter and grab.

Our recommendation of Polarine F for Fords is based on our own experience with these cars as well as the judgment of lubrication engineers.

Change crank-case oil every 500 miles and refill with Polarine F. For chassis lubrication use Polarine BB (for differential gears) and Polarine Cup Grease. These high-quality lubricants are available everywhere in Ohio to help you get best results from your Ford.

MEDICAL MEN HOLD SESSION

Principal Address Made by Dr. E. P. McNamee of Cleveland.

Declaring that preventive measures are more essential than curative methods, members of the Columbiana County Medical society, meeting in Salem, passed a resolution to take steps to advertise to the public the importance of the prevention of certain diseases, and to conduct all public clinics for diagnostic purposes under the direction of the medical society.

The meeting was held at the Memorial building, the program including a talk on the value of X-ray examinations in gall bladder condition, by Dr. E. P. McNamee of Cleveland. This instructive discussion was illustrated by lantern slides.

The resolution adopted by the medical society follows:

"That the logical adviser in matters of health is, and should be, the family physician.

"That it is not only the right but the duty of all physicians to inform their patients that curative methods, while necessary, are not the most essential to the public in general; that typhoid fever, small pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough, etc., are preventable and no community should stop short of a most rigid understanding that a disease which is preventable should not be allowed to exist, and that special emphasis shall be placed on preventive measures rather than curative.

"That the control of communicable diseases by stopping their spread at their source shall be the goal of every practicing physician.

"That on and after Sept. 1, 1927, all physicians in the Columbiana County Medical society shall display in a conspicuous place in their offices, cards announcing to the public the importance of the prevention of certain diseases, namely, typhoid fever, small pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough, etc., by the latest and approved methods of conferring such immunity, and such cards shall be supplied by the health department.

"That all public clinics for diagnostic purposes shall be sponsored by the Columbiana County Medical society.

"That all treatment and work of immunization formerly done by the health department for demonstration and educational purposes shall in the future be done by the family physician at the request of the parents or guardian, and the health department shall do such work only when requested by the physicians of the community or upon demand of the board of education."

FIVE MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

A marriage license has been issued by Judge Lodge Riddle to Charles F. Stull and Miss Harriet Jackson Podewels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Podewels of East Liverpool. They are to be married by the Rev. F. E. Dean at East Liverpool.

William Hardy of Homeworth and Dorothy Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. High S. Martin of Moultrie have been granted a marriage license. They were married at Lisbon by Justice M. K. Zimerman.

Alexander Sommerville, residing at Garfield, formerly at Washingtonville, a stationary engineer and Doris Scattergood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Scattergood, of Salem, R. F. D. have obtained a marriage license. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Cope.

Harry C. Ramsey and Mildred Ethel Conn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ethel Conn, both residing at East Liverpool, secured a marriage license. They were married at the parsonage of the Lisbon United Presbyterian church by the Rev. J. M. Cameron.

William Kring of Salem and Arvilla Dicken of Washingtonville, but formerly residing at Bedford, Pa., were granted a license. They are to be married at Salem by the Rev. Beale.

LARKINS GIVEN WORKHOUSE TERM

When given a hearing before Judge Lodge Riddle Wednesday afternoon, Wade Larkins of East Liverpool, upon his plea of guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was sentenced to 30 days in the Canton workhouse. In addition his committment will continue until the costs are also paid. The girl was committed to the Industrial school at Delaware.

John Davis, of East Liverpool, who also entered a plea of guilty in the same court to contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was fined $75 and costs, and committed to the county jail until the fine and costs are paid.

VERDICT GIVEN IN DAMAGE CASE

A verdict for the defendants was returned by a jury composed of nine women and three men in common pleas court No. 2 late Wednesday afternoon in the case of John Senserbacher against Irwin Rupert and Harry Rupert. The plaintiff sued the defendants for $5,000 damages Sept. 3, 1926, and the case went to trial Monday morning.

In this case it developed that Senserbacher went to the Rupert farm in Fairfield township, and a quarrel followed with the Rupert brothers. Senserbacher had his eyes blackened, but he suffered no other physical damage, it was testified. Costs in the case have been put against the plaintiff.

Action Filed.

According to a petition and action in attachment filed in common pleas court by Alicia Hoban, by her counsel Cochran and Crawford and P. V. Mackall of East Liverpool, the claim is set up that William Campbell is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $498.

Patterson Reunion.

SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS SESSION

Contracts Awarded for Furnishing New School Building.

Members of the Grant district school board meeting in special session Tuesday night awarded the contract for furnishing desks and shades for the eight-room new Wells school building to the Dobson-Evans company of Columbus, O.

Laboratory equipment will be supplied by the Kewaunee Manufacturing company of Kewaunee, Wis.

Desks and other equipment will be placed in the new building between July 15 and August 1.

BETHANY COLLEGE HAS NEW SYSTEM

A system of obtaining follow-up reports on all graduates of Bethany college who are in educational work has just been put into effect. The aim is to obtain information from school officials as to the strong points and weak points of those who graduate from Bethany and go into educational work. The information will be used to raise the general standards of the work here and of all teaching. This system is part of Dr. H. T. McKinney's program in the department of education and another forward step for the college.

The work of handling these follow-up reports will be in charge of the dean of the college.

Seek Citizenship.

Number of Grant district residents are among those whose application for citizenship were heard this week in circuit court at New Cumberland. Oath of allegiance was administered by Judge J. Harold Brennan.

Lodgemen to Meet.

Members of Clark lodge No. 447, I. O. O. F. will meet tomorrow night in the Aaron building, Fifth street. Routine business will be transacted at this session.

Correcting Records.

Work has been begun on correcting the records of the alumni of Bethany college. No definite work has been done on this for several years and the records are not only very incomplete but incorrect. The work of putting these records in first class condition will take probably a full year or so. F. H. Kirkpatrick has been in charge of the work so far.

PROBE BEAVER CREEK MENACE

State Health Board Investigates Pollution of Waters.

Bruce M. McDill, special investigator for the state department of health, will arrive in Columbiana county, today or tomorrow to investigate the pollution of Beaver creek in Middleton and St. Clair townships.

The pollution, it is said, has been caused by draining mines near Rogers. Large quantities of water filled with sulphur having been turned into Bull Creek which empties into Beaver Creek.

Farmers have been unable to use the water from these streams for their stock, and thousands of fish with which the creeks were recently stocked have been killed.

McDill will be accompanied by Deputy Game Warden L. W. Boring, Lisbon, and Dr. T. T. Church, Salem, county health commissioner, on his tour of investigation.

Only GENERAL MOTORS can give you the value you get in FRIGIDAIRE

EXAMINE a Frigidaire and note the many features that have given it leadership among electric refrigerators:

Direct frost-coil cooling that maintains a constant cold-storage temperature in the food compartment; patented self-sealing freezing trays that quickly freeze an abundance of ice cubes and that provide below-freezing temperatures for making frozen salads and desserts; and the famous hydrolene-treated insulation.

Only engineering skill of the highest order could have produced Frigidaire. And only General Motors could have produced it at a price so low.

Come in and see how easy it is to have this modern, sanitary, care-free refrigeration. A small deposit puts Frigidaire in your home. Then pay a little each month under liberal General Motors terms.

Kills Pesky Bed-Bugs Roaches and Ants

Doctors declare that bed-bugs, roaches and other vermin are the most to be feared means of spreading such diseases as consumption, spinal meningitis and other infectious troubles. There is no disgrace in getting bed-bugs in your home, because that can't be avoided. But it is a disgrace to permit them to remain and thrive when it is so easy to get rid of them with the new chemical compound, P.D.Q., which quickly puts an end to these pesky devils.

A Million Bed-Bugs

A 35-cent package of this golden chemical will make a quart of a mixture that is so deadly to bed-bugs that it would kill a million of them if you could get that many together. Instantly it smothers and anninilates the living creatures; coats their eggs and stops them from hatching and multiplying.

Will Not Damage Goods

P.D.Q. will not injure delicate fabrics, clothing, carpets, furniture, bedding, wall paper or woodwork. In fact, it is often used as a deodoriser and disinfectant.

Moths

Impossible for moths to exist after using P.D.Q. Easy to use. A treatment on garments will prevent moths for two years.

For Ants and Cockroaches

Ants and cockroaches stand no chance of surviving a treatment of P.D.Q. It attacks them and their eggs with such force that it kills their whole generation.

P. D. Q. In Liquid Form

P.D.Q. can be purchased in sealed bottles double strength liquid form, with patent spout free. P.D.Q. Liquid can be diluted to make a quart or it can be used pure.

P.D.Q. is marketed in two style packages. Liquid form 50c, ready for use and P.D.Q. Dry form, 35c. Each package makes one quart.

Get P.D.Q. from your druggist today. Your money back if the bugs are not gone tomorrow.

Doctors declare that bed-bugs, roaches and other vermin are the most to be feared means of spreading such diseases as consumption, spinal meningitis and other infectious troubles. There is no disgrace in getting bed-bugs in your home, because that can't be avoided. But it is a disgrace to permit them to remain and thrive when it is so easy to get rid of them with the new chemical compound, P.D.Q., which quickly puts an end to these pesky devils.

A Million Bed-Bugs

A 35-cent package of this golden chemical will make a quart of a mixture that is so deadly to bed-bugs that it would kill a million of them if you could get that many together. Instantly it smothers and anninilates the living creatures; coats their eggs and stops them from hatching and multiplying.

Will Not Damage Goods

P.D.Q. will not injure delicate fabrics, clothing, carpets, furniture, bedding, wall paper or woodwork. In fact, it is often used as a deodorizer and disinfectant.

Moths

Impossible for moths to exist after using P.D.Q. Easy to use. A treatment on garments will prevent moths for two years.

For Ants and Cockroaches

Ants and cockroaches stand no chance of surviving a treatment of P.D.Q. It attacks them and their eggs with such force that it kills their whole generation.

P. D. Q. In Liquid Form

P.D.Q. can be purchased in sealed bottles double strength liquid form, with patent spout free. P.D.Q. Liquid can be diluted to make a quart or it can be used pure.

P.D.Q. is marketed in two style packages. Liquid form 50c, ready for use and P.D.Q. Dry form, 35c. Each package makes one quart.

Dr. Caldwell's 3 Rules Keep You Healthy

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time regardless of how much one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the most delicate system and is not a habit forming preparation. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written us to that effect.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their system. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without griping and harm to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It robs your strength, hardens your arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to a druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Take the proper dose that night and by morning you will feel like a different person. Use

W. B. Caldwell M.D. AT AGE 83

Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crampy stomach, bad breath, no appetite, headaches, and to break up fevers and colds. Always have a bottle in the house, and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open.

We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

O'Brien Boy Thin and Pale

In a Little Over Two Months Gained Eleven Pounds.

As a body builder, an appetite creator, and to make weak, skinny boys and girls sturdy, strong and full of energy there is nothing like Cod Liver Oil—any physician will tell you that.

But it's vile, horrible stuff to take, and is apt to upset any stomach, so now doctors are prescribing and wise parents are buying McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—sugar-coated, and as easy to take as candy.

The son of George G. O'Brien of Mahwah, N. J., was thin and pale and did not get enough nourishment from his food. In a little over two months, he gained eleven and one-half pounds, and feels and looks one hundred per cent better.

Mothers, if any of your children are weak, thin or puny, give them these tablets, as directed for 30 days, and watch them gain flesh and health from day to day—they seldom fail—but if the unusual should happen and you are not supremely satisfied with results—your druggist is authorized to return your money.

"WHITE GOLD" AT CERAMIC

New York's Reception to Lindbergh Also on Screen.

A double bill—scenes of New York's tremendous reception to Captain Charles A. Lindbergh and a feature picture, "White Gold," will be offered at the Ceramic theatre today, tomorrow and Saturday.

Filled with dramatic action, tensefied and compelling, "White Gold" is said to be one of the most unusual photoplays in which the exotic Jetta Goudal has appeared, and all who witnessed her remarkable work in "Three Faces East," will await her latest starring effort with genuine interest.

The scenes of the story are laid on a sheep ranch in Arizona. Dolores Carson, a dancer, longing for home life, weds Alec Carson, the son of a sheep rancher. The latter disapproves of the marriage and makes life miserable for his daughter-in-law. A drought of long standing is killing off the sheep and the young wife who sincerely loves her husband, finds herself neglected. Sam Randall, a herder, seeks to win her from her husband who, engrossed in his dying sheep, pays her little attention. The climax is reached when Randall is killed by Dolores after he invades the young wife's room. The finale is as remarkable as it is natural but it would be unfair to the public to reveal it.

Here is a story which provides Miss Goudal with abundant opportunities for the display of her talents as a dramatic actress of remarkable power. In directing the picture, William K. Howard departed from the accepted standards of picture production and established a precedent, that of discarding the scenarist's script and developing the plot according to the psychology of the players and the events as they transpire. The motivation is said to have reached a high tempo in consequence and to have been maintained until the final scene was filmed. The result is reported to be one of the most unusual photoplays thus far produced this season.

Sciatic-Neuritis

The trouble is a very obstinate one and does not readily respond to ordinary treatment. It takes more than the usual pain sedative even to alleviate the pain. The best way to get relief from the persistent nerve racking pains of Neuritis is to get a bottle of Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2, which comes in capsule form. Take them as directed and in about 24 hours you should be able to notice that they have considerably reduced, if not almost banished, all pain and soreness. Continue faithfully and in a reasonable time you should be able to work and rest in comfort once again. Mathews Medicine Store keeps Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2 in stock all the time and sells lots of it.

Hagen Poised For 11th-Hour Rush To National Open Honors

Walt Three Strokes Behind Lead As Golf Rivals Face Finals

By Davis J. Walsh.

OAKMONT, Pa., June 16.—For the first time since he relinquished the title in 1920 to Ted Ray never to regain it in the intervening years, Walter Hagen today was ready to go into the final rounds of the national open championship with the fighting chance that only a fighting golfer needs. Three strokes back of the lead and occupying a spot from which a rush from the rear may well be started, the "king" was poised today for the effort of a lifetime and, at least ten other men felt exactly the same way about it.

One of them was Robert, the Emperor Jones, himself, and in person, playing through the tournament as a champion who seemed about to be unfrocked. The gent was six strokes back of the leader, Harrison Johnston, the amateur gentleman or gentleman amateur as the case may be. Johnston started the last two rounds with a total score of 147, Hagen with 150 and Jones with 153. It seemed as though the champion of champions was due to call it a tournament.

For, at intervening spaces were placed the illustrious names of Gene Sarazen at 148, Tom Armour at 149, Harry Cooper at 150, Harry Hampton at 151 and Bill Mehlhorn and Leo Diegel at 152, and while it may be that Jones will go very well today it doesn't stand to reason that one and all of these parties will go very bad. It will need a combination of both to return Jones to the throne he ascended at Scioto so regally last year.

Jones, of course, is the Harry Houdini of competitive golf, the man who can pluck a rabbit out of the hat and make it look the part of a lion. He was six strokes back when they started the last eighteen at Scioto. And what happened? Everybody blew with the single, outstanding and notable exception of Robert the Jones. He was four strokes off the lead starting the last night and yet won.

History may repeat, in spite of the prophets, but Bobby Jones isn't likely to win unless he starts playing miracle golf, pronto, and without loss of future time.

As a matter of fundamental fact, he has too much to beat. In the 1926 championship, he had men in front of him who weren't due to win anyhow. Today, he must outclass such as Sarazen, Hagen, Armour, Cooper, Mehlhorn, Diegel, Jim Barnes and Archie Compston, not to consider Johnny Farrell and Bobby Cruikshank who might come up from the surreptitious rear to take the play away from everyone.

Those mentioned are the only ones who have better than a mathematical chance at the title but, at that, they are too numerous if you wish to figure them against any one man. The impending champion may be neither Hagen nor Sarazen. It may not be Cooper or Armour. It may be even that Johnston will fold up in the last two rounds.

But you can't figure all of them missing at one and the same time and that is the main reason that the boys behind the third tier of lockers in the Oakmont club house are betting today that a new champion will be installed ere the shadows of late afternoon purple into that bank of hills beyond the nether bank of the Allegheny.

But whoever the winner may be, the 1927 tournament must go down in the books as the most unusual of all the classics. No one, with the possible exception of Armour's 71, Fred Baroni's 72 and Farrell's 73 of yesterday, has been able to score in the manner to which they have become accustomed.

The British nominated a nine-man team and yet with the show-down rounds approaching, only one of them, Archie Compson, has the chance of a white man on a fair day. The "hot" choice of the American contingent were supposed to be Farrell, Cruikshank and John Golden, among others, and yet the first two are barely within hail and the latter is out of sight and virtually mind altogether.

The positions of Jock Hutchison and Willie Macfarlane, ex-champions both, may hardly be regarded as encouraging, while Joe Turnesa, who chased Jones into the last title, remains with the situation today almost as a matter of courtesy.

It has been a tournament of form-backflops and perhaps we haven't seen anything yet. The third and fourth rounds always produce the inevitable blowup that comes to every man who essays to play 72 holes of golf and they will be played today. Anything can happen; many things will. It only remains to determine what, how, when and by what authority.

Hudkins Streak Checked by Sergeant Sammy Baker.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Two stars in the fistic firmament sparked with added brightness today as the result of sensational knockouts scored at the Polo grounds baxing carnival last night. Sergeant Sammy Baker, the famous soldier welterweight of Mitchel field, N. Y., scored a technical knockout over Ace Hudkins, Nebraska terror, in the seventh round, and Sid Terris knocked out Ruby Goldstein, his East Side rival, in the first round.

By checking Hudkins' long string of victories, Baker looms at the outstanding welterweigh challenger. Ace was on his feet and going strong at the finish, but a cut under his right eye was bleeding so profusely that the referee stopped the bout. The defeat was doubly humiliating to Hudkins because of the presence at the ringside of his old friend, Colonel "Slim" Lindbergh.

Terris put Goldstein to sleep after he had been knocked down for a count of nine. The "dancing master" hit Ruby on the button when Goldstein was rushing in to finish his man. Terris' victory stamps him as a leading contender for the lightweight title.

M'GRAW DENIES HORNSBY REPORT

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 16.—The story that Rogers Hornsby had been selected to manage the New York Giants in 1928, is unfounded, according to John J. McGraw, who is here with the team. McGraw said:

"I didn't announce Hornsby would manage the Giants in 1928. What I did say was that I hoped Hornsby would be the man to succeed myself as manager of the Giants. However, I did not say in 1928, for my present contract does not expire until the close of the next season."

'Y' TO TACKLE CHESTER SQUAD

Y. M. C. A. nine of the Recreation League will clash with Werkheiser's "Pros" tonight at 6 o'clock at the T. S. T. field in Chester.

The tilt will be a practice game for the "Y" club in preparation for second half contests.

Neis Sold to White Sox.

CLEVELAND, June 16.—Bernie Neis, outfielder, has been sold by the Cleveland Indians to the Chicago White Sox via the waiver route and is to report to that club immediately.

Heimies Cop Tough Tussle at East End

Tie Count in Eighth on Canne's Homer and Win in Ninth; Scott Clouts Ball Hard for Losers.

With both clubs fighting tooth and toe nail to the final putout, the Heimies and the Review-Tribune clashed last night at Columbian park in a thriller that provided a fitting climax to the first half of the Review-Tribune Recreation league season. The Heimies, sectional pennant winners, won the game, 10 to 9.

Although the conquerors had a big lead in the first five frames, almost sufficient to cop any ordinary engagement of the kind, they saw it melt away in the mid-way innings and disappear altogether in the seventh as the Printers went into the lead by a single tally.

But their bats still carried a few more base wallops and they proceeded to unload them, and these swats, together with a couple of miscues, coming at critical junctures, enabled the pace setters to balance the score sheet figures at 9 all in the eighth and to win by a one-run margin in the ninth.

As customary, the Heimie nine got off to an early start, counting two runs in the opening ode. English walked and DeBolt singled, the former scoring on Larkins' sacrifice fly and the latter on Chuck McConville's single.

Drives by English, DeBolt, McConville and Swaney gave the Heimies four more in the second, the Printers getting one in this frame on Scott's long drive to left.

Two more runs were annexed by Heimies in the third, on a single, a walk and an outfield error.

From then on until the eighth the Heimies went scoreless.

The Printers uncorked a couple of choice clouts in the fourth which, coupled with two Heimie miscues, produced three runs, making the count 8 to 4.

The Printers came within one run of tying the tally in the sixth when three more runs crossed the plate. Third Baseman Scott pasted the pellet to the running track on the street side of the lot for a home run, his wallop being followed by two successive errors and consecutive bingles by D. Scott, catcher, and Niblock.

The Printers continued their onslaught in the seventh, counting twice, the first run tying the score and the second giving them a one-run advantage. C. Kinney, O. Scott, Maley and Niblock banged out singles in this frame.

Facing defeat the Heimie outfit stole surreptitiously from the rear in the eighth to place the affair on an even keel again, Joe Canne's home run drive turning the trick.

The Printers went out in order in the first of the ninth while the Heimies went out to win, one run being sufficient. An outfield and an infield error, followed by a walk and a single did the work.

The contest was witnessed by several hundred fans. As a result of the defeat the Review-Tribune nine and five others are tied for second place in the final reckoning for the initial half.

BUCS, CARDS TAKE SPURT AS CUBS WIN

Giants, Dropping Back Appear Outdistanced.

By Les Conklin.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Although the Chicago Cubs, with eleven straight victories, are burning up the eastern team; they are unable to draw clear of the Pirates and Cardinals, who have caught the idea and started winning spurts of their own. The Giants, held to two hits by Jess Haines, dropped to the .500 mark and apparently are out of the race.

Three leading pitchers improved their records. Ted Lyons of the White Sox won his ninth game in a row and his twelfth of the season; Carmen Hill of the Pirates chalked up his eighth consecutive victory; and Charley Root of the Cubs won his eleventh game of the season.

Grimm and Hartnett each got four hits as the Cubs massacred the Phillies, 12 to 5.

After being tagged for a homer by Simmons with the bases choked in the first, Lyons settled down and did not allow a hit after the third inning. He won his own game with a triple in the eighth. Score, 6 to 4.

Joe Harris, whose hobby this year is collecting base hits, got three of them as the Pirates subdued the Braves, 7 to 4. Pittsburgh handed an unconditional release to Joe Bush, veteran pitcher, and bought Joe Dawson from Louisville to replace him.

The Giants merely went through the motions against Haines, losing, 5 to 0.

Eppa Rixey of the Reds held the Brooklyn Robins to four hits but Dazzy Vance won the decision, 2 to 1.

The other teams did not play.

JACK TO LEAVE FOR NEW YORK

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, accompanied by a retinue of handlers and secretaries, will leave here today for New York, where he is scheduled to meet Jack Sharkey on July 21.

Sharkey's manager, Johnny Buckley, left here last night. Before he left, he let it be known that he was not satisfied with the terms quoted by Tex Rickard, said he had not signed for the bout and indicated his fountain pen would remain poised until the New York promoter dug a little deeper into his strong box.

Everything a motor car can offer

Beauty Trim, graceful lines; charming proportions; rich Duco colorings; restful, tasteful interiors; upholsteries fine in appearance and in quality; the painstaking, enduring coachcraft of Fisher—Buick combines them all in a car of rare and unusual beauty.

Performance Buick's six-cylinder Valve-in-Head Engine is vibrationless beyond belief at any speed. It has power to take you anywhere, speed that eats up miles, and flexibility that makes driving amazingly easy, even in the thickest traffic.

Comfort Ample wheelbase and Cantilever Springs; carefully constructed seat-cushions, properly tilted at the most inviting angle; roomy, convenient seating arrangements—Buick builds comfort for driver and passengers into every car.

Economy Low fuel costs with the efficient Buick engine; only four oil changes a year with the Vacuum Ventilator; increased tire mileage with Balanced Wheels—these are examples of Buick economy. But Buick's justly famous dependability and long life provide the greatest economy of all.

Value Because Buick uses the earnings of leadership to further enrich quality; because Buick constantly strives for improvement; because Buick gives everything a motor car can offer—in greater measure, at moderate cost—it is the greatest value automobile dollars can buy. A-46-30

Walt Three Strokes Behind Lead As Golf Rivals Face Finals

By Davis J. Walsh.

OAKMONT, Pa., June 16.—For the first time since he relinquished the title in 1920 to Ted Ray never to regain it in the intervening years, Walter Hagen today was ready to go into the final rounds of the national open championship with the fighting chance that only a fighting golfer needs. Three strokes back of the lead and occupying a spot from which a rush from the rear may well be started, the "king" was poised today for the effort of a lifetime and, at least ten other men felt exactly the same way about it.

One of them was Robert, the Emperor Jones, himself, and in person, playing through the tournament as a champion who seemed about to be unfrocked. The gent was six strokes back of the leader, Harrison Johnston, the amateur gentleman or gentleman amateur as the case may be. Johnston started the last two rounds with a total score of 147, Hagen with 150 and Jones with 153. It seemed as though the champion of champions was due to call it a tournament.

For, at intervening spaces were placed the illustrious names of Gene Sarazen at 148, Tom Armour at 149, Harry Cooper at 150, Harry Hampton at 151 and Bill Mehlhorn and Leo Diegel at 152, and while it may be that Jones will go very well today it doesn't stand to reason that one and all of these parties will go very bad. It will need a combination of both to return Jones to the throne he ascended at Scioto so regally last year.

Jones, of course, is the Harry Houdini of competitive golf, the man who can pluck a rabbit out of the hat and make it look the part of a lion. He was six strokes back when they started the last eighteen at Scioto. And what happened? Everybody blew with the single, outstanding and notable exception of Robert the Jones. He was four strokes off the lead starting the last night and yet won.

History may repeat, in spite of the prophets, but Bobby Jones isn't likely to win unless he starts playing miracle golf, pronto, and without loss of future time.

As a matter of fundamental fact, he has too much to beat. In the 1926 championship, he had men in front of him who weren't due to win anyhow. Today, he must outclass such as Sarazen, Hagen, Armour, Cooper, Mehlhorn, Diegel, Jim Barnes and Archie Compston, not to consider Johnny Farrell and Bobby Cruikshank who might come up from the surreptitious rear to take the play away from everyone.

Those mentioned are the only ones who have better than a mathematical chance at the title but, at that, they are too numerous if you wish to figure them against any one man. KEAY, WOOD COP RACES

Victors in 200 and 300 Mile Bird Events.

Results of two races held last week were announced today by the East Liverpool Homing club. R. Keay won the 200-mile event and J. Wood the 300-mile derby.

The results:

200-mile Race.

	Yards per minute.
R. Keay	1420.90
H. Brookes	1406.11
H. Brookes	1401.09
J. Wood	1336.08
G. Cornell	1334.08
P. Ruddy	1313.01

300-mile Race.

	Yards per minute.
J. Wood	868.13
H. Brookes	857.36
H. Brookes	852.42
G. Cornell	847.32
R. Keay	842.10
P. Ruddy	840.74

The Printers went out in order in the first of the ninth while the Heimies went out to win, one run being sufficient. An outfield and an infield error, followed by a walk and a single did the work.

The contest was witnessed by several hundred fans. As a result of the defeat the Review-Tribune nine and five others are tied for second place in the final reckoning for the initial half.

BUCS, CARDS TAKE SPURT AS CUBS WIN

Giants, Dropping Back Appear Outdistanced.

By Les Conklin.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Although the Chicago Cubs, with eleven straight victories, are burning up the eastern team they are unable to draw clear of the Pirates and Cardinals, who have caught the idea and started winning spurts of their own. The Giants, held to two hits by Jess Haines, dropped to the .500 mark and apparently are out of the race.

Three leading pitchers improved their records. Ted Lyons of the White Sox won his ninth game in a row and his twelfth of the season; Carmen Hill of the Pirates chalked up his eighth consecutive victory; and Charley Root of the Cubs won his eleventh game of the season.

Grimm and Hartnett each got four hits as the Cubs massacred the Phillies, 12 to 5.

After being tagged for a homer by Simmons with the bases choked in the first, Lyons settled down and did not allow a hit after the third inning. He won his own game with a triple in the eighth. Score, 6 to 4.

Joe Harris, whose hobby this year is collecting base hits, got three of them as the Pirates subdued the Braves, 7 to 4. Pittsburgh handed an unconditional release to Joe Bush, veteran pitcher, and bought Joe Dawson from Louisville to replace him.

The Giants merely went through the motions against Haines, losing, 5 to 0.

Eppa Rixey of the Reds held the Brooklyn Robins to four hits but Dazzy Vance won the decision, 2 to 1.

The other teams did not play.

JACK TO LEAVE FOR NEW YORK

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, accompanied by a retinue of handlers and secretaries, will leave here today for New York, where he is scheduled to meet Jack Sharkey on July 21.

Sharkey's manager, Johnny Buckley, left here last night. Before he left, he let it be known that he was not satisfied with the terms quoted by Tex Rickard, said he had not signed for the bout and indicated his fountain pen would remain poised until the New York promoter dug a little deeper into his strong box.

Everything a motor car can offer

Beauty Trim, graceful lines; charming proportions; rich Duco colorings; restful, tasteful interiors; upholsteries fine in appearance and in quality; the painstaking, enduring coachcraft of Fisher—Buick combines them all in a car of rare and unusual beauty.

Performance Buick's six-cylinder Valve-in-Head Engine is vibrationless beyond belief at any speed. It has power to take you anywhere, speed that eats up miles, and flexibility that makes driving amazingly easy, even in the thickest traffic.

Comfort Ample wheelbase and Cantilever Springs; carefully constructed seat-cushions, properly tilted at the most inviting angle; roomy, convenient seating arrangements—Buick builds comfort for driver and passengers into every car.

Economy Low fuel costs with the efficient Buick engine; only four oil changes a year with the Vacuum Ventilator; increased tire mileage with Balanced Wheels—these are examples of Buick economy. But Buick's justly famous dependability and long life provide the greatest economy of all.

Value Because Buick uses the earnings of leadership to further enrich quality; because Buick constantly strives for improvement; because Buick gives everything a motor car can offer—in greater measure, at moderate cost—it is the greatest value automobile dollars can buy. A-46-30

RESOLUTION NUMBER 420.
DECLARING IT NECESSARY TO IMPROVE SMITHFIELD STREET, FROM McKINNON AVENUE TO ORCHARD GROVE AVENUE, BY GRADING AND PAVING THE SAME.
WHEREAS, the owners of a majority of the foot frontage of property owners on Smithfield Street, from McKinnon Avenue to Orchard Grove Avenue, have petitioned in writing for the improvement of said street, between the points named, by grading and paving the same with brick or asphalt on a concrete foundation or re-enforced concrete to the full width of the same, now, therefore
BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio: (Three-fourths of all the members elected thereto concurring):
SECTION I. That it is necessary to improve Smithfield Street, from McKinnon Avenue to Orchard Grove Avenue, by grading and paving the same with brick or asphalt on a concrete foundation or re-enforced concrete to the full width of the same and by constructing therein all necessary concrete curbs, retaining walls, sewers, ditches, bridges, gutters and drains and doing everything else necessary or essential for the proper completion of said improvement in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles heretofore prepared by the City Engineer and hereinafter referred to.
SECTION II. That the grade of said street and said curbs as improved shall be the existing grade.
SECTION III. That the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles of the proposed improvement, heretofore prepared by the City Engineer and now on file in the Office of the Director of Public Service, be and the same are hereby approved.
SECTION IV. That the whole cost of said improvement, less one-fiftieth thereof and the cost of intersections, shall be assessed by the foot frontage upon the following described lots nad lands, to-wit:
All lots and lands bounding and abutting upon said proposed improvement, which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be specially benefitted by said improvement; and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense fo the preliminary and other surveys, and of printing and publishing the notices, resolutions and ordinances required, and the serving of said notices, the cost of construction, together with interest on bonds, issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments, and all other necessary expenditures.
SECTION V. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in five (5) annual installments, with interest on deferred payments at the same rate as shall be borne by the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection thereof; provided, that the owner of any property assessed may, at his option, pay such assessment in cash within thirty (30) days after the passage of the assessing ordinance.
SECTION VI. That bonds of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments and in an amount equal thereto.
SECTION VII. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement, not specially assessed, including the cost of intersections, together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein, purchased or appropriated, and the cost and expenses of any appropriation proceedings therefor, and the damages awarded any owner of adjoining lands and interest thereon, and the costs and expenses of any such award, shall be paid by the issuance of bonds in the manner provided by law.
SECTION VIII. That this Resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

RESOLUTION NUMBER 420.

DECLARING IT NECESSARY TO IMPROVE SMITHFIELD STREET, FROM McKINNON AVENUE TO ORCHARD GROVE AVENUE, BY GRADING AND PAVING THE SAME.

WHEREAS, the owners of a majority of the foot frontage of property owners on Smithfield Street, from McKinnon Avenue to Orchard Grove Avenue, have petitioned in writing for the improvement of said street, between the points named, by grading and paving the same with brick or asphalt on a concrete foundation or re-enforced concrete to the full width of the same, now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio: (Three-fourths of all the members elected thereto concurring):

SECTION I. That it is necessary to improve Smithfield Street, from McKinnon Avenue to Orchard Grove Avenue, by grading and paving the same with brick or asphalt on a concrete foundation or re-enforced concrete to the full-width of the same and by constructing therein all necessary concrete curbs, retaining walls, sewers, ditches, bridges, gutters and drains and doing everything else necessary or essential for the proper completion of said improvement in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles heretofore prepared by the City Engineer and hereinafter referred to.

SECTION II. That the grade of said street and said curbs as improved shall be the existing grade.

SECTION III. That the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles of the proposed improvement, heretofore prepared by the City Engineer and now on file in the Office of the Director of Public Service, be and the same are hereby approved.

SECTION IV. That the whole cost of said improvement, less one-fiftieth thereof and the cost of intersections, shall be assessed by the foot frontage upon the following described lots nad lands, to-wit:

All lots and lands bounding and abutting upon said proposed improvement, which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be specially benefitted by said improvement; and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense fo the preliminary and other surveys, and of printing and publishing the notices, resolutions and ordinances required, and the serving of said notices, the cost of construction, together with interest on bonds, issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments, and all other necessary expenditures.

SECTION V. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in five (5) annual installments, with interest on deferred payments at the same rate as shall be borne by the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection thereof; provided, that the owner of any property assessed may, at his option, pay such assessment in cash within thirty (30) days after the passage of the assessing ordinance.

SECTION VI. That bonds of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments and in an amount equal thereto.

SECTION VII. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement, not specially assessed, including the cost of intersections, together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein, purchased or appropriated, and the cost and expenses of any appropriation proceedings therefor, and the damages awarded any owner of adjoining lands and interest thereon, and the costs and expenses of any such award, shall be paid by the issuance of bonds in the manner provided by law.

SECTION VIII. That this Resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

BUNTING HELD FOR MURDER

Today

Now Byrd Is Ready.
Coolidge and Ford Agree.
Mocking Misfortune.
Around and Around.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

[The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review-Tribune.]

COMMANDER BYRD, first to fly over the north pole, plans by Friday a return trip across the Atlantic. Weather and providence permitting, he will fly from New York to Paris, rest there a few hours, and fly back to New York.

Fortunately, while this country, officially, lags behind others, even small countries, in flying, private enterprise and courage show the world how flying should be done.

IT IS a pity that Commander Byrd, magnificent flyer and navigator, should risk his life. Many would urge him to remain here and work to develop the perfect fool-proof trans-Atlantic machine. But friends of the young Virginian are not surprised at his determination to push achievement to the limit.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE, predicts more "intensive farming," tells 200 scientists gathered in a "soil congress" that bigger crops per acre, rather than more acreage, will solve the agricultural problem.

ALREADY the President's prediction begins to come true. Fewer stay on the farms but farms produce more. One wheat harvesting machine has reduced by 25,000 the number of extra harvest hands needed in Kansas.

HENRY FORD, who proves his theory in a dozen places along the River Rouge, says improved machinery will let the farmer do his farming in eight weeks and give him a chance to rest and do other lucrative work during the 44 remaining weeks of the year.

WHILE Lindbergh drove past the sad and gloomy Tombs prison in New York, unhappy prisoners looking through the bars might have been inspired with a determination to do better.

But young men in the crowd outside, jeered and mocked the imprisoned men, casting the prison into an uproar of hate and resentment, frightening the neighborhood.

Those mockers were not such men as Lindbergh would care to have welcome him. Who mocks misfortune is usually a coward.

MR. ECKENER, director of Germany's Zeppelin Co., says the LZ-137, now building, will cross between Germany and the United States several times, then, in 1928, go around the world.

That will begin air travel. Those living will see gigantic airships going round and round the globe, many times, without descending, dropping passengers by small machines at London, Pekin, New York, etc., as trans-Atlantic ships used to drop passengers on tugs, off Liverpool, years ago.

Review-Tribune Offers Booklet On Garden Insects

What will your harvest be? An abundant one—if you watch your garden and protect it from the diseases and insects which are likely to appear. These must be fought with determination and the battle must begin as soon as they reveal their existence.

The government will aid you in the prevention and cure of your garden ills. Its experts have prepared an invaluable booklet on "Diseases and Insects of Garden Vegetables." Your garden may be only a backyard plot or it may cover acres—but in either event you need this booklet.

Our Washington Information Bureau will secure a copy of this booklet for you if you will send in your name and address together with four cents in stamps to cover return postage and handling.

Frederic J. Haskin, Director
The East Liverpool Review-Tribune Information Bureau, Washington, D. C.

TAKEN TO JAIL

Funeral Services on Friday for William Phillips.

Edward (Skinny) Bunting, 45, Wellsville, one-time pugilist, was held without bond to await action of the September session of the Columbiana county grand jury on a charge of murder in the death of William (Smoke) Phillips, 31, of Salineville, coal miner, by Justice M. K. Zimerman at Lisbon today.

Pleads Not Guilty.

Bunting pleaded not guilty to the charge, which was preferred by Sheriff George Wright, and waived a preliminary examination. He was committed to the county jail.

The brief hearing was held shortly before 11 o'clock this morning. Bunting was brought to the court room from the Lisbon village jail, where he had been held since his arrest on suspicion Tuesday afternoon, when Phillips, said to be his pal, was found unconscious on the floor of a Beaver creek bridge near McCurdy's stop on the Youngstown and Ohio River railroad.

According to county authorities, Phillips, who died in the City hospital yesterday morning, sustained a fractured skull in a fist fight.

Phillips Funeral Friday.

Bunting, other than the declaration that Phillips struck his head in falling against a stone wall, has made no statement concerning the tragedy.

The accused man was not represented by counsel when he faced the court today.

After examining the body of Phillips, which was taken to the Hutson morgue in Salineville, yesterday, Coroner J. M. Van Fossan, of East Palestine, today, signed the death certificate, setting forth that Phillips had died after a "fist fight between two men in which one of them fell against a bridge, fracturing his skull."

Funeral services for Phillips will be held in the home of his father, Watt Phillips, Water street, Salineville, at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Services will be in charge of Rev. H. L. Peeples, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery.

Miss Marie Sloan, daughter of Dr. J. Howard Sloan, district superintendent of the Pittsburgh district Church of the Nazarene, was one of the three honor students who graduated from the Eastern Nazarene college, Wollaston Park, Quincy, Mass., yesterday.

Miss Sloan received her diploma from the theological department.

Other honor students were John W. Anderson of Warren, Pa., and Dolph W. Fry, of New Galilee, Pa.

"LINDY" HOPS TO CAPITAL AND BACK

National Open Golf "Dark Horse" Turns in 224, Leading Hagen

Cooper, With Two-Stroke Advantage Over Nominal Leader, Shows Brilliancy in Third.

JONES HAS 38 IN FIRST NINE

Sarazen Reports With 80 for 54-hole Score of 228, Four Strokes Behind Pace Setter.

OAKMONT COUNTRY CLUB, June 16.—Light Horse Harry Cooper ceased to be the dark horse of the national open golf championship today when he turned in a 224 and a two-stroke lead over Walter Hagen, the nominal leader at the moment. Cooper has been threatening to walk back to Los Angeles if he doesn't finish in the first five but at the end of the third round today it seemed that he might have an excellent chance of finishing in the first one.

Bobby Jones' Card.

While Harry was chasing his putts around the holes, Bobby Jones was off to the first nine with a 38 and the biggest gallery of the tournament in his wake. He was a stroke worse than par, having birdies at the fourth and seventh and buzzards at the third, sixth and eighth.

His card for nine holes:
Jones out 545 444 345—38.

Gene Sarazen, runner-up in the overnight totals, reported with an 80 for a 54-hole scole of 228, four strokes behind Cooper and two behind Hagen.

Harrison Johnston Blows.

Harrison Johnston, the amateur who had topped the field for two days with 147 strokes, blew like sperm whale with an 87.

Felix Serafin, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., disqualified.

H. R. Johnston, Minikahda Club, Minn., 147-87—234.

George M. Christ, Rochester, N. Y., 162-89—251.

P. O. Hart, Marietta, Ohio, 154-86—240.

George Gadd, Great Britain, disqualified.

Eddie Murphy, Chicago, Ill., disqualified.

Ted Ray, Great Britain 159-77—236.

Walter Hagen, Pasadena, Fla, Fla., 150-76—226.

Reports of Hoax In Nungesser-Coli Discovery Denied

QUEBEC, Que., June 16.—Reports that an accountant of a timber company has admitted that he perpetrated a hoax, leading to the reports of the discovery of Nungesser, were discredited here today.

The reports state that the accountant said he had used stolen flares to create an impression that Nungesser and Coli were sending out signals. Avilla Bedard, assistant chief of the provincial forestry service, stated that he has no reports of any flares being stolen.

SCOUR WOODS OF QUEBEC FOR FRENCH FLYERS

First Reports of Missing Men are Baseless.

FLARES ARE SEEN

One Man Says he Heard Sounds of Motor.

QUEBEC, June 16. — Government and private search parties today are still scouring the woods of northern Quebec in search of the French flyers, Nungesser and Coli, although up to the present some of the reports indicating that the two flyers might be alive have been shown to be baseless.

Edward Blais, of River Bend, who sent out messages yesterday afternoon reporting the finding of Nungesser and Coli, now reports that he learns that this report was baseless. He states that the report was brought to River Bend by a worker and was found to be unreliable.

Nevertheless there are reports of flares being seen which are sufficiently reliable to encourage the government in proceeding with its search.

George Brousseau, who has been found to be reliable, has reported that on May 9 near the Marguerite river he heard the sound of a motor in the air and believed it was an airplane, but was unable to see it on account of the fog.

"Foxlaw" Wins Ascot Gold Cup and King And Queen Look on

ASCOT, England, June 16.—The Ascot gold cup was won today by "Foxlaw," with "Altay," second, and "Dark Japan," third.

The prices to win were 8-1; 25-1; 11-10.

The king and queen witnessed the race, which was the big event of "Ladies' Day," the most spectacular day of the Ascot meeting, from the standpoint of fashion.

Child Dies After Taking Pills From Sister's Pocketbook

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Mackall, near Negley, today denied that the neuralgia pills, causing the death of a three-year-old daughter, Louise Mackall, had been administered by an elder sister while playing "doctor."

The child found the pills in a pocketbook which she took from a sideboard after her sister had placed it there.

Ocean Flyer Returns to New York in His "Spirit of St. Louis"

By James L. Kilgallen.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Dressed in evening clothes, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh arrived at Mitchel field at 7:47 o'clock this morning from Washington in his beloved "Spirit of St. Louis." He had unexpectedly departed for Washington at 2:59 this morning (daylight time) in a fast army pursuit plane to get his own trans-Atlantic monoplane.

Lindbergh circled Mitchel field several times before he descended. As he slipped out of the cockpit he wore a broad grin and seemed to have greatly enjoyed his s[illegible] and unexpected flight to the capital.

He made the trip to Washington in one hour and fifty-nine minutes and came back in two hours and thirty-seven minutes, apparently having spent some time cruising about.

"Lindy" had had not sleep but he was as fresh as a daisy when he landed.

Uses Army Pursuit Plane.

Lindbergh's departure for Washington came suddenly. At 1:30 this morning he slipped away from Roxy's theatre, while 6,000 persons in the audience sat content in the belief that he was still sitting in the front row.

He and a personal friend and adviser, Richard R. Blythe, slipped out a side exit and soon were speeding by automobile to the flying fields of Long Island. A telephone call to the duty officer at Mitchel Field warned him "Lindy" was en route.

A swift army pursuit plane was waiting for him. Only a few reporters were at the field. "Lindy" smiled and remarked, "I almost gave you fellows the slip that time."

Hastily donning a leather jacket, he jumped into the plane.

"So long," he cried, "I will be back by 8 o'clock."

The motor whirred.

In less than a minute the famous New York-to-Paris flyer was off into the bright moonlight, picking up speed as he flew into the air. Soon only the faint drumming of the motor could be heard as "Lindy" winged his way to get the other half of "we."

Sinclair Street His Escort.

On the spectacular flight to Washington, Lindbergh had with him as escort Captain Sinclair Street. "Lindy" was flying a Curtiss army pursuit ship, the one he used Monday to fly from Bolling Field, Washington.

There were no lights on Lindbergh's plane as it soared into the night but Captain Street's airship carried navigation lights so he led the way. Lindbergh was guided by the lights.

"Lindy" took his time coming back. It had been thought at Mitchel Field he might land around 7:30 or before, and when he did not arrive at that time army officials began to think he had changed his plans and had landed elsewhere.

But at 7:45 the famous "Spirit of St. Louis" was sighted swooping

Commander Byrd Defers Hop Off Until Tomorrow

MINEOLA, N. Y., June 16.—Commander Richard E. Byrd, will not hop off for Europe before noon tomorrow, he said upon his return to Roosevelt Field today.

The tri-motored Fokker plane "America" is ready to go on short notice, however, Byrd admitted.

He said the weather is the principal factor holding up the flight.

"Conditions are not favorable for a hop off today," he said, "I do not see any possibility of getting away before noon tomorrow."

Methodists Charter River Steamer for Outing Wednesday

Four Methodist Episcopal Sunday schools of East Liverpool have chartered the Ohio river excursion steamer, Washington, for their annual picnic next Wednesday.

The boat will leave the Broadway wharf at 9:30 a. m., touching the landing again at 3:30 p. m. It will dock at 7 p. m. A program of games and other entertainment will be arranged by a committee headed by George Kidder.

Tables will be provided aboard the boat for those who wish to take their dinners. Lunches will also be available at the boat cafeteria. Music throughout the day will be in charge of an orchestra.

While the boat has been chartered by the Sunday school of the First Orchard Grove, Pennsylvania Avenue and Boyce Methodist Episcopal Sunday school members of other churches are invited. A fare of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children, from 6 to 12 years of age, will be charged. Ouerators of the boat have promised special guards for the trip.

Authority is granted it to issue 14,000 shares of preferred stock, with a par value of $100 each, bearing 7 per cent annual interest, and 50,000 shares of no-par common stock.

Provision is made, also, in the articles of incorporation, for issuance of $1,650,000 in 10-year collateral 6½ per cent sinking fund gold notes, July 1, next, comprising interchangeable denominations of $1,000 and $500.

LESS THAN 50 PERSONS WITNESS REUNION OF EAGLE AND CRAFT

BY LAWRENCE SULLIVAN.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Racing over the eastern seaboard in a dramatic flight joining the night and the dawn, Colonel Charles Lindbergh dropped into the blinding floodlights of the naval air station at Anacostia at 3:43 o'clock this morning to re-establish the celebratwed "we" partnership for the first time on American shores.

Alone in a swift army pursuit plane, and still wearing the formal evening clothes of his last New York event, the sleepless eagle swooped down out of the red-tinted eastern skies one hour and fifty-nine minutes after his take-off from Mitchell Field.

Smiling and aglow with the spirit of his spectacular coup, he leaped from his plane, greeted officers of the naval flying field, quickly tuned up "The Spirit of St. Louis" and was off again for New York at 4:10 a. m.—twenty-seven minutes after his arrival.

South of the Atlas

BY MARSHALL P. WILL

CHAPTER THIRTY-THREE.

Came a terrific report and again the eucalyptus shook, nearly unseating him; then sounded a noise as of a world gone mad, of a thousand devils in mortal agony. He heard a loud, thumping thud and a snarling wailing cry at the foot of the tree. Now arose a threshing and churning that might have come from a pair of dinasuri in deadly combat, and drawing forth another piece of dynamite he slid a yard down the tree and struck another match, shielding it so to throw the light downward.

He saw the tiger, with a portion of its head blown away, thumping about the ground. Its head was down, as though weighed with the burden of a million years; as though it could not lift it. He realized that the beast was fighting in the throes of death, yet, living up to its nature, was dying hard. It was conceivable that this giant hulk, in its final agonies, might shake him from the tree, might even crash the slender trunk to earth.

Now the great beast was sinking to its side, the eye that remained unharmed fast losing its brilliant, vivid green. He saw the rump stay up to the last, then, before the match died, he saw the beast collapse suddenly and lay still. For an hour he held to his perch, ears alert for the slightest sound below, distrustful that even the terrific bombardment he had poured on the tiger had finally killed it.

At the end of that time the low-hanging golden moon crept up over the eastern Atlas and its fiery, slanting beams sent little slivers of liquid silver through the forest, giving the trees and undergrowth an elusive, goblin appearance that while beautiful was a little fearful. As the beams lengthened and grew stronger he made out the tiger and saw that it had not moved from its last collapse.

Coolly, but cautiously, he descended from the tree and stepped to the side of the giant beast. With his feet he turned the great head slightly and was startled at the damage his charge of dynamite had inflicted. The lower jaw, one side of the head, even the eyes and ear, had been blown away, allowing the gray-tinged brain to ooze from the skull; and despite this awful wound, the tiger had not died soon—in fact, only his second dynamite shot had put the final quietus on it.

On the spur of the moment he drew his long Moorish knife from his sash and with a quick, sharp stroke clipped off the dead beast's good ear, close to the head. The brute had been dead so long by now that the piece of silken skin did not bleed. He tucked it beneath this burnouse, then, swinging his sword to a more comfortable position, found the pathway, gleaming dimly in the moonlight, and resumed his journey.

As he went on the moon rose brighter and finally it stood straight over him. He imagined it had not risen until nine or after, and that by now it probably was around three in the morning. He felt no fatigue, no desire for sleep. Thoughts of Benna filling his mind, nothing else could gain foothold in his brain.

After a time the trees grew thinner and he saw far ahead, how many miles distant it would have been impossible to judge, a needle-like peak standing against the moon-bathed horizon. His way seemed to be leading directly toward this. Suddenly, it seemed that the peak had sprung into flame, as though a fiery volcano had broken from the very crest of the sharp point.

He paused, startled and wondering, then realized that here was no volcano, but a man-made light; but for all that a most mysterious light. Brilliantly red, it rose and died, went out briefly, then flickered into life again, for all the world like a giant eye that was winking at him sardonically. Something about the shape of the light, and its color, too, seemed familiar and he found himself puzzling over what the resemblance could be. But he could lose no time dreaming here over a mysterious light; he was seeking Benna. He moved onward again.

He was heading straight toward the light and as he traveled its fiery, red beams swelled and died, winked out briefly, then flared again. He wondered if it were to continue indefinitely, and what its object was. Then it died out utterly and only the brilliant glow of the now wanning moon lit the scene—a scene that was the epitome of gloom and mystery.

He imagined he could hear soft voices calling out there in the night, on either hand, then cursed himself for a fool, chiding himself that he had not recognized on the instant the lazy tones of the osprey or the more guttural voices of the lapwings. Steadily, he went ahead.

Now, when he was beginning to forget the light, it sprung up again, brighter deeper in its brilliant redness. The moon was now a sickly thing that barely lingered in the west, and he had the curious feeling that comes to all men who are up at night, just before the dawn. He found himself speculating on whether the red Moroccan sun would be topping the distant mountain peaks in two hours or three.

Now the light on the peak flared brilliantly again, literally sending a crimson streak through the gathering of the darkness that comes in that space of time when the moon has set and the sun has not yet risen—the hour or two that precedes the dawn. Looking at it, Larry found it blinded his eyes and he raised his left hand to shield his orbs.

With the motion his hand seemed to catch on fire, literally to blaze with a crimson flame. Startled, he jerked his hand back, then gasped in realization.

Bodly he stuck his hand forth, the stone in the ring turned fairly toward the light on the peak. And he found the righ a living miror in which all the fantasies of the greater light were reflected. As the light on the peak flared and ebbed, so did the ring, and when the greater light dulled and seemed to throb like blood pulsing through a beating heart, the ring on his finger dulled and throbbed in unison. Curiously as he continued to walk onward, he watched this phenomena, and somehow came to feel that here was something he had discovered; that there was some direct connection between the ring on his finger and the mysterious light on the peak.

He wondered what the connection could be, what it could mean. Now the light on the distant silver of the mountain flared high, thrice, and thrice it died out to nothing, and thrice the ring reflected the flare and the subsequent darkness. After the third flare the light was gone and remained blanketed. The ring now reflected only the last dying effort of the pale, sickly moon, beating to maintain its dignity.

Hs realized that his arm was tired from having held it out so long and he let it drop at his side, grateful for the rest. Still he journeyed onward, walking rapidly. But the toil of his night's endeavors was beginning to tell on him and he knew that soon he would have to halt for food and rest. It would be both senseless and useless to wear himself down to a weakling seeking Benna for should he do so, and then find her with his great body weakened, his mighty muscles sapped of their strength, he would be of little avail in a fight, if it came down to one, whether with the marabouts or with a slave soldier who might be guarding the country of the holy men.

The moon gave up its fight and dipped from sight. Once more it became dark and the woods were eerie. To Larry's racked nerves and worn body, to his tired and weary brain, it seemed more than ever that goblins strode among the trees and made fiery all the countryside. He wondered if he would ever find human habitation in this wilderness, then stopped short, for he had almost fallen over a crouching, salaaming figure in the pathway befoer him!

Startled, his hand dropped to his sword, then, seeing the fellow remained in an attitude of supplication or homage—he was not sure which—he drew back a pace, pondering. It was too early for the fedjr, the time of prayer at dawn, so the kneeling man could not be at his prayers. Larry spoke, using the familiar guttural Chleuh of the hills:

"Why kneel there, Unknown One? Arise, that I may pass."

"Ai, wizard, may Allah bless you that you bade me rise and did not strike my unworthy head from my shoulders with the long sword that hangs at your side. You have been long in coming, but I praise Allah, you are here."

Here was more mystery. Evidently, Larry thought, he had been mistaken for another. He knitted his brow in puzzled thought; they could not be expecting the Marabout of Adrar, surely, and at the worst this fellow could never have mistaken him for that ancient and emaciated giant of a schemer. He decided to risk a chance shot:

"And how did you recognize me?"

EAST LIVERPOOL—AMERICA'S POTTERY CENTER

THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1927.

America Cares

The French flyers, Nungesser and Coli, have not been forgotten in the midst of America's rejoicing over recent aviation triumphs. Since early in June a search from the air has been under way, which will cover every square mile of the wild and inhospitable interior of Newfoundland. That search is to be as intensive as possible and will not cease until it is definitely established whether or not the two brave French airmen came to earth on Newfoundland.

In the meantime, a benefit show is to be held in New York, the proceeds of which will go to the families of Nungesser and Coli. American flyers are selling the tickets for this benefit and intend to make it a success.

These two thoughful services are regarded by the men backing them as "America's job." The work undoubtedly would have been undertaken here regardless of Lindbergh's successful flight and great welcome in France. Its carrying out is still more important, however, in view of French generosity and appreciation.

A Vanquished Plague.

In another 20 years, predicts the secretary of the New York State Charities Aid Association, tuberculosis will be practically eliminated in the United States. The battle against this disease is regarded by thoughtful persons as one of the most important things the United States has done in the last two decades.

The success of that battle is also one of the most hopeful victories of the same period, for it suggests that other diseases can be driven out in similar ways.

The white plague has been beaten because the medical profession faced the terror squarely, sought its causes, studied its symptoms, found its remedies and preventives and then proceeded to give these useful finds widespread publicity.

Prevention of tuberculosis through wholesome living conditions and proper feeding in childhood has greatly reduced the number of victims. Cure of tuberculosis has been found fairly simple when the patients and their families are willing to tackle the disease promptly and follow directions thoroughly. All of this has demonstrated the possibility of eliminating the disease entirely. This will take constant vigilance, persistent effort and continued widespread publicity, but it is a cause worth all the time and trouble. Even if tuberculosis is routed first, it won't be the only disease to go. Cancer, diabetes and other dreaded, mysterious and baffling ailments ultimately will follow its exit with their own.

China

Lately they have been taking down the barricades in Shanghai. That is to say, the "foreign" settlements in that great commercial city have been removing the defenses they set up a few months ago, with dramatic impressiveness, to protect their white residents from the "fury of yellow hordes."

They were safeguarding themselves and their property particularly from the Nationalists, sweeping up from Canton, under the leadership of Chiang Kai-Shek. Those Nationalists, they loudly declared, were anti-foreign, red themselves and dominated by Red influence from Moscow, determined to sweep Europeans into the sea and establish a Communist system that would make China unsafe for all whites.

The Nationalists have reached Shanghai, and flowed around it like a river in flood, and swept on in pursuit of the shifty northern war lords and their tattered armies. And the frightened foreigners in Shanghai are safe—so safe that they stop shrieking for armies and navies to defend them, and resume business as usual.

It is seen now more clearly that the great masses of Chinese are not rabid against foreigners, as they were in the Boxer movement of a generation ago; that there was a lot of false propaganda sent out from Shanghai to win the attention of the powers; that the Nationalist party and army represent, in a general way, the best aspirations of modern China; that Moscow has had far less influence in Chinese policies and programs than the world was led to believe; that the greatest peril to China lies not in the Cantonese movement, but in the northern movement for reaction, led by men who represent brigandage and reaction rather than principle and intelligent modernism.

Neighbors

New York and Paris, it has been demonstrated, are now only about 33 hours apart. Berlin is a little more than that, and London a little less. Call it a day and a half from America to England, France, Germany or Italy.

A generation ago, by horse and buggy, the same might have represented 40 or 50 miles. Improved transportation has increased our range already nearly 100 times, and is steadily bringing distant places still nearer.

It is time to ask again the old biblical question, "Who is thy neighbor?" Already the leading European powers are our neighbors in almost as real a sense as were the people over in the next village in our pioneer days. And communication, the other essential of friendly intercourse, is vastly quicker than transportation, as the other is more permeable than the air or water.

Evidently it is time for the development of a new neighborliness, on a scale so vast as to have been inconceivable to former generations, sweeping away the prejudices based on their lack of contact.

THE SILENT DEADLY SORT

Months ago I told the story of the high-tempered attorney down in Kentucky who, on being fined ten dollars for contempt of court by a judge whom he regarded as being both stupid and incompetent, reached into his pocket for the money and remarked:

Lately I heard one which might fitly be classed as a companion piece to that story.

In the face of evidence to the contrary the judge had found for the plaintiff in a lawsuit. The counsel for the defendant, sitting with his face averted as though in deep thought, spoke without lifting his head.

"Your Honor, please fine me for contempt of court."

"I don't understand you," said the astonished judge. "You haven't indulged in any contempt."

"Oh, yes, I have,' said the lawyer. "It's silent."

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY
By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, June 16.—The stranger who pauses, especially after nightfall, before those glowering mansions of millionairdom, will almost immediately observe one or two figures appear from apparently nowhere to stand at a respectable distance in the offing.

They are the private watchmen, ever on guard at the portals of the rich. It is their job to restrain, not only the ordinarily curious, but the cranks and those who might have dangerous notions. So carefully are the rich protected that for a stranger to gain entrance halls is almost impossible.

Even reporters, skilled in scaling barriers of all sorts, often have to barriers themselves with prearranged appointments. It is rare a passerby sees people of wealth leaving their domiciles to enter their automobiles.

That is because watchmen usually scan the streets to see that there are no loiterers and then press a buzzer signal indicating the path is clear. It is not, however, a great danger that is feared. It is from annoyance of those who seek personal interviews.

There are hundreds who l'e in wait for the rich to exploit some idea which they believe needs only a moneyed interest. More than 50 per cent of a rich man's mail is burdened with these epistolary pleas. Strangely enough many people have been able to live for years through begging letters.

It has been said many millionaires were driven from Fifth Avenue to sequestered side streets because of those who waited morning and night in hope of a personal talk. The late Senator Clark always left his palace through a side servant entrance.

A gentleman I know was walking homeward from a dance very late one night. In passing an exclusive strip of Murray Hill he heard something drop to the sidewalk from his pocket and in the dark began to prowl around on his hands and knees. When he retrieved the lost article, he found he was in a complete circle of ten men—all guardians of the rich.

The swankily racked one-piece telephone of England and the continent has met such a sweeping demand in New York that rates for their use have increased 50 cents a month. There is a shop now dealing exclusively in their sale and installation.

In a short eight-block walk in midtown the other day I discovered two big hotels whose existence I had not known. Yet here they were with gaudy lobbies of onyx and marble displaying as much bustle as those that have existed for years. One has been open for a year and the other for four months and yet five people to whom I talked later, knew nothing of their existence. I doubt if such building activity could go as unnoticed in any other city.

About twenty years ago Isadora Duncan, the dancer, won first page prominence for giving a carriage driver a $100 tip for transporting her from her hotel to the Metropolitan Opera House. This week many New Yorkers have been solicited for subscriptions to a fund to purchase for Miss Duncan her old home in Neuilly, France.

During those golden days I was sent to interview Miss Duncan for a middle west newspaper. She received me in a room with decorations that somehow suggested a spasm in verse libre. She was seated on a stool surrounded by a circle of soft blue pillows. It was the first time I had ever seen a strange woman uncorseted. She wore a flowing robe and there was a sort of black metal band around her neck. I was about five months removed from the north end of a south bound plow, yet we discussed free love and she smoked one of my cigarettes and I went back to my city editor, feeling downright full of the Old Harry.

A Survey on Installment Buying.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16.—No little worry is being caused business men all over the country on the score of installment buying. Economists of repute have predicted that the orgy of installment buying which has been going on since the war is piling up a debt which will bring down on the heads of producers and merchants the worst period of depression the country ever has known.

Although installment buying is very old so far as real estate is concerned it is only in recent years that it has been widely extended. About fifty years ago piano houses began selling on installments; then the sewing machine companies took it up and next the furniture stores. But it has been only since the war that department stores, specialty stores, and every conceivable kind of a store have gone into the game of selling on the installment plan on a large scale.

The students of the situation and the merchants of the country are divided on the wisdom of the plan. Some hold that the system encourages people to live far beyond their incomes or even potential worth while others contend that it teaches thrift and compels the public to save to meet coming payments. One interesting lesson which can be gleaned from the development of this system is that it shows the American people are fundamentally honest. If merchants did not recognize this and believe in it they would not permit valuable goods to go out of their possession on the small cash payments required.

This is especially notable in the case of jewelry. Diamonds of great value and susceptible of easy concealment are now being sold on the installment plan. Diamonds always have a cash market and the opportunities for fraud are unlimited, yet the jewelry stores find that losses are very rare. When the purchaser agrees to pay he either keeps that agreement and pays or returns the stone.

Teaches Saving.

The American people are buying on the installment plan at the rate of five billions a year. This means that they are in debt to that extent. Hundreds of thousands of homes are occupied today by ostensible owners, but investigation shows that, first, the house itself and then the furniture, musical instruments, even kitchen utensils, and all manner of household furniture are really the property of others because the installments have not been completed.

One of the strongest fact arguments in support of the plan is that the figures show that savings deposits have increased coincidently with the growth of installment buying. Savings deposits increased from $14,000,000,000 to $23,000,000,000 from 1920 to 1925, the last year for which accurate figures are available. Presumably the same general class of people are depositing these savings as those taking advantage of the installment buying plan.

There is no criticism of installment buying of materials or tools or machinery intended to be used in production. It is recognized by economists that such purchases pay for themselves by their use and are much better in use, although not paid for, than wholly idle. The criticism is directed chiefly at the vastly increased purchase of luxuries on the installment plan. People buy things far beyond their means because the down payment looks small and the subsequent payments easy to handle.

One of the greatest advances in installment buying has been in the automobile field. Not long ago a survey was made in the state of Oregon to determine the extent of installment buying. It showed that 54 per cent of automobile owners were driving cars which they were purchasing on the installment plan. Forty-six per cent were buying furniture on time; pianos, 34 per cent; phonographs, 23 per cent; washing machines, 22 per cent; stoves, 22 per cent; vacuum cleaners, 16 per cent; clothing, 13 per cent; books, 13 per cent; sewing machines, 10 per cent, and so on down through a long list of articles.

There are two general methods of selling on the installment plan. The first provides that the buyer give a chattel mortgage to the seller. In such a case the title to the article passes to the buyer and there can be no recovery excepting on foreclosure. The second system retains title in the seller until the last installment is paid. The buyer is merely the lessee of the article during the period of payments and is not free to sell it or dispose of it in any way. At any time the seller can demand the article back in lieu of defaulted payments.

Reasons for and Against.

In the Oregon survey a questionnaire was employed which asked eight questions as to why the installment plan was desirable. In the order of their importance in the eyes of the persons answering, the reasons are stated as follows: Makes paying easier; encourages thrift by saving to meet payments; can enjoy use of product while paying; more convenient; permits the employment of more people to meet the demand for goods; greater luxury can be enjoyed; helps to keep up appearances; satisfies the family.

Notations on the questionnaires referred to the boon installment buying is to the man temporarily out of a job.

On the other hand, eight questions were asked in respect of reasons for disapproving the plan. In order the answers were as follows: Encourages running into debt; leads to extravagance; default on installments means loss of article and sacrifice of pay-

NEW STATION IS COMPLETED

Weirton Junction Depot Will be Opened for Business June 25.

New Weirton Junction passenger station located a half mile south of the Holliday's Cove undergrade will be opened for business on June 25, according to an announcement made today by Pennsylvania Railroad company officials.

The station, a part of the $1,000,000 improvement and construction program of the Pennsylvania system in the greater Weirton district, will serve the public, instead of two stations, one at Wheeling junction and the other at Weirton junction.

The new station was constructed half way or about one mile and a half distance between the two stations. In the construction of the new depot, the railroad company worked on plans for economizing, giving better service to the public and for the best interests for themselves and the public in general.

Passengers will use the depot, which will also be the express and mail point for the district. With the opening of the new depot the elimination of the Wheeling Junction and the old Weirton Junction station will be consumated.

Workmen are now completing the automatic block and signal system which will also be put in operation soon. The new station although small in structure, is up to date and modern and has been completed. On either side of the depot for a distance of 100 feet a platform of brick has been constructed.

Plans of the company are understood to be for the erection of another station in the immediate vicinity of the new station, in the future that will eventually be used as the Weirton Junction station instead of the present structure, which is rather small. The new depot, so it was learned today, will be much larger and of brick structure. Plans for the new depot have been completed.

CAPITOL PROGRAM IS FORMULATED

Extraordinary session of the state legislature adjourned early today after both senate and house passed a resolution creating a committee of seven from each house and devising a revnue program to provide for building the new capitol.

The plan was embodied in the report of a special joint committee of the two houses which brought it back after a conference with Governor Gore.

The resolution was adopted by the senate by a vote of 21 to 5 and the house adopted it without formality of a roll call and with only one voice heard in opposition.

The senate passed the bill by a 17 to 9 vote, after its sponsors had triumphed over a lack of enough votes to expedite its passage by the expendient of substituting its material for another bill, further advanced on its legislative course.

The house passed the bill by a vote of 37 to 12 after voting 42 to 6 to expedite action by suspending the rule which would have prevented a vote tonight.

The resolution creating the legislative committee provided that the presiding officers of both houses be members.

Speaker Johnson appointed as the other house members delegates Downs, Dean, Peters, Arnold, Weiss and Keatley and President White named as the other members from the upper branch Senators Devore, Helmick, Highland, Hallanan, Abbott and Henshaw.

'THE CLIMBERS' AT AMERICAN

Miss Irene Rich Stars in Thrilling Melodrama.

"The Climbers," now at the American theatre, is one of the very best vehicles given Miss Irene Rich for the display of her nerve and charm as well as her skill as equestrienne and markswoman. The scenes are laid in Old Spain at the Court of Ferdinand VII who ruled in the early part of the nineteenth century, and in that part of America then known as New Spain. The story has to do with the fate of the Duchess or Arrogan, separated from her young daughter, and banished from Spain, through the machinations of a heartless climber, the Countess Veya.

In America the duchess, embittered against the world, grows harsh and domineering and gains great wealth and the hatred of the peons whom she persecutes. The man Cordova, also exiled from Spain becomes a bandit leader, and coming to the Duchess' hacenda, with the intention of taking her gold, decides he prefers to steal her heart. He leaves the leadership of his band, is wounded in protecting the beautiful Duchess, protects her daughter from the outlaws and at last brings the girl, who has wandered from Spain in the vain hope of finding her mother, to her mother's side.

"The Climbers" is good, honest melodrama, thrilling and glamorous, and filled with fair romance! It should not be missed.

Miss Anna Simbalia of West Fifth street, is spending her vacation with friends in Conneaut. While there she will attend the banquet and dance given by St. Mary's alumni.

HARD WATER + MEL'O = SOFT WATER

THE dishes weren't awfully greasy. Just ordinary dishes. She used plenty of mild soap. Of course her hands were in the water three times a day. But that scum which always forms when you put soap in hard water kept those hands, once white and smooth, all red and rough.

Melo softens hard water. It prevents that scum from forming. That scum is the result of soap combining with the hardness in hard water. But scum never forms in soft water. Melo makes hard water as soft as rain water.

A teaspoonful of Melo in the dishpan and no red hands.

Two tablespoonfuls of Melo in the bath prevents the ring from forming around the tub. Two tablespoonfuls in the washtubs saves ⅓ to ½ the amount of soap and makes the clothes easier to wash. A pinch of Melo in the wash-basin gives you completely soft water for your hands and face.

Keep a can of Melo in the kitchen, in the laundry, in the bathroom. Get it at your grocer's.

The water in East Liverpool is 9 times as hard as it should be. Two tablespoonfuls of Melo will soften a bathtub full of water. Two tablespoonfuls in the washtubs. One teaspoonful in the dishpan.

PARLEY MAY BE HELD HERE ON NEXT MONDAY

Steps Taken to Avoid Fight in Courts.

Plans looking toward an adjustment of financial differences between the city of Wellsville and A. W. Hineman, of Williamsport, Pa., contractor who constructed the largest part of the municipality's gravity water system, may be launched here next Monday, it was indicated today.

In a communication received by city officials this morning Contractor Hineman announced he would be willing to confer with authorities on the matter Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the office of the city auditor.

The communication will be turned over to Solicitor S. C. Luccock, and in the event that the law director approves, immediate steps will be taken for the conference.

In a letter read at the last meeting of council, Hineman broached the subject of settlement. Asserting that in his opinion, it would profit neither himself nor the city to take the controversy into the courts, he declared he was willing to consider plans for adjustment.

N. E. WALKER WEDS MARIE DONALDSON

A prettily appointed wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donaldson, 1031 Main street, yesterday at noon, when their daughter, Marie E. Donaldson, was married to Norman E. Walker, of Canton. The ring ceremony was used by Rev. Thomas Berger, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Mary McCormick, of Salineville; the bridegroom by Charles Donaldson, Jr., brother of the bride.

The bride wore peach colored georgette and carried a corsage of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was attired in yellow flowered taffeta and carried yellow roses.

The home was attractively decorated, a pink and white color scheme being used.

Guests included Mrs. Thomas Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Michaels, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Madison and daughter, Marilyn, of Wellsville; Mrs. Effie Donaldson, of Louisville; Attorney and Mrs. S. E. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb and son, Robert, Miss Ida Madison, Bert, Fred and John Madison.

A wedding dinner was served by Mrs. Donaldson, assisted by Violet Bender.

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—Requisition papers authorizing transfer of Ray and Roy D'Autremont, brothers under indictment for murder in Oregon, to Oregon officers here for transfer, will be signed today, according to S. P. Dunkle, executive secretary to Governor Vic Donahey.

B. L. E. MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Plans are being prepared for the memorial services to be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Knights of Pythias lodgerooms, Fifth and Main streets, under auspices of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Ladies' Auxiliary to Division 76.

Officers of the organization announce the exercises will be open to the public.

FACES GAME LAW CHARGE

Local Man to Get Hearing in Lisbon Court.

Charged with capturing fur bearing animals out of season, J. B. Ketchum, of Wellsville, will face a hearing tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock before Justice M. K. Zimerman, in Lisbon.

Ketchum was arrested yesterday by L. W. Boring, Columbiana county game warden. He is charged with having captured five raccoons, a mother and four young ones.

On preliminary arraignment, he pleaded not guilty. Unable to furnish bond of $300 he was remanded to jail pending the hearing.

125 ATTEND K. OF P. MEMORIAL MEET

Approximately 125 Knights of Pythias and friends attended the memorial services held recently by the order in their Fifth and Main street lodgsrooms.

Attorney Charles Boyd was among the principal speakers. A musical program also was given in connection with the ritualistic work.

The start of the twin brothers on the long journey to face four-year-old indictments growing out of the dynamiting and robbery of a Southern Pacific passenger train, in which four men were killed, will probably be delayed until early tomorrow, while Oregon officers and postoffice inspectors today visited Steubenville, where the two brothers were arrested after a four-year search.

A GOVERNOR "CLEANS HOUSE"

Governor Fred B. Balzar of Nevada, who took office the first of the year, swore warrants several weeks ago for the arrest of George Cole, top right, retiring state controller; Ed Malley, lower right, state treasurer, and H. Now Clapp has pleaded guilty and has been sentenced to the penitentiary for from five to fifteen years.

CROWD GREETS WEST'S SHOWS

West's World's Wonder shows opened their East Liverpool engagement at Patterson Field last evening with a capacity crowd swarming the midway. The show is for the benefit of the police and firemen's pension fund.

Although the carnival did not arrive here until Tuesday midnight, everything was in readiness for the opening at 7 o'clock last night. Ten riding devices, 15 shows and dozens of "fun booths" are presented by the company on its ninth annual tour.

The rides include the merry-go-round, Hey Day, ferris wheel, whip, caterpillar and chairswings and also a miniature merry-go-round and chairswings for the youngsters.

Animals from the four corners of the world are to be seen in the Wild Animal show. Other attractions include Baby Ivan, three and one-half years of age and weighing approximately 125 pounds; Lady Fanchon, the horse with the human mind; monkey speedway, wrestling show, water circus, minstrel show, midgets, "Law and Outlaw," a group of wax figures, a fat girl, Ten in One, laughland and others.

A children's matinee will be held Saturday afternoon at which a five-cent admission to all shows and rides will be charged. The show will open every evening at 6:30 o'clock. A concert by Captain Jack Holt's Gold Medal band will be given at the show grounds prior to the opening of the evening perfomance.

MRS. MARY WARD D. A. R. HOSTESS

Flag Day Observed by Bethia Southwick Chapter.

Mrs. Mary Ward was hostess to members of Bethia Southwick chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, on Tuesday evening at her home in Riverside avenue, the affair taking the form of a flag day observance.

An appropriate program was carried out by the chapter following the business meeting, which was directed by Mrs. W. F. Lones, chapter regent. The opening exercises included the salute to the flag and singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," with Carrie Southwick as accompanist.

Committee chairman for the coming year were announced as follows:

Better films, Mrs. George Moore; conservative and thrift, Miss Carrie Southwick; D. A. R. magazine, Mrs. Mary Hanley; Ellis Island, Mrs. Mary Ward; historical and literary reciprocity, Miss Lucy Ward; patriotic education, Mrs. William Wilson; preservation of historical spots and Revolutionary soldiers' graves, Mrs. F. F. Davis; Americaization, Mrs. William Smith; international relations, Mrs. E. F. Swift; flowers, Miss Ward.

Application for memberships in the chapter, 14 in all, from East Liverpool, Chester, Newell and Lisbon were received.

Arrangements were made for a luncheon this evening at Maple Villa at which Mrs. Herbert Backus, of Columbus, state regent, Miss Mary Stone, Cambridge, director for the southeast district and Mrs. Campbell, Toronto chapter regent, will be special guests.

Mrs. George Moore, secretary, gave an interesting resume of the year's work, pointing out, as a sidelight, that "13" was the chapter's "lucky number."

Launching the program in connection with the business meeting, members responded to roll call with flag quotations.

Mrs. Wilson read a paper on "Our Flag." Acting as her own accompanist, Miss Marjorie Fickes rendered two whistling solos and vocal selections.

Talks were given by Mrs. W. F. Campbell, regent, and Mrs. Mabel Stone, regent-elect of the Toronto chapter.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Lucy Ward, and Mrs. John Potts and Mrs. George Morris.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. William Moller and daughter, Ruth; Misses Mildred and Elizabeth Southwick, of Youngstown; Mrs. W. F. Campbell, Mrs. Hannah Casey, Mrs. Clark Francy and son, Robert, of Toronto; Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Margaret Grounds of Empire; Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, of Newell; Mrs. Morris, of Chester; Mrs. Isaac Fleming, Mrs. Potts and Mrs. Sara Thomas of East Liverpool.

SHERIFF TO ACT IN ADENA TROUBLE

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—There will be no state interference at Adena Ohio, it was announced here today at the governor's office, after Sheriff Allison of Jefferson county wired the governor that he was able to cope with teh situation in the little mining town.

The governor's office last night communicated with Sheriff Allison upon receipts of a telegram from Mayor F. H. Gibson. It read:

"Maintenance of order now becomes impossible. The village council and sheriff join in requesting your help. The village council has passed resolutions asking your help."

Following receipt of the telegram the governor's office informed Sheriff Allison of the request for aid and deputized him to appoint sufficient deputies to maintain order and to report to the governor.

"A daily gathering of about 300 striking miners in Adena has been the only demonstration since the strike started," Sheriff Allison replied. "On one occasion eggs were thrown at a mine superintendent. An imported strike breaker from Pittsburgh has been driving through the streets of Adena, defying strikers. Other than that no trouble has occurred."

SALINEVILLE

The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held a surprise miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Robert Paisley, formerly Miss Pauline James, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William James, West Main street, Monday evening. About 24 members of the society were present. Mrs. Bess Ashbaugh was in charge of the entertainment. After a social hour, lunch was served by the society. Mrs. Paisley was surprised again Tuesday by her club.

Attorney and Mrs. S. E. McCormick, and daughter, Miss Mary, and son, James, Miss Ida Madison and brother, Fred, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb, attended the marriage of Miss Marie Donaldson, of Wellsville, to Norman Walker, also of Wellsville, Wednesday. Miss Donaldson is a niece of Mrs. McCormick and Miss Ida Madison. She was married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donaldson, Main street, Wellsville.

The Salineville Male Quartet, composed of the Maple Brothers, Frank Schubert and William Hanley, rendered several selections at the meeting of the grange at Knoxville Tuesday evening. Martha Carman, of Salineville also sang.

Paul Johnson is reported ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Lincoln avenue.

The Gideon Bible class of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday evening at the home of William Heatherington. Prayer was led by Rev. W. S. Martin. Vice President O. M. Ashbaugh had charge of the services. It was decided to postpone the festival until July. The treasurer reported that $60 was cleared on the musical, and that $50 is needed to pay off the note in July, which will complete the class pledge on the pipe organ. The July meeting will be at the home of David Wilkie, on Maple Hill. Mrs. Heatherington served lunch, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Knox.

Time creates the matchless, mellow Flavor ....

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale

YOU find it—this aged, mellow softness—only in Clicquot Club Ginger Ale, and it is there because skill joins hands with Time in the making of this delightful beverage, creating the bouquet and aroma of a veritable vintage.

And what accounts for this haunting charm of flavor? The rare quality of pure, natural spring water that flows from its natural source to a modern, sunlit plant. The choiceness of the flavoring and sweetening ingredients, whose quality is higher than the highest government standards. And—most important of all—this careful process of aging.

With Clicquot Club, as with old wines, this aging releases hidden tones in the flavorings and permits their perfect blending into an exquisite bouquet. One sip, of either the full-flavored Golden or the delicate Pale Dry, reveals the difference that gives Clicquot Club its distinctiveness—that rich flavor no other ginger ale can match.

That is why the offering of Clicquot Club is a compliment to any guest; why its use with other beverages produces such satisfying results. To have it in your home; to order it at your club, hotel or restaurant; to insist on Clicquot Club everywhere, is to show appreciation of those rare qualities which always have made "vintage" wines famous.

MILLS CONTINUES FIGHT TO FREE PAT McDERMOTT

CANTON LAWYER MEETS ALLEGED SLAYER IN PEN

Private Interview Culminates Court Battle With Warden.

RUDNER WAVES

Another Move Looms in Mellett Murder Inquiry.

COLUMBUS, O., June 16.—E. L. Mills, Canton attorney, today was planning to continue his legal battle to free Patrick Eugene McDermott from the Ohio penitentiary, after holding his long delayed private interview with the alleged slayer of Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher.

The private interview culminated a legal battle which had been waged between Mills and Warden P. E. Thomas of the penitentiary since the red-headed trigger man was sentenced to life imprisonment on Christmas eve.

Thomas had refused to allow Mills to interview his client privately, when the attorney asked for the privilege while defending Ben Rudner, another alleged conspirator also serving a life term for the Mellett murder.

Declares McDermott Innocent.

Arrived at the penitentiary late Wednesday, Mills refused to talk to McDermott through a small window, when penitentiary officials then allowed the prisoner and his attorney to meet on a bench in the court yard. Mills and his client talked for more than an hour, after which Mills again declared the innocense of McDermott.

Mills' wife was refused permission to see David Atkins, negro, convicted in Stark county for the murder of a railroad detective, he reported after the McDermott interview. Mrs. Mills, it was said, wished to see Atkins to tell him of his mother's funeral. Penitentiary guards, Mills said, told her she would "hace to write the message."

While Mills spoke with McDermott, Rudner passed at the other side of the yard, and the two waved at each other. Streitenberger also passed, but the former detective did not look toward the couple. He had nothing to say since being sentenced for his part in the Mellett murder conspiracy, McDermott told Mills.

gracefully toward the field, with Lindbergh at the controls and followed by three other airships. "Lindy" was in the lead of the formation, followed by Captain Street in his plane and two navy pursuit planes bringing up the rear.

Stages Fancy Formations.

Before he came down, "Lindy," as if jubilant over his stunt, broke out of formation and went into a series of fancy formations. "The Spirit of St. Louis" made a pretty picture as its silver sides glinted in the bright morning sunlight. It looped and dived, sidebanked and turned over on its back with the expert fingers controlling its movements.

Aviators and mechanics on the ground applauded the buoyant spirit reflected in "Lindy's" dizzy gyrations of the ship.

And then suddenly, the famous ship dived for the landing field. Some of the observers started to run toward the plane but it suddenly zoomed up with an increased roar and sailed straight up into the sky.

"Had Grand Time," He Says.

"Lindy" was having a grand time. Away from the roar of the crowds he was enjoying himself.

A few minutes later he came down gracefully to a perfect landing.

But "Lindy" didn't stay down. As his plane came down lightly on its landing wheels, the motors began to roared again and up he rose and soon he was in high altitude and into another series of ecstatic stunts. He turned over lazily as if he was enjoying the sheer luxury of the reunion with "we."

"I sure had a grand time," he exclaimed when he finally came to earth.

Plane Taken to Hangar.

The plane was taken to a hangar at the west end of Roosevelt field, and Lindbergh watched and supervised as it was put away. The hangar doors were locked and a heavy guard placed outside.

Lindbergh said "The Spirit of St. Louis" had functioned perfectly enroute from Washington and does not require overhauling or attention of any kind. It is ready for Lindbergh's take-off tomorrow morning for St. Louis.

The exuberant young flyer was escorted to the quarters of Colonel Benjamin D. Foulois, commanding officer of Mitchel Field, for breakfast.

Lindbergh said he would take a short rest after breakfast before leaving for New York by automobile. He hadn't had any sleep. His friend, Blythe, sought to dissuade him from this and have him go to New York as once as Lindbergh is to be the guest of Brooklyn this morning but the flyer won his point.

Mother on Way to St. Louis.

A double guard was placed outside the quarters of Colonel Foulois as Lindbergh ate breakfast. Meanwhile, a battery of camera men assembled and waited for Lindbergh to reappear.

Blythe said "Lindy" made up his mind suddenly to make the trip as they sat in Roxy's theatre. He had been longing for his plane.

"Say, there's a grand moon up tonight," Lindy remarked. "Let's get out of here and go to the field."

None of the audience knew Lindbergh had slipped away until 3 o'clock when an explanation was made from the stage. A few hisses greeted the announcement, and a round of cheering, too, from those who understood how the boy felt after having been feted to within an inch of his life.

Earlier in the night he had attended a Ziegfeld performance and also went with Mayor James J. Walker to the Polo grounds to see his friend, Ace Hudkins, of Lincoln, Neb., lose a hard-fought battle to Sergeant Sammy Baker of Mitchel Field.

The flyer's mother, Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, is enroute to St. Louis by train in a private car attached to the Pennsylvania railroad's "Spirit of St. Louis." "Lindy" will meet her in St. Louis following the only mode of travel which seems to satisfy him.

All along the route through Brooklyn, "Lindy" was wildly cheered. His car was preceded by 35 motor cycle policemen. At one point along the way, the parade was halted for a moment to allow Donald Hall, of Brooklyn, the designer of "The Spirit of St. Louis," an opportunity to present Lindbergh with an illuminated scroll which Hall had prepared for the occasion.

Brooklyn Greets Hero.

Without even a "cat nap," Lindbergh left his apartment in New York at 10:15 to take part in "Brooklyn day" ceremonies in his honor. He entered an automobile to be taken on a 20-mile tour of Brooklyn's main thoroughfares. Thousands of people lined the streets all along the route of the parade.

Brooklyn was in gala garb for the occasion. Bunting, flags and pictures of Lindbergh were on almost every home and buildings. Huge throngs came from miles around by subway, elevated lines and motor cars to view the procession.

"Lindy" was due at the parade ground adjoining Prospect park, Brooklyn, at 11:30 and long before that hour more than 25,000 persons had assembled. Bands played patriotic airs for the restless crowd awaiting the flyer's arrival at the park.

All along King's highway, one of Brooklyn's main thoroughfares, troops of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts were stationed to maintain order among the thousands of school children who were given a holiday so they could see the flyer.

Elaborate police arrangements had been made, and practically every policeman in Brooklyn was on parade duty. Two thousand policemen were assigned to handle the crowd at Prospect park.

Escorted by motorcycle policemen, Lindbergh with his automobile cavalcade passed over the Manhattan bridge and into Brooklyn at 11 a. m.

Lindbergh Lauds Police Department Of New York City

NEW YORK, June 16.—Between "hops" in airplanes and one ceramony after another, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh found time enough today to thank Police Commissioner Joseph A. Warren for the protection he had received during his stay here.

He told Warren he had "the grandest police department in the world."

A reporter, recalling that Lindbergh had no sleep last night, asked him if he was tired.

"I'll have to see the newspapers and see what they say," he responded with an engaging smile.

TRAFFIC LIGHT INSTALLED ON EIGHTH STREET

Police Warn Speeders Regarding Two-Way Signals.

NO AMBER COLOR

Violators Must Post $25 or go to Jail.

New traffic light on West Eighth street, near the intersection of Lisbon street, will be ready for operation tonight, police announced today.

The light differs from the usual type of automatic traffic signals, inasmuch as it is not equipped with the "caution" or amber lens. While traffic is moving from Wellsville or down the Lisbon hill, vehicles headed westward in the opposite direction will stop. When cars are traveling westward with the green light the red light will show on the opposite side of the signal, halting traffic coming down Lisbon street and also on Eighth street from Wellsville.

Chief McDermott said the installation of the light will halt the practice of the "running start" for the Lisbon street hill. Many accidents, some of a serious nature, have occurred at this point.

Police will be kept on duty at the intersection to see that the traffic signals are obeyed. They will be instructed to collect a $25 deposit from speeders. If bond is not posted, offenders will be taken to jail.

Funeral services for Edward A. Milheim, 15 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Milheim, 1043 Pennsylvania avenue, will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Second United Presbyterian church, East End, in charge of Rev. L. J. Davison, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church. Burial will be made in Riverview cemetery.

Flyer in Washington

his arrival and departure there had been hardly sufficient time to turn over, but in the dramatic interval the blackest night which precedes the dawn had been toned to a dull grey by the rising rim of red on the eastern horizon.

Newspapermen Rush to Field.

He arrived in a drab green army craft which was barely visible in the black skies until it swerved within one hundred feet of the glaring beacon lights of the landing field; and when he took off, the lights meanwhile having been extinguished, the glistening lines of the silvered St. Louis were as quickly lost in the dull sheen of the morning light.

Less than fifty persons were on the field to witness the reunion of the daring lone eagle and his famous craft.

Advised by telephone of "Lindy's" departure from New York, naval officers at Anacostia had barely time to rout snoring sailors from their bunks to provide a ground crew. A dozen taxicabs rushed routed newspapermen and photographers to the scene less than five minutes before the landing.

Lindbergh was accompanied to Washington by army Lieutenant "Billy" Street, who landed at 3:38 a. m., five minutes before the full-dressed pilot wheeled his craft into the field lights. On the return trip, "The Spirit of St. Louis" headed a string of four craft. Commander Homer C. Wick of Anacostia station took off a few seconds after Lindbergh. Lieutenant A. C. Miles followed in a second naval plane, and Street brought up the rear with the army pursuit craft he had flown from Mitchel Field.

Plane in Perfect Condition.

"The Spirit of St. Louis" apparently was in perfect condition, for her master smiled broadly as he approached her roaring motor from the hangar in which he had conversed with the naval officers. Climbing into the pilot-seat, he put both hands to the instrument board, tuned the engine for less than a minute, leaped out to secure final directions from Commander Wick, posed an instant for a flashlight picture, waved a cheery adieu to the small circle of heavy eyed field attendants and newspapermen and was away.

Although he flew from Mitchel Field to Anacostia in almost record time, Lindbergh omitted his wonted stunt flying as he took off in his own plane for the first flight since his triumphal return to America.

Heading into the gentle northwest wind, he taxied the St. Louis less than 150 yards, nosed her upwards at a thrilling angle to an altitude of about 1,200 feet and then away in a northeasterly course for New York. Two minutes later he and his escorts were lost in the shimmering harbingers of day on the eastern horizon and the disturbed field settled into the even tenor of its uneventful ways.

MOTORIST FINED, LOSES LICENSE

Heber Thompson, of East Liverpool, was fined $50 and costs, given a 10-day jail sentence, which was suspended, and his automobile license revoked for three months when he faced Justice M. K. Zimerman, at Lisbon, today upon a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. He paid his fine and was released.

Thompson was arrested by Sheriff Wright while driving along the Lincoln highway, Tuesday night.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKETS

NEW YORK, June 16.—Active stocks in all departments of the market advanced in good form at the beginning of trading today as the result of the influx of a good volume of buying orders from important speculative centers. The advance was halted in the second hour, however, when profit taking forced heavy selling in the principal industrial and railroad shares.

The influx of actual and prospective higher dividends for the important railroad companies was plainly seen in the larger demand for the investment rails. Rock Island's advance to above 114 was based on the expectation of an increase in the annual divident rate of 7 per cent before the end of the year. Indorsement of the Van Sweringen consolidation plan by the Richmond minority which had successfully opposed the first proposals was considered a salutary victory for the Cleveland railroad leaders, and Nickel Plate stock rose a few points on the resultant buying.

General Motors corporation reported its retail sales of May at 171,364 units, a 21 per cent increase over the same month last year. Reports from two other automobile manufacturers also showed a gain in production and sales as compared with last year. The money market was unchanged, with the first call loan renewal at 4¼ per cent. Dow Jones reported the average price of iron and steel products at the lowest level since May.

Specialty stocks displayed a heavy tone in the second hour, Pittsburgh Coal decline to 50, off 4 points from Wednesday's close. International Nickel, Texas Land Trust and other well known shares lost practically all of their early gains. Prime industrials were firm but inactive. Commodity markets were slightly reactionary, with cotton down 10 points, coffee down 10 and wheat down about half a cent.

NATION'S CHIEF FACES SOUTH DAKOTA CAMERA

AT GAME LODGE

Contemplates Wonderful Scenery and Buffalo Steak.

By George E. Durno.

STATE GAME LODGE, South Dakota, June 16.—Welcomed to the Black Hills by the cowboys he was told to expect, President Coolidge this morning planned to divide his first day in this rugged summer White House between contemplation of the wonderful surrounding scenery, a buffalo steak, and the lenses of a large battery of movie and still cameras.

Arising about 6 o'clock, the scenery came first. Next came the photographers. His engagement with them was the first official appointment of the summer season. Arrival at the game lodge last night was so late Mr. Coolidge was forced to explain to the camera men he believed the light to be too bad for satisfactory pictures and compromised with today's set appointment.

The buffalo steak will come later—a delectable 10-pound sirloin presented him at Pierre by Hugh Jaynes, who once did likewise to Theodore Roosevelt. In addition, the game lodge table will be graced with seven Chinese pheasants, also Jaynes' gift. Chinese pheasants are out of season, but they were destined for the president and the game warden knew about it.

"Hold-up" Staged.

During the course of the afternoon Mr. Coolidge is expected to motor the 32 miles to Rapid City and inspect the temporary executive offices established there in the high school building. Rapid City is official headquarters, and there are quartered all of the office staff and newspapermen and photographers.

The town has outdone itself to welcome these visitors.

Last night's arrival was staged to impress the chief executive that he was actually in the west. Following an enthusiastic reception at Rapid City, the party motored over the hills to Hermosa and were there met by 140 cowboys, all sporting colorful attire of the plains. A "hold-up" reminiscent of the Deadwood stage coach days— minus, however, the use of gunpowder—was staged. Colonel E. W. Starling, advance secret service man, had warned about the fire arms. The cow punchers gave the president the "y-i-i-p-p-e-e," and a few hearty hurrahs, cricled in on the autos and escorted them to the lodge.

Three Auto Drivers Arrested; One Fined, Another Dismissed

Thomas Reed, Wellsville, was fined $1 and costs by Municipal Judge J. C. Hanley today after he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of fast and reckless driving. He was arrested on Dresden avenue at 10 o'clock today by Patrolman James Haley.

Charge of reckless driving filed against Glessner Hendricks, who was arrested on West Eighth street by Patrolman Curran at 9:50 o'clock last night, when four persons were riding in the front seat of an automobile, was dismissed by Judge Hanley. A like charge has been filed against Earl Haney, who was also arrested on West Eighth street by Patrolman Officer Skenkel at 10 o'clock last night.

MASONIC DEGREE WORK TOMORROW

Class of five candidates will receive the master degree at a special communication of East Liverpool lodge, No. 681, F. & A. M., to be held at the Masonic temple tomorrow.

The lodge meeting will open at 4 p. m., followed by dinner at 6 o'clock. The evening session will start promptly at 7 o'clock. The work will be in charge of L. A. Wallover, worshipful master of the lodge.

30 Army Airplanes Will Join "Lindy" Escort at Dayton

DAYTON, O., June 16.—Twenty-seven army airplanes, of a total of 30, which will escort Col. Charles A. Lindbergh from Dayton to St. Louis Friday, were due to arrive at Wright Field here today.

The escort will pick up the famous flyer when he passes Dayton, but he is not expected to stop here, enroute from New York to St. Louis in his "Spirit of St. Louis" plane. Twenty-one pursuit planes from Selfridge Field, near Detroit, six observation planes from Mitchel Field, each carrying a newspaperman as passenger, and three transports from Wright Field, comprise the escort.

Lieutenant Jimmy Doolittle, flying one of the transports, will pilot Brig. Gen. William E. Gilmore, and the other two transports iwll carry a committee of Dayton citizens. The committee will extend an invitation to Col. Lindbergh to visit Dayton, the "birthplace of aviation," later when he goes to Detroit.

KIWANIS HEARS MEMPHIS STORY

Gruber and Heddleston Make Convention Reports.

Reports of the eleventh annual convention of Kiwanis International held at Memphis, Tenn., last week, were made by Secretary Carl E. Gruber and R. C. Heddleston, international trustee, at today's meeting of the local club in Larkins' Annex, Market street.

Gruber declared the Memphis meeting to have been one of the best ever held in the history of the organization. Approximately 4,500 visitors, 1,850 of them delegates, attended the four-day session. He touched upon practically every phase of the convention, completing his talk with a report on the election of officers.

Heddleston, who was re-elected international trustee for a term of two years, declared that the East Liverpool club stood high, not only in the Ohio district but also in the international organization.

W. A. Hobbs presided. Prof. H. F. Laughlin led the chorus singing with Claire Chambers as the accompanist.

Chamberlin, Levine Fly to Bremen to Meet Their Wives

FRANKFORT-ON-MAIN, June 16.—After a series of record-breaking demonstrations and ovations in South Germany, Clarence D. Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine, the two American trans-Atlantic flyers, depart for the north today. They planned to fly to Bremen with a brief stop-over at Hanover. At Bremen they will meet their wives, who are due to land from the German liner Berlin on Friday morning. It will be the first greeting between the airmen and their wives since the trans-ocean flight began at Roosevelt flying field, just outside of New York City nearly two weeks ago.

Chamberlin and Levine with Mrs. Chamberlin and Mrs. Levine will fly to Berlin by way of Magdeburg. According to present plans the flyers will hop off from Berlin in the Columbia on Saturday for Munich, arriving in Vienna on Sunday.

GREAT WELCOME AWAITS "SLIM" IN ST. LOUIS

Home Town Prepares Tumultuous Reception for Lindbergh.

Trans-Atlantic Jumper Returns to Missouri Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The possibility that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh might hop off for St. Louis tonight instead of tomorrow, as planned, was seen in the action of the reception committee in changing the time of the Raymond Orteig breakfast at which "Lindy" will receive the $25,000 Orteig prize for the New York to Paris hop. The function, originally scheduled for tomorrow morning, has been changed to a 6 o'clock tea this evening. The only official responsibility Lindbergh has left after that is a dinner to be given him at 7 p. m. by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—Back to the city which gave him his plane and bade him "Godspeed," "Slim" Lindbergh will come tomorrow. No St. Louisian ever received a welcome home as that which awaits "Slim." No youth who had left the home town ambitious for fame and glory ever returned to find himself so idolized.

He was just "Lucky" Lindbergh, a likeable, but obscure air mail pilot, not so long ago. Tomorrow, when the comes home, this city will use every factory whistle, siren and bell at its command in one great tumultuous effort to tell him he is the greatest man on earth.

The arrangements for the occasion, as they stand today, are the most elaborate the city has ever made for a celebration of any sort. They were started the day he landed at Le Bourget and have been the most important business of the day ever since.

Six public functions will constitute the city of St. Louis' welcome to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. The ceremony of greeting him on his arrival at Lambert field here at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will be short. Mayor Victor Miller, Governor Sam A. Baker and a few members of the reception committee will meet the "lone eagle" as he climbs from the cockpit of "The Spirit of St. Louis" and take him to the home of Harry H. Knight, one of his principal backers. Before landing, however, Lindbergh will circle the city so that all may see his plane.

Two Major Days.

Saturday and Sunday are to be the major days of celebration. The parade in his honor Saturday morning will give every enthusiastic St. Louisan his opportunity to see the honored fellow citizen and to shout his praise. That afternoon Lindbergh will attend and participate in the flag-raising ceremonies of the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals at Sportsman's park.

Saturday night there is to be a formal dinner at the Hotel Chase, when the flier will be presented a scroll expressing the city's appreciation of his achievement.

WASHINGTON STEWART'S LETTER

IF YOU HAVEN'T BEEN READING FOREIGN NEWS HERE'S SUMMARY

By Charles P. Stewart.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Now that Col. Lindbergh's moved on, with his mammoth attraction, let's take a hasty glance around at some of the little matters which have been awaiting attention in Washington until the government had time to give them the once over.

Up to date they've scarcely been mentioned.

The reports and dispatches and correspondence concerning them have simply been dumped on departmental desks and stayed there, mostly unopened, while officialdom was greeting Lindy.

Except as to Lindy, the capital honestly hasn't the slightest idea what's been going on of late.

It will be interesting to see what can happen, and nobody know it.

TO begin with, Russia's in a terrible ferment, due to the cold-blooded assassination of one of its emissaries in Warsaw, right on top of a police raid on its diplomatic headquarters in London, following the local authorities' flagrant violation of the sanctity of its embassy in Peking, plus a healthy suspicion in Moscow that all the rest of the world's out to "get" the Soviet government.

England and Russia, in fact, have severed relations.

Dispatches (hitherto unread) say a conflict's threatened that may involve the whole of northern Europe.

ITALY and Jugoslavia are on the ragged edge of war over Albania.

It may sound like a small affair, but it's one of those Balkan difficulties which, when started, spread like smallpox. The World war illustrated how they do it.

Dispatches (hithero unread) say it threatens a conflict which may involve the whole of southern Europe.

CHANG TSO-LIN'S forces, bunched in and around Peking, with the rebels closing in on 'em, appear to be on the verge of a fight that will make the rookus a few weeks ago, at Shanghai and up the Yangtse, look like small potatoes.

Some folks predict it will be as bad for foreigners as the Boxer uprising.

Every effort's being made to drag the United States into it with the other "powers"—a mere matten of ten or a dozen years' fighting and police work, a million or so of troops and a few billions' expenditure.

PREMIER POINCARE has come out flat-footed with the announcement that France can't stand for the last American war debt settlement, but will have to have a good deal better terms before beginning to pay anything.

OTHERWISE—except that the Missippi and the Missouri have overflowed in some new places and tha United States has managed to get into a mean little immigration dispute with Canada, which doesn't exactly strain relations, but certainly doesn't make 'em any pleasanter—nothing much has happened under cover of the Lindy excitement.

Haskin's Letter

ments already made; cost of article is greater; always bothered with small bills; payments last longer than the article purchased; not fair to those who pay cash; lower quality goods sold on installments.

Notations on the questionnaires included such comments as "the worst thing which has happened to the working class;" that it "should be prohibited by law;" that it "sets up false standards of living;" and that "most people use their money to meet installments on luxuries purchased under the plan and make the grocer and coal dealer and other purveyors of necessities wait for their money."

The whole thing is probably the biggest experiment the American people ever have undertaken. The whole nation is in debt. The national debt of the government is not nearly so great a problem as this vast personal debt of the people as individuals. Proponents of the system declare that the plan makes for prosperity. The demand for goods, made possible by the installment plan of selling, creates a greater demand for labor. Hundreds of thousands more men are employed at good wages and the putting of this money into the market is an industrial and general business stimulant which makes good times. The big question which everybody concerned is asking is, How long will it last? Will there ever have to be a day of reckoning when all debts will be cleaned up? Will the plan continue? It is like a spinning top; so long as it keeps spinning it stands upright, but when its momentum stops it falls over?

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands who have piles don't know that quick and permanent relief can be accomplished with internal medicine. Cutting or any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will not remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is stagnation of blood circulation in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt found the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. Dr. Leonhardt tried it in many, many cases with a marvelous record of success, such a wonderful record that HEM-ROID is now sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEM-ROID from Mathews Original Cut Rate, today. It has given quick and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you.

MEDICAL MEN HOLD SESSION

Principal Address Made by Dr. E. P. McNamee of Cleveland.

Declaring that preventive measures are more essential than curative methods, members of the Columbiana County Medical society, meeting in Salem, passed a resolution to take steps to advertise to the public the importance of the prevention of certain diseases, and to conduct all public clinics for diagnostic purposes under the direction of the medical society.

The meeting was held at the Memorial building, the program including a talk on the value of X-ray examinations in gall bladder condition, by Dr. E. P. McNamee of Cleveland. This instructive discussion was illustrated by lantern slides.

The resolution adopted by the medical society follows:

"That the logical adviser in matters of health is, and should be, the family physician.

"That it is not only the right but the duty of all physicians to inform their patients that curative methods, while necessary, are not the most essential to the public in general; that typhoid fever, small pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough, etc., are preventable and no community should stop short of a most rigid understanding that a disease which is preventable should not be allowed to exist, and that special emphasis shall be placed on preventive measures rather than curative.

"That the control of communicable diseases by stopping their spread at their source shall be the goal of every practicing physician.

"That on and after Sept. 1, 1927, all physicians in the Columbiana County Medical society shall display in a conspicuous place in their offices, cards announcing to the public the importance of the prevention of certain diseases, namely, typhoid fever, small pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping cough, etc., by the latest and approved methods of conferring such immunity, and such cards shall be supplied by the health department.

"That all public clinics for diagnostic purposes shall be sponsored by the Columbiana County Medfcal society.

"That all treatment and work of immunization formerly done by the health department for demonstration and educational purposes shall in the future be done by the family physician at the request of the parents or guardian, and the health department shall do such work only when requested by the physicians of the community or upon demand of the board of education."

There is just one right way to keep the skin clear and smooth

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils and other skin eruptions as being an indication of an abnormal condition of the system. This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. It helps Nature build up red corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished.

"I suffered from impure blood—was weak, and I had lost so much weight, I didn't look natural. I had pimples and was also bothered with a breaking-out that itched terribly. I also had boils one after another. I tried different kinds of remedies, but nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to take S.S.S. which I did. This was some time ago. Now I feel well, and I am getting along fine. S.S.S. stopped the itching and it cured me of boils. I advise all weak and run-down people to give S.S.S. a trial. It clears up the skin and makes you strong and fills you with energy." Mrs. J. W. Barker, 1337 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

S.S.S. is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory. It is time-tried and reliable.

FIVE MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

A marriage license has been issued by Judge Lodge Riddle to Charles F. Stull and Miss Harriet Jackson Podewels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Podewels of East Liverpool. They are to be married by the Rev. F. E. Dean at East Liverpool.

William Hardy of Homeworth and Dorothy Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. High S. Martin of Moultrie have been granted a marriage license. They were married at Lisbon by Justice M. K. Zimerman.

Alexander Sommerville, residing at Garfield, formerly at Washingtonville, a stationary engineer and Doris Scattergood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Scattergood, of Salem, R. F. D. have obtained a marriage license. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Cope.

Harry C. Ramsey and Mildred Ethel Conn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ethel Conn, both residing at East Liverpool, secured a marriage license. They were married at the parsonage of the Lisbon United Presbyterian church by the Rev. J. M. Cameron.

William Kring of Salem and Arvilla Dicken of Washingtonville, but formerly residing at Bedford, Pa., were granted a license. They are to be married at Salem by the Rev. Beale.

LARKINS GIVEN WORKHOUSE TERM

When given a hearing before Judge Lodge Riddle Wednesday afternoon, Wade Larkins of East Liverpool, upon his plea of guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was sentenced to 30 days in the Canton workhouse. In addition his committment will continue until the costs are also paid. The girl was committed to the Industrial school at Delaware.

John Davis, of East Liverpool, who also entered a plea of guilty in the same court to contributing to the delinquency of a minor, was fined $75 and costs, and committed to the county jail until the fine and costs are paid.

VERDICT GIVEN IN DAMAGE CASE

A verdict for the defendants was returned by a jury composed of nine women and three men in common pleas court No. 2 late Wednesday afternoon in the case of John Senserbacher against Irwin Rupert and Harry Rupert. The plaintiff sued the defendants for $5,000 damages Sept. 3, 1926, and the case went to trial Monday morning.

In this case it developed that Sensenbacher went to the Rupert farm in Fairfield township, and a quarrel followed with the Rupert brothers. Senenbacher had his eyes blackened, but he suffered no other physical damage, it was testified. Costs in the case have been put against the plaintiff.

Action Filed.

According to a petition and action in attachment filed in common pleas court by Alicia Hoban, by her counsel Cochran and Crawford and P. V. Mackall of East Liverpool, the claim is set up that William Campbell is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $498.

Patterson Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Patterson family will be held at Willow Grove park, north of the Canton bridge, Lisbon, next Saturday afternoon. During the afternoon a history of the family in this county is expected to be read, as it is one of the pioneer families in this part of Ohio. All relatives have been asked to attend this event.

Sebring

Funeral services for Joseph H. Londenslager, veteran of the World war were held Sunday afternoon. Burial was made in Grandview cemetery. Former buddies of Londenslager acted as pall bearers. They were: Carl Sanderson, Thomas McGowan, A. Steele, J. Faniels, F. Lee and C. Blackburn. The firing squad was in charge of Lieutenant James Eardley. Color bearers were L. Brendlinger, C. Lee, E. Taylor, G. Hartley, E. Gibbons, H. Hetrick, Fred Shaffer and Glen Oyster. Color guards were F. Miskimen, James Brown, H. Hester and W. Shenk, Captain Curtis Fahnert who is commander of the Sebring American Legion had charge of the funeral from the home and during the services at Grandview cemetery.

With more than 200 friends and relatives to bid them goodbye, 43 members of the on-to-Washington party, left Sebring at 9:30 Monday morning bound for the nation's capital. Superintendent S. H. Pollock and three teachers were numbered with the party.. Other Sebring people who left with the party were Mrs. Stella Alberts and Miss Elizabeth Mills who is taking her vacation from the county health work, Arthur Vogt, Dwight Walker and Warren Hartzell, students.

The Happy Hour Sabbath school class of the United Presbyterian church will suspend meetings until September at which time a meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Ward, Pleasant Heights.

Misses Ruth and Ann Key of Sebring were joint hostesses at a bridge party Friday evening. The following were present: Elizabeth Stevenson, Elizabeth Jacobs, Mildred Earp, Jessamae Uhl, Mildred Pyle, Lydia Miller, Gertrude Tanner, Catherine Long, Amelia Shope and Martha Ward.

J. A. Eden, former mayor, and S. S. McCamon will head the Republican ticket for mayor in Sebring, according to announcement made by the local Republican committee. Carl B. Hamilton, a former president of council and once township clerk is a candidate for city clerk. Marshall Baumgartner will seek his ninth term. For council on the Republican ticket, Matthew Miller, Fred Shaffer and William Shaffer, present council members will again seek office, while O. C. Watson, John Burgess and John Huddleston will be the new office-seekers. L. M. Eells, J. A. Fred and Robert Walker, the three present members are retiring. The primary election will be held August 9.

Make sure today, that you are using the right oil in your Ford.

Smoothness and economy depend upon the oil you use

Only a specially-compounded light-bodied oil—Polarine F—can give best results in your Ford. There are several reasons why this is so.

The Ford motor is a high speed motor and requires an oil which flows freely and quickly to all engine parts.

It is a high compression motor in which carbon formation is more serious, hence an oil of low carbon tendency is required.

Its bearing construction requires an oil light enough to penetrate quickly to bearing surfaces, yet of sufficient body to withstand heat and pressure.

The splash system of lubrication is used, requiring a light-bodied oil which will atomize readily when splashed by the connecting rods.

Polarine F also has the second vital Ford oil characteristic. It keeps transmission bands soft and pliable—prevents chatter and grab.

Our recommendation of Polarine F for Fords is based on our own experience with these cars as well as the judgment of lubrication engineers.

Change crank-case oil every 500 miles and refill with Polarine F. For chassis lubrication use Polarine BB (for differential gears) and Polarine Cup Grease. These high-quality lubricants are available everywhere in Ohio to help you get best results from your Ford.

SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS SESSION

Contracts Awarded for Furnishing New School Building.

Members of the Grant district school board meeting in special session Tuesday night awarded the contract for furnishing desks and shades for the eight-room new Wells school building to the Dobson-Evans company of Columbus, O.

Laboratory equipment will be supplied by the Kewaunee Manufacturing company of Kewaunee, Wis.

Desks and other equipment will be placed in the new building between July 15 and August 1.

BETHANY COLLEGE HAS NEW SYSTEM

A system of obtaining follow-up reports on all graduates of Bethany college who are in educational work has just been put into effect. The aim is to obtain information from school officials as to the strong points and weak points of those who graduate from Bethany and go into educational work. The information will be used to raise the general standards of the work here and of all teaching. This system is part of Dr. H. T. McKinney's program in the department of education and another forward step for the college.

The work of handling these follow-up reports will be in charge of the dean of the college.

Seek Citizenship.

Number of Grant district residents are among those whose application for citizenship were heard this week in circuit court at New Cumberland. Oath of allegiance was administered by Judge J. Harold Brennan.

Lodgemen to Meet.

Members of Clark lodge No. 447, I. O. O. F. will meet tomorrow night in the Aaron building, Fifth street. Routine business will be transacted at this session.

Correcting Records.

Work has been begun on correcting the records of the alumni of Bethany college. No definite work has been done on this for several years and the records are not only very incomplete but incorrect. The work of putting these records in first class condition will take probably a full year or so. F. H. Kirkpatrick has been in charge of the work so far.

PROBE BEAVER CREEK MENACE

State Health Board Investigates Pollution of Waters.

Bruce M. McDill, special investigator for the state department of health, will arrive in Columbiana county, today or tomorrow to investigate the pollution of Beaver creek in Middleton and St. Clair townships.

The pollution, it is said, has been caused by draining mines near Rogers. Large quantities of water filled with sulphur having been turned into Bull Creek which empties into Beaver Creek.

Farmers have been unable to use the water from these streams for their stock, and thousands of fish with which the creeks were recently stocked have been killed.

McDill will be accompanied by Deputy Game Warden L. W. Boring, Lisbon, and Dr. T. T. Church, Salem, county health commissioner, on his tour of investigation.

Only GENERAL MOTORS can give you the value you get in FRIGIDAIRE

EXAMINE a Frigidaire and note the many features that have given it leadership among electric refrigerators:

Direct frost-coil cooling that maintains a constant cold-storage temperature in the food compartment; patented self-sealing freezing trays that quickly freeze an abundance of ice cubes and that provide below-freezing temperatures for making frozen salads and desserts; and the famous hydrolene-treated insulation.

Only engineering skill of the highest order could have produced Frigidaire. And only General Motors could have produced it at a price so low.

Come in and see how easy it is to have this modern, sanitary, care-free refrigeration. A small deposit puts Frigidaire in your home. Then pay a little each month under liberal General Motors terms.

Kills Pesky Bed-Bugs Roaches and Ants

Doctors declare that bed-bugs, roaches and other vermin are the most to be feared means of spreading such diseases as consumption, spinal meningitis and other infectious troubles. There is no disgrace in getting bed-bugs in your home, because that can't be avoided. But it is a disgrace to permit them to remain and thrive when it is so easy to get rid of them with the new chemical compound, P.D.Q., which quickly puts an end to these pesky devils.

A Million Bed-Bugs

A 35-cent package of this golden chemical will make a quart of a mixture that is so deadly to bed-bugs that it would kill a million of them if you could get that many together. Instantly it smothers and annihilates the living creatures; coats their eggs and stops them from hatching and multiplying.

Will Not Damage Goods

P.D.Q. will not injure delicate fabrics, clothing, carpets, furniture, bedding, wall paper or woodwork. In fact, it is often used as a deodorizer and disinfectant.

Moths

Impossible for moths to exist after using P.D.Q. Easy to use. A treatment on garments will prevent moths for two years.

For Ants and Cockroaches

Ants and cockroaches stand no chance of surviving a treatment of P.D.Q. It attacks them and their eggs with such force that it kills their whole generation.

P. D. Q. In Liquid Form

P.D.Q. can be purchased in sealed bottles double strength liquid form, with patent spout free. P.D.Q. Liquid can be diluted to make a quart or it can be used pure.

P.D.Q. is marketed in two style packages, Liquid form 50c, ready for use and P.D.Q. Dry form, 35c. Each package makes one quart.

Get P.D.Q. from your druggist today. Your money back if the bugs are not gone tomorrow.

ODD FELLOWS TO VISIT PARK ON SATURDAY

Tri-State Outing Will be Held at Rock Springs.

SPORT PROGRAM

Baseball Game and Beauty Show are Features.

Odd Fellows from three states—Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania—are expected to attend the tri-state picnic which will be held at Rock Springs park on Saturday. This outing was to have been held two weeks ago but was postponed because of rain.

An athletic program, in which prizes furnished by business men, will be awarded, will be featured during the afternoon. Other events will include a beauty show in which the winner will receive a silver loving cup furnished by Charles Macdonald, park manager, and a baseball game between the Steubenville and Wellsburg lodge teams.

Large delegations of lodgemen and members of their families and friends from Steubenville, Rochester, Lisbon, Salem, Alliance, Tarentum, Wheeling, Wellsburg and New Cumberland will attend the outing.

The picnic is being sponsored by East Liverpool lodge, No. 379.

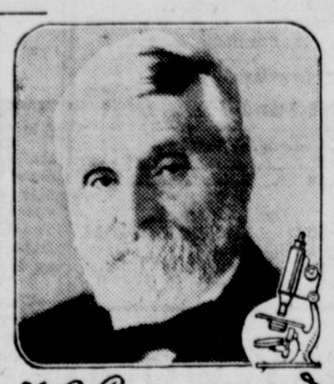
Dr. Caldwell's 3 Rules Keep You Healthy



Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time regardless of how much one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the most delicate system and is not a habit forming preparation. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written us to that effect.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their system. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without griping and harm to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It robs your strength, hardens your arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to a druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Take the proper dose that night and by morning you will feel like a different person. Use Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crampy stomach, bad breath, no appetite, headaches, and to break up fevers and colds. Always have a bottle in the house, and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open.

We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

O'Brien Boy Thin and Pale

In a Little Over Two Months Gained Eleven Pounds.

As a body builder, an appetite creator, and to make weak, skinny boys and girls sturdy, strong and full of energy there is nothing like Cod Liver Oil—any physician will tell you that.

But it's vile, horrible stuff to take, and is apt to upset any stomach, so now doctors are prescribing and wise parents are buying McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—sugar-coated, and as easy to take as candy.

The son of George G. O'Brien of Mahwah, N. J., was thin and pale and did not get enough nourishment from his food. In a little over two months, he gained eleven and one-half pounds, and feels and looks one hundred per cent better.

Mothers, if any of your children are weak, thin or puny, give them these tablets, as directed for 30 days, and watch them gain flesh and health from day to day—they seldom fail—but if the unusual should happen and you are not supremely satisfied with results—your druggist is authorized to return your money.

"WHITE GOLD" AT CERAMIC

New York's Reception to Lindbergh Also on Screen.

A double bill—scenes of New York's tremendous reception to Captain Charles A. Lindbergh and a feature picture, "White Gold," will be offered at the Ceramic theatre today, tomorrow and Saturday.

Filled with dramatic action, tensefied and compelling, "White Gold" is said to be one of the most unusual photoplays in which the exotic Jetta Goudal has appeared, and all who witnessed her remarkable work in "Three Faces East," will await her latest starring effort with genuine interest.

The scenes of the story are laid on a sheep ranch in Arizona. Dolores Carson, a dancer, longing for home life, weds Alec Carson, the son of a sheep rancher. The latter disapproves of the marriage and makes life miserable for his daughter-in-law. A drought of long standing is killing off the sheep and the young wife who sincerely loves her husband, finds herself neglected. Sam Randall, a herder, seeks to win her from her husband who, engrossed in his dying sheep, pays her little attention. The climax is reached when Randall is killed by Dolores after he invades the young wife's room. The finale is as remarkable as it is natural but it would be unfair to the public to reveal it.

Here is a story which provides Miss Goudal with abundant opportunities for the display of her talents as a dramatic actress of remarkable power. In directing the picture, William K. Howard departed from the accepted standards of picture production and established a precedent, that of discarding the scenarist's script and developing the plot according to the psychology of the players and the events as they transpire. The motivation is said to have reached a high tempo in consequence and to have been maintained until the final scene was filmed. The result is reported to be one of the most unusual photoplays thus far produced this season.

Sciatic-Neuritis

The trouble is a very obstinate one and does not readily respond to ordinary treatment. It takes more than the usual pain sedative even to alleviate the pain. The best way to get relief from the persistent nerve racking pains of Neuritis is to get a bottle of Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2, which comes in capsule form. Take them as directed and in about 24 hours you should be able to notice that they have considerably reduced, if not almost banished, all pain and soreness. Continue faithfully and in a reasonable time you should be able to work and rest in comfort once again. Mathews Medicine Store keeps Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2 in stock all the time and sells lots of it.

Hagen Poised For 11th-Hour Rush To National Open Honors

Walt Three Strokes Behind Lead As Golf Rivals Face Finals

By Davis J. Walsh.

OAKMONT, Pa., June 16.—For the first time since he relinquished the title in 1920 to Ted Ray never to regain it in the intervening years, Walter Hagen today was ready to go into the final rounds of the national open championship with the fighting chance that only a fighting golfer needs. Three strokes back of the lead and occupying a spot from which a rush from the rear may well be started, the "king" was poised today for the effort of a lifetime and, at least ten other men felt exactly the same way about it.

One of them was Robert, the Emperor Jones, himself, and in person, playing through the tournament as a champion who seemed about to be unfrocked. The gent was six strokes back of the leader, Harrison Johnston, the amateur gentleman or gentleman amateur as the case may be. Johnston started the last two rounds with a total score of 147, Hagen with 150 and Jones with 153. It seemed as though the champion of champions was due to call it a tournament.

For, at intervening spaces were placed the illustrious names of Gene Sarazen at 148, Tom Armour at 149, Harry Cooper at 150, Harry Hampton at 151 and Bill Mehlhorn and Leo Diegel at 152, and while it may be that Jones will go very well today it doesn't stand to reason that one and all of these parties will go very bad. It will need a combination of both to return Jones to the throne he ascended at Scioto so regally last year.

Jones, of course, is the Harry Houdini of competitive golf, the man who can pluck a rabbit out of the hat and make it look the part of a lion. He was six strokes back when they started the last eighteen at Scioto. And what happened? Everybody blew with the single, outstanding and notable exception of Robert the Jones. He was four strokes off the lead starting the last night and yet won.

History may repeat, in spite of the prophets, but Bobby Jones isn't likely to win unless he starts playing miracle golf, pronto, and without loss of future time.

As a matter of fundamental fact, he has too much to beat. In the 1926 championship, he had men in front of him who weren't due to win anyhow. Today, he must outclass such as Sarazen, Hagen, Armour, Cooper, Mehlhorn, Diegel, Jim Barnes and Archie Compston, not to consider Johnny Farrell and Bobby Cruikshank who might come up from the surreptitious rear to take the play away from everyone.

Those mentioned are the only ones who have better than a mathematical chance at the title but, at that, they are too numerous if you wish to figure them against any one man. The impending champion may be neither Hagen nor Sarazen. It may not be Cooper or Armour. It may be even that Johnston will fold up in the last two rounds.

But you can't figure all of them missing at one and the same time and that is the main reason that the boys behind the third tier of lockers in the Oakmont club house are betting today that a new champion will be installed ere the shadows of late afternoon purple into that bank of hills beyond the nether bank of the Allegheny.

But whoever the winner may be, the 1927 tournament must go down in the books as the most unusual of all the classics. No one, with the possible exception of Armour's 71, Fred Baroni's 72 and Farrell's 73 of yesterday, has been able to score in the manner to which they have become accustomed.

The British nominated a nine-man team and yet with the show-down rounds approaching, only one of them, Archie Compson, has the chance of a white man on a fair day. The "hot" choice of the American contingent were supposed to be Farrell, Cruikshank and John Golden, among others, and yet the first two are barely within hail and the latter is out of sight and virtually mind altogether.

The positions of Jock Hutchison and Willie Macfarlane, ex-champions both, may hardly be regarded as encouraging, while Joe Turnesa, who chased Jones into the last title, remains with the situation today almost as a matter of courtesy.

It has been a tournament of form-backflops and perhaps we haven't seen anything yet. The third and fourth rounds always produce the inevitable blowup that comes to every man who essays to play 72 holes of golf and they will be played today. Anything can happen; many things will. It only remains to determine what, how, when and by what authority.

Fight Results

AT NEW YORK—Sergeant Sammy Baker scored technical knockout over Ace Hudkins, Nebraska welterweight, seventh round.

AT AKRON, O.—Tommy Hughes, Cleveland, won from Spider Ryan, Auburn, N. Y.

'LINDY' SEES ACE LICKED IN K. O. BOUT

Hudkins Streak Checked by Sergeant Sammy Baker.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Two stars in the fistic firmament sparked with added brightness today as the result of sensational knockouts scored at the Polo grounds baxing carnival last night. Sergeant Sammy Baker, the famous soldier welterweight of Mitchel field, N. Y., scored a technical knockout over Ace Hudkins, Nebraska terror, in the seventh round, and Sid Terris knocked out Ruby Goldstein, his East Side rival, in the first round.

By checking Hudkins' long string of victories, Baker looms at the outstanding welterweigh challenger. Ace was on his feet and going strong at the finish, but a cut under his right eye was bleeding so profusely that the referee stopped the bout. The defeat was doubly humiliating to Hudkins because of the presence at the ringside of his old friend, Colonel "Slim" Lindbergh.

Terris put Goldstein to sleep after he had been knocked down for a count of nine. The "dancing master" hit Ruby on the button when Goldstein was rushing in to finish his man. Terris' victory stamps him as a leading contender for the lightweight title.

LOU GEHRIG, the gentleman who is challenging Babe Ruth's title as home run king—for the second season at least—draws the post position in the "G" list.

Gehrig has been matching Babe Ruth homer for homer most of the year and is playing a resultant part in the success of the Yanks in holding the league lead.

Other "G's" in the sport firmament include:

George Gadd, British golf pro now in this country.

Lefty Grove, boasting the fastest ball in the major leagues today, even if he can't control it. And representing an investment of $100,600, win, lose or tie.

Mlle Gade (Mrs. Clemington Corson) first mother and second woman to swim the English channel.

Jay Gould, perennial holder of the world's squash tennis title.

M'GRAW DENIES HORNSBY REPORT

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 16.—The story that Rogers Hornsby had been selected to manage the New York Giants in 1928, is unfounded, according to John J. McGraw, who is here with the team. McGraw said:

"I didn't announce Hornsby would manage the Giants in 1928. What I did say was that I hoped Hornsby would be the man to succeed myself as manager of the Giants. However, I did not say in 1928, for my present contract does not expire until the close of the next season."

'Y' TO TACKLE CHESTER SQUAD

Y. M. C. A. nine of the Recreation League will clash with Werkheiser's "Pros" tonight at 6 o'clock at the T. S. T. field in Chester.

The tilt will be a practice game for the "Y" club in preparation for second half contests.

Neis Sold to White Sox.

CLEVELAND, June 16.—Bernie Neis, outfielder, has been sold by the Cleveland Indians to the Chicago White Sox via the waiver route and is to report to that club immediately.

Heimies Cop Tough Tussle at East End

Tie Count in Eighth on Canne's Homer and Win in Ninth; Scott Clouts Ball Hard for Losers.

With both clubs fighting tooth and toe nail to the final putout, the Heimies and the Review-Tribune clashed last night at Columbian park in a thriller that provided a fitting climax to the first half of the Review-Tribune Recreation league season. The Heimies, sectional pennant winners, won the game, 10 to 9.

Although the conquerors had a big lead in the first five frames, almost sufficient to cop any ordinary engagement of the kind, they saw it melt away in the mid-way innings and disappear altogether in the seventh as the Printers went into the lead by a single tally.

But their bats still carried a few more base wallops and they proceeded to unload them, and these swats, together with a couple of miscues, coming at critical junctures, enabled the pace setters to balance the score sheet figures at 9 all in the eighth and to win by a one-run margin in the ninth.

As customary, the Heimie nine got off to an early start, counting two runs in the opening ode. English walked and DeBolt singled, the former scoring on Larkins' sacrifice fly and the latter on Chuck McConville's single.

Drives by English, DeBolt, McConville and Swaney gave the Heimies four more in the second, the Printers getting one in this frame on Scott's long drive to left.

Two more runs were annexed by Heimies in the third, on a single, a walk and an outfield error.

From then on until the eighth the Heimies went scoreless.

The Printers uncorked a couple of choice clouts in the fourth which, coupled with two Heimie miscues, produced three runs, making the count 8 to 4.

The Printers came within one run of tying the tally in the sixth when three more runs crossed the plate. Third Baseman Scott pasted the pellet to the running track on the street side of the lot for a home run, his wallop being followed by two successive errors and consecutive bingles by D. Scott, catcher, and Niblock.

The Printers continued their onslaught in the seventh, counting twice, the first run tying the score and the second giving them a one-run advantage. C. Kinney, O. Scott, Maley and Niblock banged out singles in this frame.

Facing defeat the Heimie outfit stole surreptitiously from the rear in the eighth to place the affair on an even keel again, Joe Canne's home run drive turning the trick.

KEAY, WOOD COP RACES

Victors in 200 and 300 Mile Bird Events.

Results of two races held last week were announced today by the East Liverpool Homing club. R. Keay won the 200-mile event and J. Wood the 300-mile derby.

The results:

200-mile Race.

	Yards per minute.
R. Keay	1420.90
H. Brookes	1406.11
H. Brookes	1401.09
J. Wood	1336.08
G. Cornell	1334.08

J. Wood	868.13
H. Brookes	857.36
H. Brookes	852.42
G. Cornell	847.32
R. Keay	842.10
P. Ruddy	840.74

The Printers went out in order in the first of the ninth while the Heimies went out to win, one run being sufficient. An outfield and an infield error, followed by a walk and a single did the work.

The contest was witnessed by several hundred fans. As a result of the defeat the Review-Tribune nine and five others are tied for second place in the final reckoning for the initial half.

BUCS, CARDS TAKE SPURT AS CUBS WIN

By Les Conklin.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Although the Chicago Cubs, with eleven straight victories, are burning up the eastern team; they are unable to draw clear of the Pirates and Cardinals, who have caught the idea and started winning spurts of their own. The Giants, held to two hits by Jess Haines, dropped to the .500 mark and apparently are out of the race.

Three leading pitchers improved their records. Ted Lyons of the White Sox won his ninth game in a row and his twelfth of the season; Carmen Hill of the Pirates chalked up his eighth consecutive victory; and Charley Root of the Cubs won his eleventh game of the season.

Grimm and Hartnett each got four hits as the Cubs massacred the Phillies, 12 to 5.

After being tagged for a homer by Simmons with the bases choked in the first, Lyons settled down and did not allow a hit after the third inning. He won his own game with a triple in the eighth. Score, 6 to 4.

Joe Harris, whose hobby this year is collecting base hits, got three of them as the Pirates subdued the Braves, 7 to 4. Pittsburgh handed an unconditional release to Joe Bush, veteran pitcher, and bought Joe Dawson from Louisville to replace him.

The Giants merely went through the motions against Haines, losing, 5 to 0.

Eppa Rixey of the Reds held the Brooklyn Robins to four hits but Dazzy Vance won the decision, 2 to 1.

The other teams did not play.

JACK TO LEAVE FOR NEW YORK

LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, accompanied by a retinue of handlers and secretaries, will leave here today for New York, where he is scheduled to meet Jack Sharkey on July 21.

Sharkey's manager, Johnny Buckley, left here last night. Before he left, he let it be known that he was not satisfied with the terms quoted by Tex Rickard, said he had not signed for the bout and indicated his fountain pen would remain poised until the New York promoter dug a little deeper into his strong box.

Everything a motor car can offer

Beauty Trim, graceful lines; charming proportions; rich Duco colorings; restful, tasteful interiors; upholsteries fine in appearance and in quality; the painstaking, enduring coachcraft of Fisher—Buick combines them all in a car of rare and unusual beauty.

Performance Buick's six-cylinder Valve-in-Head Engine is vibrationless beyond belief at any speed. It has power to take you anywhere, speed that eats up miles, and flexibility that makes driving amazingly easy, even in the thickest traffic.

Economy Low fuel costs with the efficient Buick engine; only four oil changes a year with the Vacuum Ventilator; increased tire mileage with Balanced Wheels—these are examples of Buick economy. But Buick's justly famous dependability and long life provide the greatest economy of all.

Value Because Buick uses the earnings of leadership to further enrich quality; because Buick constantly strives for improvement; because Buick gives everything a motor car can offer—in greater measure, at moderate cost—it is the greatest value automobile dollars can buy. A-46-30

RESOLUTION NUMBER 420.

DECLARING IT NECESSARY TO IMPROVE SMITHFIELD STREET, FROM McKINNON AVENUE TO ORCHARD GROVE AVENUE, BY GRADING AND PAVING THE SAME.

WHEREAS, the owners of a majority of the foot frontage of property owners on Smithfield Street, from McKinnon Avenue to Orchard Grove Avenue, have petitioned in writing for the improvement of said street, between the points named, by grading and paving the same with brick or asphalt on a concrete foundation or re-enforced concrete to the full width of the same, now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, State of Ohio: (Three-fourths of all the members elected thereto concurring):

SECTION I. That it is necessary to improve Smithfield Street, from McKinnon Avenue to Orchard Grove Avenue, by grading and paving the same with brick or asphalt on a concrete foundation or re-enforced concrete to the full width of the same and by constructing therein all necessary concrete curbs, retaining walls, sewers, ditches, bridges, gutters and drains and doing everything else necessary or essential for the proper completion of said improvement in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles heretofore prepared by the City Engineer and hereinafter referred to.

SECTION II. That the grade of said street and said curbs as improved shall be the existing grade.

SECTION III. That the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles of the proposed improvement, heretofore prepared by the City Engineer and now on file in the Office of the Director of Public Service, be and the same are hereby approved.

SECTION IV. That the whole cost of said improvement, less one-fiftieth thereof and the cost of intersections, shall be assessed by the foot frontage upon the following described lots nad lands, to-wit:

All lots and lands bounding and abutting upon said proposed improvement, which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be specially benefitted by said improvement; and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense fo the preliminary and other surveys, and of printing and publishing the notices, resolutions and ordinances required, and the serving of said notices, the cost of construction, together with interest on bonds, issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments, and all other necessary expenditures.

SECTION V. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in five (5) annual installments, with interest on deferred payments at the same rate as shall be borne by the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection thereof; provided, that the owner of any property assessed may, at his option, pay such assessment in cash within thirty (30) days after the passage of the assessing ordinance.

SECTION VI. That bonds of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments and in an amount equal thereto.

SECTION VII. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvement, not specially assessed, shall be paid by the issuance of bonds in the manner provided by law.

SECTION VIII. That this Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Passed this 2nd day of June, 1927.
N. P. KERR,
